WOMANS CLUB

Citizenship Department Meets

The Citizenship department will meet on Thursday afternoon April 28, at 3 o'clock in the auditorium of the High School building in a joint meeting with the League of Women voters. Mr. B. T. Falls, of Shelby will be the speaker for the occasion. His subject will be "The Australian Ballot." Please let all the members of the Woman's Club be present at this time. This will also be the last meeting of the Citizenship department and new officers are to be elected for the ensuing year 1927-1928, Thursday, April 28, 3:00 o'clock.

No Meeting of Division 1

The Division No. 1 of the Woman's Club, will not meet on May 5th owing to the fact that the hostess will attend the State meeting of the North Carolina Federated Woman's Clubs, which will be held in Durham, N. C., May 2-5.

LATEST NEWS FROM SPINDALE

Sunday School Classes Hold Social—Health Night Program April 22.

Spindale, April 26—The Young Women's Class and the Young Men's Class, of the Methodist Sunday school held an enjoyable social at the Spindale House Thursday evening, concluding a contest between the two classes. Thirty young people of both classes were present. A social hour, in charge of Mr. Milton Apperson, was enjoyed, followed by refreshments. Short talks were made by Mr. G. B. Howard, teacher of the Young Men's Class, Rev. T. C. Jordan, Messrs. Fred Kinzie, Ivy Cowan, Dazel William and Mrs. Victor Grose.

A Health Night program was held at the Spindale House Friday evening at 7:30. The meeting was open to the public and a large number attended. Dr. D. P. Murphy spoke on "The Prevention of Cancer", and Dr. J. C. Twitty talked on the subject "The underprivileged Child." Mrs. H. R. Sherrill, community nurse, spoke on "The care of Tuberculosis patients and the need of a county nurse." This program was following up what was probably the first industrial eye conservation clinic ever held in the state, which took place two weeks ago at the office building. The nurse, Mrs. H. R. Sherrill worked up the clinic, and Dr. O. J. Houser of Charlotte, was the specialist in charge. It was held for the employees of the mills of Spindale and their families. About thirty-five children and adults were examined and given proper treatment. Dr. Houser delivered a free public lecture on the care of the eyes in the school auditorium in connection with the clinic. Mayor S. E. Elmore spoke on "Why Spindale Has a Nurse and an Eye Clinic." Another clinic was held April 21st.

Born, Wednesday, to Mr. and Mrs. Odell Harrill, a son.

WESLEYAN CHURCH REVIVAL CLOSES

The revival meeting which has been in progress at the local Wesleyan church closed Sunday night.

Evangelist Gleason did some good preaching as was evidenced by the result of the meeting. A goodly number of professions occurred during the meeting, and the church was greatly helped.

Rev. Mr. Gleason left Monday for Central, S. C., where he begins a tent meeting Friday of this week.

Among the subjects the evangelist preached from, the following are considered among the best: "A Lily Christian," "Little Sins," "The Appeal of Gethsemane," "The Holy Ghost," "The Double Sin and the Double Cure," "The Destiny of a Lost Soul," "The Heart," and "The Second Coming."

BOYD HOLLOWAY, SHOWMAN, HERE FOR ENTIRE WEEK

Owner of The Milt Tolbert Show Speaks of Forest City's Remarkable Growth

Boyd Holloway, executive head of the celebrated Milt Tolbert Shows, now playing this city, arrived in this city Monday morning. He is here, personally to appear in each evening's performance of the Milt Tolbert Show. For the past fourteen years Mr. Holloway has been touring the country actively in charge of his company or happening in to see that the standards established at the beginning of the season, has been rigidly adhered to—The Milt Tolbert mark of high quality. Mr. Holloway knows the value of that trade mark can only endure when personal attention is given to the maintaining of it.

There is, perhaps no more picturesque figure in the theatrical world today than Boyd Holloway, interviewed yesterday, while actively engaged in his dressing room. Mr. Holloway greeted the writer with a handshake that fitted perfectly with his person. Holloway is of medium stature, and is an athlete in statue. He strikes out at once as being cosmopolitan and his cordial manner and cordial hand-clasp add a deeper impression of straightforwardness and suggests the man of the middle west. It was not a surprise to learn Mr. Holloway was born in Monroe, N. C. and comes of a family of theatrical and musical men.

I am thoroughly impressed with the spirit of real business activity and prosperity I encounter in these cities we are playing. The talk of hard times would seem to be a myth. Our company is doing a tremendous business everywhere and it seems to me that every city, realizes what it means to travellers like us to come back to our former haunts again after a year's absence.

The changes that are coming to pass are astounding. Time passes, but in its passing it brings remarkable changes which occasional visitors notice particularly. Around here, for instance, I have met several business men who have reminded us that a few years back they were boys around the theatre where we played. Today, they are families men, in many cases. Your civic clubs like the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions and Chamber of Commerce are all leaving alert progressive imprints upon their towns, while the activities of your women's organizations are being splendidly manifested in your schools and your social institutions. All of these forward steps are apparent to the visitor within your walls.

All of this, has a powerful effect upon theatre fare. Undoubtedly the fact that the repertoire of plays being presented by The Milt Tolbert Show have been selected from the very biggest hits of New York's recent seasons, is largely responsible for the fact that we are breaking our attendance records in almost every city. Merit is the only quality necessary in play-offerings today. If you haven't it you might just as well send your troupe to the store house. This is an age of thinking and reading men and women. Barnum may have been able to fool the public—but even he couldn't have done it today I believe.

Then we asked Mr. Holloway of his big ambitions—of what after the years that have brought him big financial returns, he now turns his thoughts and plans—and dreams perhaps.

"Ambitions." The gods have been kind to me, all I want now is a chance to work—and to help the other fellow to do his work. My wife and I have a home in Florida, where we are a part of the community, of the church, the schools and the theatrical world. I've found life in it's living a place of pretty near contentment. I guess that is my ambition—to have the chance to continue work.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To The Citizens of Forest City: I do not wish to start any newspaper discussion, but a number of my friends have urged me to make an explanation concerning some of the propaganda that has been started since I entered the race for Mayor.

First, it has been stated that if I am elected Mayor of Forest City that I intend to send any cases that are supposed to come before me to the Recorder's Court at Rutherfordton. I should like to say that such rumor is false, and that if I am elected I shall try all cases that are supposed to come before the Mayor.

I should also like to say there are many other rumors floating around, but they are as false as the one starting them. I have made no promises nor threats. In the first place, I would make no promises, because anything that is done must be done by the Aldermen, and the Mayor has no vote except in case of a tie. If the Mayor's influence is good he might recommend and be instrumental in getting something done. I would advise the citizens of Forest City to think for themselves and to know that any promises made will only extend so far as the influence of the one making that promise extends.

Lastly, I should like to say that if I am elected Mayor, I shall give the office all the time that it needs to fulfill the duties of that office. I shall play no favorites and will lend my influence to make our pretty little city one of the best.

Sincerely,
CHAS. Z. FLACK.

SPINDALE SPLITS WITH CHARLOTTE CLUB

Spindale, April 25.—Spindale took one game and lost one to the Charlotte Road Club team in a two game series here Friday and Saturday. Friday afternoon's game resulted in a complete snowing under of the locals. Grose, pitching for Spindale, did some good work, however two errors were costly to Spindale.

The results were as follows:

	R	H	E
Charlotte Road Club	5	12	0
Spindale	1	8	5

Batteries: Charlotte, Dennis, Hunt. Spindale, Grose, Jones.

Saturday afternoon's game was entirely different. Spindale took the aggressive early in the game and started piling up a score that was never overcome. The first score came in the third inning when Watson put an outcurve over the fence. In the seventh inning Setzer parked another with a man on base. Charlotte's lucky inning was the sixth. With two men down the following four made safe hits for three runs.

Summary as follows:

	R	H	E
Charlotte	7	13	2
Spindale	12	19	6

Batteries, Charlotte, Dennis, Rogers and Holman. Spindale, Watson, Corn.

On Saturday, May 7, Spindale plays Hickory at Spindale and on the following Saturday Cherryville at Spindale.

CHILD'S ARM CRUSHED IN WASHING MACHINE

Little Joseph Woody, five-year old son of Mrs. J. I. Woody, of Arlington street, was seriously injured Wednesday morning when his arm was caught in the electric wringer of a washing machine. The left arm was badly crushed and he was rushed to Dr. Duncan's office, where an x-ray examination revealed that both bones in the arm were splintered.
