FOUR INJURED IN WRECK SUNDAY

Car Turns Turtle Near Union Mills — Burwell Child Dead — Other News of Spindale

Spindale, June 21.—Miss Lizzie Arrowood is in the Rutherford Hospital suffering with a broken leg and Misses Rose Arrowood and Lilah Lawing and Mr. Jake Arrowood have minor injuries as a result of an automobile wreck between Gilkey and Union Mills Sunday afternoon, about three o'clock.

The wreck occurred when the car in which the injured parties were riding turned turtle when they attempted to pass another car going in the same direction. The hub cap on one of the cars caught on the other, causing the wreck. Miss Lizzie Arrowood was rushed to the hospital immediately after the wreck, where she is convalescing nicely at present. Mrs. Jake Arrowood and two children were also passengers in the wrecked car, but escaped uninjured.

The seven months old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Burwell died Tuesday morning at the Saluda Hospital, Saluda, after a short illness of colitis. Funeral services were held Wednesday at Spindale, and interment was at Rutherfordton.

Editor and Mrs. Clarence Griffin, accompanied by Mr. Aubrey Clay, spent the week end visiting Mrs. Griffin's sister, Mrs. M. T. Long and Mr. Long in Wadesboro.

Mr. W. C. Lynch, of Forest City, Miss Jacqueline Hill, Mrs. John Huntley, of Spindale and Mrs. Fred Horton and Miss Irene Hamrick, of Ruth, left Friday for the State B. Y. P. U. and Baptist Sunday school convention being held in Raleigh. They were joined there Sunday by Messrs. McKinley and Brannon Harrill, of Spindale.

The Spindale Boy Scouts went on an overnight hike Tuesday night.

THE CLOWN REVUE HERE FRIDAY

Funny Minstrel Being Sponsored by Womans' Club—To Be At School Auditorium

On Friday night, June 24, the Womans' Club will present their "big laugh success," "The Clown Revue" at the High School auditorium.

The first part of the show is a new idea in minstrel shows, featuring Mick and Dick, the two black boys on the ends. These two clever comedians are known in private life as M. H. Hewitt and R. W. Minish.

In this act many clever song and chorus numbers will be introduced not to speak of the new minstrel "gags" hot off the griddle.

The second part of the show is on the "Passing Show" idea with funny sketches and catchy song specialties predominating, sung and acted by Forest City's clever kiddies and pretty girls.

Included in the cast of the "Clown Revue" are such well known local talent as Claire Reid, Lanett McMurry, Margaret Moore, R. C. Alexander, James Padgett, Dr. R. R. Howes, Hoyle Elliott, Tom Dorsey, Louis Stalnaker, James Ayers, George Carpenter, Pierce Hyder, Stanley Hall, A. C. Finch, T. G. Stone, Lolan Kanipe, C. P. Parks and Mr. Smith.

There are one hundred people in the cast and is being produced by "The Bimel Producing Co.," of St. Marys, Ohio, with splendid costumes.

Augusta, Ga., this week, visiting Mr. Grose's brother, Dr. H. B. Grose.

Rev. W. H. Haney, of Greenville, S. C., preached an inspiring sermon at the Spindale Baptist church Sunday morning. He also preached at the Spencer Baptist church Sunday evening to a large audience. Mr. Haney was at one time the Baptist pastor at Spindale and has many friends here who were glad to welcome him back.

COUNTY CLUB MET IN HENRIETTA

Rev. Arthur Jackson Delivers Principal Address—July Meeting at Chimney Rock

Henrietta, June 22.—The June meeting of the Rutherford County Club was held here yesterday with a good attendance, about sixty members being present. The Ladies Missionary Society, of the Methodist church, served the luncheon, which was up to the usual standard.

Rev. Arthur Jackson, Baptist minister of Hendersonville, who has been holding a revival in Rutherfordton, was the principal speaker. He was introduced by Rev. M. A. Adams.

The matter of holding a celebration and formal opening at Chimney Rock for Route Twenty was discussed, and the president empowered to appoint a committee to arrange program and details. The date was set as July 30. Chairman Frank Page and Senator Lee S. Overman are expected to be among those present at the celebration, it was stated. July meeting of the County Club will also be held at Chimney Rock, on July 30, in connection with the mammoth celebration.

Miss Mayme Camp, of the State Board of Welfare, of Raleigh, was present and made an interesting talk on the work of the Board of Charities and Welfare.

Messrs. N. C. Harris, R. E. Price and K. S. Tanner were appointed as a committee to represent the county for the Seaboard Railway in the hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission in Raleigh, Friday in reference to the running of busses to Chimney Rock.

A YOUNG married man 23 years of age desires a permanent position as bookkeeper and can do stenographic work. Will consider any kind of work along this line. Everett P. Bridges, Lawndale, N. C. Box 25. 37-2t-p.
