The regular meeting of the Music Club was held Friday, January 20th, at the home of Mrs. T. R. Padgett, with Mesdames Padgett, Hague Padgett, John Carpenter and Oscar Price as hostesses.

The program for the afternoon was taken from the Japanese opera "Madame Butterfly," which was successfully interpreted. Japanese lanterns, cherry blossoms, incense burners and miniature temples were used throughout the spacious drawing room and music room.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. T. R. Padgett introduced Mrs. Smith, from Cliffside, a former missionary to Japan, who gave a demonstration of a tea in Japan, which was greatly enjoyed by the club.
