LIKES THE COURIER AS WELL AS ANY DAILY

Wadesboro, Feb. 13.—Please find enclosed check of $1.50 for The Courier for one year. I have missed the paper for about two weeks. I like The Courier as well as any daily paper. Forest City is my home and I like to get the news from my old home town.

MT. PLEASANT HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB MEETS

The regular monthly meeting of the Mt. Pleasant Home Demonstration club met at the home of Mrs. T. J. Wilkins at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, February 8. We had a most interesting meeting. Miss Howard gave a very helpful talk and illustration on the selecting and arranging of living room furniture. She said the first thing to consider was expense; that we could furnish our living rooms well and attractive with little expense, if we give it thought and care in selecting. The next thing to consider was comfort, to arrange the living room furniture with each member of the family's comfort in mind.

After Miss Howard's talk a social hour was enjoyed, during which a salad course with hot coffee was served to the following: Mrs. J. D. Smith, J. S. Wall, G. W. Rollins, C. M. Holland, Chivous Tate, David Earley, Miles Kennedy, Vance Price, Kelley Hamrick, Clark Harrill, Max Smith, Conway Kennedy, Leroy Holland, J. D. Link, Will Smith, Miss Louise Wall and Miss Howard. We had a large number of visitors and one new member joined our club.

MR. WAYNE BRIDGES IS CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

Mr. Wayne Bridges, of Rutherfordton, announces his candidacy for sheriff in this week's Courier. Mr. Bridges is eminently fitted for the position, having served four years as deputy sheriff under Mr. J. W. Beason, and, to use a slang expression, "knows the ropes." He is now city clerk and fire chief for the town of Rutherfordton, a position which he has filled efficiently for some time. Mr. Bridges is a young man of fine character, and considering his experience, qualifications and ability, he will make an excellent officer if elected.
