

Local Happenings

Miss Sarah Bailey and Miss Farnham spent the week-end at their homes in South Carolina.

Messrs. Jack Perrin and Howard Camnitz, Jr., of Mars Hill, spent Saturday here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Carpenter, of Cliffside, spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Webb.

Misses Ruth and Mary Meares and Mr. Arval Alcock went to Spartanburg Friday evening to hear Harry Snodgrass.

Mr. Chas. Byrd, of Wadesboro, spent the week-end here with friends.

Misses Myrtle McDaniel and Ollie Tate and Mr. R. H. Callahan spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McDaniel in Greenville, S. C.

Miss Gladys Chesson was the week end guest of her friend, Miss Virginia Glen, in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Michalove, Mrs. Katie Glickman, Messrs. David Glickman and Robert Swartsberg spent Sunday in Asheville. Mrs. Katie Glickman remained in Asheville for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Allen and children of Shelby, spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Putnam.

Miss Viola Randall, Myrtle Hemphill and Eva Hallerman spent last week end in Charlotte. While there they attended the musical comedy "Rose Marie."

Mrs. A. W. Falvey will return the latter part of the week from Atlanta, Ga., where she has been visiting her brother, Mr. Arch Martin and Mrs. Martin.

Mrs. Ima Pruett, of Cliffside, spent Monday here with Mrs. M. M. McCurry and family.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Dorsey spent Sunday with relatives in Shelby.

Mrs. D. C. Rollins, of Shelby spent Tuesday here with her daughter, Mrs. M. E. Dorsey and Mr. Dorsey.

Misses Grace Harris and Louise Rose and Messrs. Paul Doggett and Charles Crowell went to Charlotte on Saturday evening to attend "Rose Marie" being played there last week.

Mr. W. H. Whitlock, of Shelby, spent Sunday here with his daughter, Mrs. Jack McCurry.

Messrs. P. T. Reinhardt and W. G. Magness spent Tuesday in Charlotte on business.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hewitt and Misses Sudie Young, Alice King and Johnie Mae Hemphill and Mrs. Clyde Hardin spent Tuesday in Charlotte.

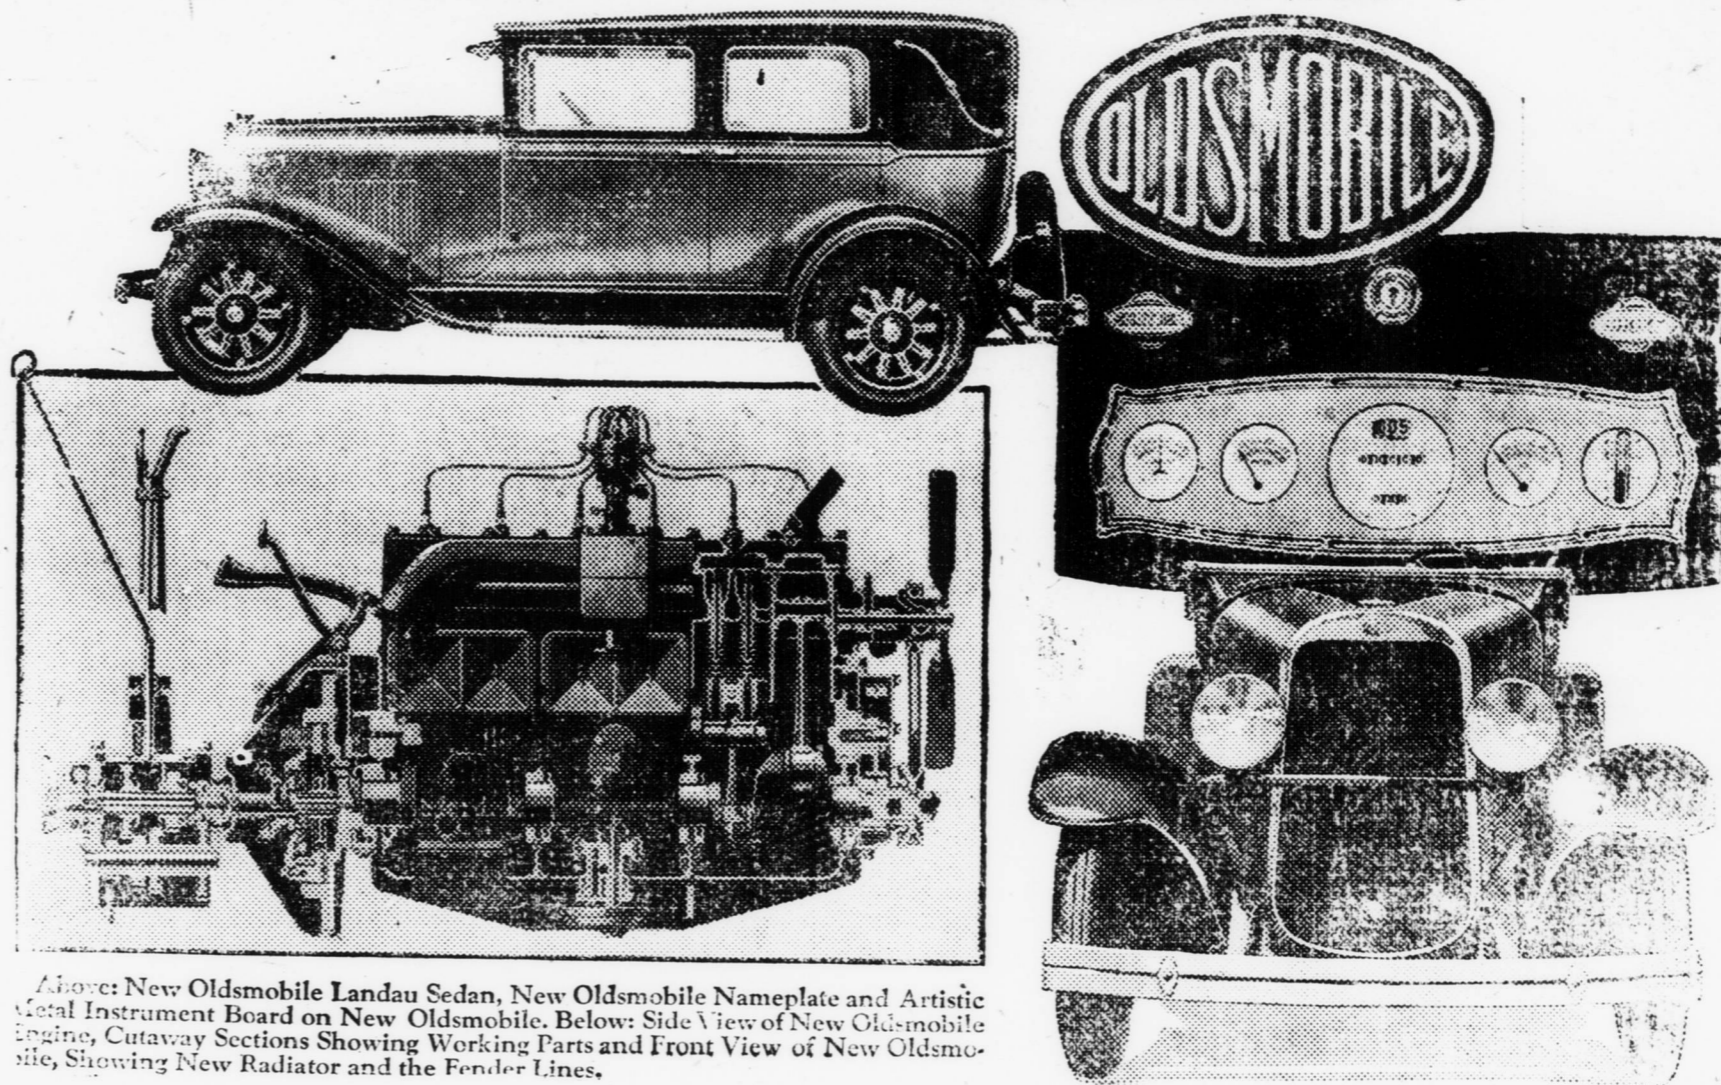

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle Elliott and children visited relatives in Gastonia last week end. On Saturday evening they went to Charlotte to see "Rose Marie."

Messrs. Worth Harriss, Ralph Eubanks and Hugh Crayton, of Charlotte spent last week end here with Mr. Harriss' mother Mrs. G. M. Harriss.

Little Miss Eugenia Harrill is confined to her bed with scarlet fever. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Harrill. We are glad to report she is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Padgett and Miss Lilah Padgett were in Charlotte last week on business.

Features of New Oldsmobile Six

Above: New Oldsmobile Landau Sedan, New Oldsmobile Nameplate and Artistic Metal Instrument Board on New Oldsmobile. Below: Side View of New Oldsmobile Engine, Cutaway Sections Showing Working Parts and Front View of New Oldsmobile, Showing New Radiator and the Fender Lines.

IT IS HERE!

The Bigger and Better

9c

SALE BEGINS

Saturday Morning

Watch for the Big Two Page Circular.

Courtney's

5c to $1.00 Store
Forest City, N. C.

MRS. H. C. SISK DEAD

Mrs. Ellen Romedia Sisk, wife of Rev. H. C. Sisk, aged 57, better known as "Aunt Mead" died Wednesday morning February 8 at her home on Park street, of complication of diseases, after an extended illness of three weeks. She had been unconscious for thirteen days and death was not unexpected.

She was united in marriage to Rev. H. C. Sisk nearly forty-one years ago. To this union were born twelve children of whom eleven survive.

Her husband, Henry C. Sisk, and the following children survive: E. C. Sisk of Marion, J. J. and H. A. Sisk of Shelby, Walter Sisk, of Lexington, Mrs. Lox Hardin of Long Beach, Cal., and A. H. Sisk and Plato, Mrs. Lillie McCluney, Mrs. Detta Harris, Mrs. W. N. Henderson and Mrs. Peterson Sisk of Forest City; twenty-six grandchildren and one great-grandchild, also survive, while eight grandchildren preceeded her to the grave. Mr. Gajther Watts of Lincolnton, a brother and Mrs. Mary Sparks a sister, of Casar, also survive.

Funeral services will be held Thursday (today) at 2 o'clock, p. m. in the Missionary Methodist church, of which she was a consistent member. Rev. H. C. Kiser, her pastor, will have charge of the services, assisted by others.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Observing Dramatics Week
The Forest City Dramatics Club is celebrating National Dramatics week by entertaining the members of the Woman's Club and their husbands at an open program at the High School Auditorium on Friday evening, February 10, at 8 o'clock. The program will consist of two one act plays, "The Trusting Place," by Booth Tarkington, and "The Second Blessin'," a folk play of the Carolina Mountains by Mrs. D. H. Sutton. The latter play has been entered by the Dramatics Club in the state contest.

Every member of the Dramatics club is urged to be present and are asked to invite and bring along their husband or friend.

CAROLEEN NEWS OF LATE INTEREST

Caroleen, Feb. 7.—On Monday evening the Alda Grayson Circle of the Baptist W. M. U. met with Mrs. Jim Earley. Miss Ella Lynch was in charge of the program. A very interesting study was given. Miss Ora Smart opened the meeting by a short but impressive prayer, followed by an appropriate Bible reading by Mrs. Waldo Lynch. The regular monthly program was carried out, and the business was transacted. The circle decided to make table covers for the Alexander Home for Motherless Children at Union Mills. A speaker will be present at the Missionary meeting at the church Sunday afternoon, representing the Home. Mrs. Earley served delicious fruit to the following members present, Mrs. C. A. Sparks, Mrs. Oscar Lynch, Mrs. Waldo Lynch, Mrs. R. P. Earley, Mrs. Mary Hamrick, Misses Othelo Ferree, Ora Smart, Ella Lynch, Ethel Ebron, and Minnie Harrill.
Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, Miss Ada

NOW ON DISPLAY

NEW OLDSMOBILE

One could not imagine there could be such a transformation in an automobile much less the Oldsmobile. It is truly the

FINE CAR OF LOW PRICE

You are invited to inspect this car which is on display in our show room in the Moss Building. Come in and let us demonstrate the new Oldsmobile.

J. T. CAMP

Forest City, N. C.

AN APPRECIATION

We wish to express to the public at large our appreciation for the generous patronage to our DOLLAR DAY SALE. We expected a successful sale, but we were unprepared for the vigorous manner in which our customers bought merchandise. It is needless to say that our sales ran far ahead of our expectations. We wish to thank each one of you for making these three days the most successful in our history.

You will observe that Dalton Bros. adheres strictly to truth in advertising. Any time we advertise an article to go at a certain price it goes that way regardless of what may happen. Again we always have quantity enough of any article to last for a reasonable length of time.

Such a policy has gained for this store public confidence which we guard jealously. At all times you can depend upon the trustworthiness and reliability of this store to give you the best there is to be found for the money.

Again, we thank you.

Dalton Bros.

THE PLACE TO TRADE
Forest City, N. C.

Smith, Mr. S. J. Asbury and Mr. Louie Smith spent Wednesday in Charlotte.
Mrs. J. M. Hamrick, who recently returned from the Rutherford Hospital, is spending sometime with her daughter, Mrs. S. H. Holland.
Mr. Herschel Wilson of Brevard, N. C., visited his father, Mr. D. M. Wilson, recently. Mr. Wilson, who has been very sick for some time is improving.
Mrs. Martha Randall of near Oak Grove is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Hamrick.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown us during the sickness and death of our husband and father.
MRS. J. W. WATSON and CHILDREN.