T. E. L. CLASS REORGANIZED

The T. E. L. class of the First Baptist church has reorganized and are planning great things for the summer.

Some of the members are lost, strayed or stolen and we want to find them. So next Sunday morning just step up to the old T. E. L. class and see what you are missing. Surely is an inspiration to be there and see all the new officers taking up their duties so well. We are building up our class and want you to come and help us. Will be looking for you.

WASHBURN NEWS

Bostic, R-1, Feb. 20.—Messrs Durham and Edgar Digh, who have been working at Hickory, N. C., spent the week-end with their home folks.

The B. Y. P. U., of Concord Baptist church, favored the Salem Epworth Leaguers with a fine program last Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. The B. Y. P. U. will be welcomed back at any time desired.

The Epworth League was entertained at the home of Miss Vernelle West on last Thursday night with a Valentine party. Those present were Misses Alpha and Ruth Melton, Misses Annie Lou and Lillian Hamrick, Geneva and Eliza Philbeck, Maude and Myrtle Murray, Lucy Higgins, Mary Culbreth, Esther Bailey, Ruth Harrill, Messrs. Gilmer, Hammon, Earl and John Philbeck, Glenn Harrill, Clifton Bostic Hoyt Hamrick, Roscoe and Thomas Melton, Carmel, Hubert and Baine Cooper, Farris Bailey, and Wade Wells.

Mrs. Hester Harton, of near Bostic, died Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock, Feb. 13, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. N. Washburn after an illness of two months.

Funeral services and burial were held at Salem M. E. church at noon Tuesday with Rev. Baxter Davis of High Point in charge, assisted by Rev. J. E. Hipps her pastor. Considering the rough weather, a large crowd attended.

The deceased was sixty-four years of age. She has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. E. N. Washburn and family for some time. She was an active member of Salem church, and was a kind devoted mother. To know her was to love her.

She is survived by four children, Mrs. E. N. Washburn, of Bostic; Mrs. B. T. Stanford, of Dallas, Texas; Mr. T. B. Harton, of Charlotte and Mr. Leslie Horton, of Toledo, Ohio. All the children were at home when she died.

Misses Burga Greene, of Rutherfordton, and Alpha Melton, of Bostic, and Mr. Julius Digh, of Bostic, were the guests of Vernelle and Cling West last week-end.
