FRIDAY, MARCH 2

Billie Dove and Huntley Gordon in "Sensation Seekers."

A real story of our much discussed "younger generation"—but not a tale of flappers, cakeeaters or jazz parties—is coming to the Movie Theatre on Friday, March 2. Lois Weber, the screen's only woman director, has given a new angle to this type of story and has an unusually well chosen and capable cast to enact her production. The leading roles are taken by Huntley Gordon and Billie Dove in this Universal-Jewel production, called "The Sensation Seekers."

"The real story of the modern girl," said Miss Weber, "has not been represented simply as a type. Instead, she has represented simple as a type. There is no type for the younger generation of today. A few years ago they were nothing but types and a change has crept in. The girl of today refuses to pigeon-holed into any particular type. She has a mind of her own which is usually a very good one and she insists on using it without domination or parental influence.

"The modern girl does not demand jazz parties, cocktails and late hours nearly as much as she demands freedom of thought and action. This modern girl has certainly not been put under the microscope in recent flapper pictures."

The cast of "The Sensation Seekers" also includes Raymond Bloomer, Peggy Montgomery, Phillips Smalley, Edith Yorke, Clarence Thompson and Nora Cecil.

Also comedy, "Peaceful Oscar." Comedy—"In Again, Out Again." Terminating the last chapter of "Fire Fighters."

SATURDAY, MARCH 3

"Women's Wares." An intriguing and interesting comedy drama. A splendid cast, headed by Evelyn Brent and Bert Lytell.

Evelyn Brent who has climbed to the top rung of the film drama owes her rise to stardom on the screen to a girlhood ambition to make good as an actress. Born in New York City she received her education in the Gramma schools and intrigued with motion pictures, used all of her spare time in playing extra roles at the old Biograph Studios. After graduating from High School, her beauty and dramatic ability got her a contract with the World Film Company and during the period of a year played everything from leads to bits.

Miss Brent was making great headway when a slump in the business threw her out of a job and she was forced to look for other work. She posed for James Montgomery Flagg and her face was seen on many magazine covers. She then went to other companies and played opposite Lionel Barrymore, with Emily Stevens and ingenue leads in a picture which starred Olive Thomas. Becoming discouraged with pictures, Miss Brent went to London and played the leading role in "The Ruined Lady" a part created by Grace George in New York. Her success was instantaneous and played in London for a year. Discovered in Europe by John Robertson of Famous Players, she was given a leading feminine role and returned to the United States.

Miss Brent's work attracted the attention of the production department of Tiffany Productions and she was given the leading feminine role in their production of "Women's Wares" which will be the feature picture attraction coming to the Movie Theatre Saturday, March 3 for a one day's run.

Before that Miss Brent made a tremendous success in her characterization in "Underworld" and was also engaged to play the leading feminine role in the special production of "Beau Sabreur" and to play opposite Emil Jannings in his latest picture.

Miss Brent impersonates an unsophisticated girl in a big city in "Women's Wares" and disillusioned insofar as men are concerned determines to show them that every girl is not legitimate prey for the wealthy man-about-town. In addition to Miss Brent the cast includes Short, Richard Tucker, Sylvia Ashton, Cissy Fitzgerald, Gino Corrado Bert Lytell, Larry Kent, Gertrude and other screen celebrities.
