... yet Buick clears the ruts and gives head-room as well

Buick's remarkable combination of modish, graceful beauty—maximum head-room—and ability to clear the ruts—is the direct result of the Buick double-drop frame.

This brilliant advancement, pioneered by Buick months ago, places Buick far ahead of other cars in beauty, safety and all-around roadability.

HOPEWELL NEWS

Small Daughter of Mr. George Bridges Dead—Several Cases of Measles Reported—Local and Personals.

Ellenboro, R-1, March 13.—Little Myrtle Bridges, daughter of Mr. George Bridges, died last week of pneumonia, fever and measles. A large number were at the funeral at Walls. Flower girls were, Misses Wilma Bridges, Vernia Dycus, Vergie Owens, Myrtice Bowen. Pallbearers were Mr. Loren Davis, Iris Melton, Oran Melton, Guy Butler. Four more of the little children have measles, two of them have pneumonia with them. The bereaved family have the sympathy of friends and neighbors. We hope the other little children will soon be well again.

Miss Alda Pettys spent last Saturday night with Miss Myrtice Bowen.

Miss Dorcas Bridges was a visitor of Miss Myrtice Bowen's Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Leo Hawkins, of Greenville, S. C., was a visitor at his aunt Davie Bridge's last week.

Miss Pauline Dycus gave a birthday party on last Friday night in honor of her cousin, Mr. Loren Davis. All present had a delightful time.

Miss Dorcas Bridges and her uncle, Mr. George Bridges, motored to Casar and spent the day on last Thursday.

Mr. Coran Callahan has smallpox. Mr. George Bowen and family, of Alexander, spent last Saturday night and Sunday at Mr. Oscar Bowen's.

Mr. Randolph Price, of Gastonia, spent Saturday night at Mr. Broadus Murkes.

There will be preaching services at Robbins Grove Wesleyan Methodist church every Sunday night.

Mrs. Bud Dixon is recovering from a serious illness. Her friends will be glad to note the improvement.

Mr. Hoyle Robbin's children are recovering after having the whooping cough.

Mr. Marlin Ramsey's family have the whooping cough.

Mr. Pruett Biggerstaff and family, of Gaffney, S. C., spent last Saturday night at Mr. George Bridge's.

Mr. Clarence Gantt and family, of near Mooresboro, were visitors at Mr. Dool Robbin's Sunday.

Mr. J. Walkers family have measles.

Little Robert Dycus has the measles.

Mr. Lee Swink and family motored to Forest City Saturday afternoon.

GOLDEN VALLEY

Bostic, R-4, March 11.—Mr. Plato Jones had the misfortune of getting his house burned last Wednesday night. He had been cleaning out the house on the day that it burned, and fixing to move into the house. The origin of the fire is unknown. There was no insurance on the house.

The many friends of Mr. Letcher Rollins, and Miss Mary Sue Gamble will be surprised to hear of their wedding which occurred recently. Miss Gamble is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Gamble. Mr. Rollins is the popular young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rollins, Sr. Their many friends wish them a long and successful life.

Mrs. Horace Keetan has been seriously ill with acute indigestion, and is slowly improving.

Mr. A. McCombs was very sick Saturday night, but is better at present.

Mr. Claude Melton has been seriously ill with measles and is slowly improving.

Miss Mallie McCurry and her brother, Lester, spent the week-end with their sister, Mrs. Essie McCombs, at Cliffside.

Miss Nannie Melton motored to Fallston on business Monday.

Mr. Bud Upton and family, of Spindale, visited Mrs. Upton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McCurry Saturday.

Misses Mary and Nannie Melton visited their grandmother Saturday afternoon, Mrs. J. R. Melton.

Mr. Ben McCurry and family spent Sunday with Mr. McCurry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McCurry.

NEW QUICK LUNCH STAND

Mr. Quinn Kendrick has opened a new quick lunch stand in the cafe building between Carroll and Byers and The Leader Store. The place has been thoroughly overhauled and is as clean as a pin. He will give first-class service and asks his friends to give him a call. Quinn's hot dogs are creating a special demand and the other cafe service is attracting attention. He has installed a new shoe shine stand and will erect an awning there in the near future.

PLAY "THE LITTLE CLOD HOPPER AT ELLENBORO

Ellenboro, March 12.—A play, The Little Clodhopper, will be given Saturday evening, March 17. The characters of the play will be impersonated by the following Ellenboro High school students:
