

DYEING METHOD IS PATENTED BY I. B. COVINGTON

Former Forest City Man
Patents Machine For Dyeing Roving.

Wadesboro, March 19.—I. B. Covington, superintendent of the Wade Mill here received a patent recently for a dyeing apparatus on which he has been working for over two years. It is an appliance which dyes roving instead of yarn and the only machine ever gotten out which does this kind of work. It reduces cost of dyeing and will be a great help to the textile industry.

Mr. Covington formerly lived in Forest City where he is well known. He was superintendent of the Florence Mills for several years.

CAROLEEN NEWS

(Special to The Courier).

Caroleen, March 21.—One of the most interesting and inspirational meetings of the W. M. U. was held at the home of Mrs. A. C. Lovelace's last Friday evening, occasion was the observance of the Ruby anniversary of the Baptist Women's Missionary Union. Such meetings are being held throughout the organizations of the Southern Baptist conventions. A most appropriate and inspiring program was planned by Mrs. R. N. Childress and carried out in her usual splendid manner. Two large wall posters were arranged by Mrs. Childress showing the goal of the W. M. U. and a large red hand painted torch, signifying the light sent throughout the world by the W. M. U. Each member was presented a red heart which bore this message, "Open Your Heart Loyal to the Ruby anniversary and on the other side was written the aim of the Ruby anniversary which is as follows, 40 per cent increase over present number organizations by close of year 1928; 33,000 organizations by close of year 1928 is the goal; 40,000 new members in existing organizations; four million dollars to be total of all W. M. U. gifts during year 1928. Little leaflets, tied with red ribbon were also presented which told a wonderful story, "The Woman Who Gave Herself."

The W. M. U. Hymn for the year, "Jesus Calls Us," was sang followed by the devotional reading by Mrs. H. B. Holland. Mrs. Chas. McCurry of Cliffside gave the history of the W. M. U. for the past 40 years which was very interesting and showed the wonderful growth and good of the union. Mrs. Byron Hamrick read a paper entitled "Rubies" describing the value and origin of this precious stone. Mrs. Oscar Lynch also read a piece, "Pray Ye," while Mrs. S. H. Holland gave a fine reading on "Prayer." Greetings from the various states, of the Ruby anniversary were read: Miss Amanda Head, gave N. C.; Mrs. M. A. Higgins, Alabama; Mrs. U. K. Allen, Virginia, and Miss Margaret Lynch, Tennessee. Mrs. B. M. Melton gave a fine talk, "To You From Falling Hands." After a closing prayer a social hour was enjoyed at which time Mrs. Lovelace served cherry jello with whipped cream, sandwiches and hot coffee. Those attending were Mesdames. R. N. Childress, H. R. Holland, U. K. Allen, Urcilla Lynch, Waldo Lynch, S. H. Holland, Bruner Beam, Margaret Haney, Marlo Hawkins, B. T. Hawkins, Dave Lynch, B. M. Melton, Sam Melton, Byron A. Hamrick, Jim Earley, Mrs. Luther Campbell and Mrs. Chas. McCurry of Cliffside; Misses Amanda Head, Minnie Harrill, Margaret Lynch and Mrs. Oscar Lynch. Announcement was also made of the associational meeting next Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at Avondale Baptist church.

Miss Ruth Lynch, returned this week to Asheville Normal, after a two weeks stay here, observing in the schools. She is a member of the graduating class there this year.

Mr. Jim Earley, who is working in Spartanburg, is spending a few days at home with his family.

Mr. Mary Hamrick, has returned

PROF. C. A. ERWIN TO ADDRESS STATE BOARD

Prof. Clyde A. Erwin, superintendent of public instruction, left Wednesday for Raleigh where he is attending a meeting of the State Board of Education. Mr. Erwin is on program and will address the meeting on "Economy and Transportation," using Rutherford county school board's system of centralized purchasing and economical transportation system as examples.

MR. T. L. GROSE DIED SATURDAY

Gunshot Wound Received Accidentally
Several Years Ago Results in Death.

Mr. T. L. Grose, aged 39 years, died at his home near Midway Saturday evening about 6:15 p. m. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at two o'clock at Pleasant Grove Methodist church with Rev. J. B. Tabor and Rev. R. T. Baker in charge.

Mr. Grose lost an eye several years ago by an accidental discharge of a gun while hunting. For sometime he had been complaining of a severe headache. Death came suddenly Saturday afternoon, and doctors pronounced the cause as complications of the brain, due to his former injury.

He is survived by his wife, who is a daughter of Mr. H. C. Carson, of near Bostic, two brothers, Messrs. Olin Grose, of Forest City R-2, and Lee Grose, of Eufaula, Ala., survive also three sisters and his mother.

For sometime he had been employed in the cloth room of the Florence Mills here.

The church was filled to capacity for the funeral services Monday afternoon. A large and beautiful floral offering attested to the high esteem in which he was held in the community.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Dewey Long, Wilbur McBrayer, Lee Grose, Olin Grose, Chalmers Grose and Walter Daniel.

Beautiful salad bowls, special, 15c and 25c each. Stahl's Ten Cent Store.

home from the Rutherford hospital, after undergoing an operation for appendicitis recently.

Mr. Clinton High, of Durham, N. C., spent a few days here last week visiting his sister, Miss Berta Lee High, and other friends.

Mrs. T. C. Smith, Mrs. Gerard Lipscomb, Misses Margaret and Ruth Walker, of Rutherford and Miss Ada Smith spent Tuesday in Charlotte.

Mrs. Rosie Lamar, of Spartanburg, S. C., spent the week-end here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bruner Beam.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dedmond and Miss Cox, of Columbus, spent Tuesday here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hamrick and other relatives.

Miss Mary Lynch and friend, Miss Ada Phillips, who teaches school at Mills Springs, spent the week-end here, visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Lynch.

Mr. L. B. Robbins, who has been manager of the Cherokee Mills Store, at Cherokee Falls, S. C., since leaving Caroleen, purchased the store, stock of goods, and house of Mr. D. F. Beachboard. Mrs. Robbins will not take charge until the first of April. Mr. Beachboard will continue the mercantile business in Forest City. Mr. Robbins moved his family back to his home here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Timmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards and Mrs. F. O. Hands spent Tuesday in Asheville, N. C.

A training school is being held this week at the Baptist church here, several different courses being given, from Sunday school Manual and B. Y. P. U. Manual. The various classes are being taught by Rev. and Mrs. R. N. Childress, Rev. Crawford Lynch and others. The classes are being well attended. Lunch is being served in the dining hall of the church each evening for those present.

The baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Jolley, has been very seriously ill with pneumonia, but is some better, we are glad to learn.

DECLAIMERS AND READERS CONTEST TUESDAY EVENING

Cliffside and Ellenboro Students Win Silver Loving Cups in Contest.

The Rutherford County High School Readers and Declaimers' Contest was held here Tuesday evening in the Cool Springs high school auditorium. A total of nineteen students, ten girls and nine boys, took part, representing the high schools of Rutherford county. These contestants were selected in a series of preliminary contests in which more than 125 students took part.

The winners Tuesday evening were Miss Maude Wright, of the Ellenboro High school, who gave a negro dialect reading "High Culture in Dixie." Butler Pruett, of Cliffside High school, won the Declaimers' Cup with his declamation "Heroism and History."

During the contest musical selections were given by the Cool Springs Musical Club, Cliffside High school quartette, and a chorus by students from South Mountain Industrial Institute, and a solo by a young lady from Ellenboro.

Prof. Clyde A. Erwin presided. The cups were awarded to the winners by Mr. Erwin and Mr. R. E. Price. The silver loving cup donated to the reader was given by the County Board of Education, while R. E. Price donated the declaimer's cup. These cups became the property of the school when won twice in succession.

CITY HALL CONTRACT AWARDED TUESDAY

W. H. Hand, of Belmont Successful Bidder. Farmers Hardware and Robert Holmes Get Heating and Plumbing.

The contract for the erection of Forest City's new city hall was let Tuesday at noon. W. H. Hand, of Belmont, was the successful bidder, the contract for the erection of the building going to him for $23,650.00. The Farmers Hardware Company of Forest City were awarded the contract for installation of the heating system, their bid being $1992.50. The plumbing will be installed by Robert Holmes, who took the contract for $1220.00.

Excavation work will begin within a few days. Actual construction work is scheduled to commence about April 1. The contractors have 120 working days in which to complete the project and barring extremely inclement weather the city should see the building completed by September 1, at the latest.

DOLLAR DAY AT ELLENBORO SATURDAY

Twelve business firms of Ellenboro will inaugurate a co-operative dollar day for next Saturday, March 24th. It is said that never before has Ellenboro put out such efforts in co-operation as these wide-awake business men and merchants have to give an effective and money-saving dollar day. Circulars will be distributed giving full details of the dollar day event. Our hustling neighbor city is to be congratulated upon its enterprise and the event will not only be a success, but will demonstrate the effect of co-operation.

Messrs. Chas. Z. Flack and Lee Stein have let the contract for handsome new residences. Mr. Flack will build on Magnolia avenue, while Mr. Stein will build on Arlington street.

Gold band cups and saucers, 15c complete. Stahl's 5c, 10c and 25c Store.

Ten pounds granulated sugar for 62c. Horn's Cash Store.

ANNUAL OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE OPENS MARCH 20

Approximately 250 Delegates Expected to Attend Conference Here.

The Fourth Annual Rutherford County Older Boys' Conference will be held in the Baptist church here March 30, 31 and April 1. Indications are that there will be approximately 250 delegates from the various churches, schools and school clubs over the county.

The conference will open Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Baptist church, with the registration of delegates and the election of conference officials. Dr. Ashley Chappell, pastor of Central Methodist church, of Asheville, will be present Friday evening at the banquet and will deliver the principal address of the evening.

On Saturday morning the program will consist of short talks by various delegates to the conference, followed by an address by some speaker whose names will be announced later.

Saturday afternoon will be devoted to athletics. Coach E. Z. Seitz, of Cool Springs high school, will have charge of this, and the events will be held at the Cool Springs High school building.

A session of the conference will be held Saturday evening, followed by the closing session Sunday afternoon, at which time Dr. Zeno Wall, of Shelby, will be the principal speaker.

WITHDRAWS FROM RACE

Due to pressing business in the practice of law with the firm of Ridings & Jones in Forest City, N. C., I am forced to withdraw from the race as a candidate for Recorder of Rutherford county.

B. T. JONES, Jr.

KIWANIS CLUB

The Kiwanis club held an interesting meeting Monday evening. The speaker of the evening was R. E. Price, welfare officer, who gave an instructive talk on the welfare work in the county.

C. E. Alcock and Howard Doggett were named as delegates to the Seattle convention.

Wednesday the Kiwanians, Prof. D. H. Sutton and his boys and a delegation of farmers worked on the new curb market building which will open Saturday. A big dinner was served in the hall at noon.

Next Monday will be "Merchants' Night."

MR. J. T. HARRIS ELECTED TO BOARD OF EDUCATION

At a special meeting of the Rutherford County Board of Education, held in Rutherfordton Wednesday, Mr. J. T. Harris was elected as a member of the board to succeed Mrs. J. T. Wiseman, resigned. The board as now constituted consists of Messrs. Plato Gettys, W. W. Nahey and J. T. Harris.

TO MASONS ONLY—The Acacia Mutual Life Association is now represented in this territory by Bro. J. Johns, Forest City, Box 324. The Acacia is the cheapest and the best protection you can buy. Let Mr. Johns explain more fully. 24-4t

His many friends are pleased to know that Mr. N. H. Welsh has returned from the hospital, and is much improved.

Rose bushes, colieus, ferns and geraniums, 10c each. Stahl's Ten Cent Store.

Rose bushes, colieus, ferns and geraniums, 10c each. Stahl's Ten Cent Store.

FOREST CITY BAKERY TO OPEN SOON

The Forest City Bakery will open within about ten days, in the building formerly occupied by the Morris Bakery, according to a statement made this week. This bakery is being promoted by local men. New machinery is being installed, and the plant is being thoroughly overhauled. Only the best grade of bakery products will be put on the market, and the promoters ask that the local people give their support to this institution.

CURB MARKET TO OPEN SATURDAY

Rules and Regulations for Governing
Market Adopted Monday Evening.

The Forest City Curb Market will open Saturday morning, March 24, at 8 o'clock. The building, being erected by the joint labors of the Forest City Kiwanis Club, the local farmers and the agriculture students of Cool Springs High school, will have forty stalls, and a good number of farmers have expressed their intention of being at the opening with farm produce. Any farmer or farm woman in Rutherford county may sell on the curb market, and any thing that is grown or made on the farm may be sold on the market. Mrs. M. M. Young has been elected manager and the following is a tentative list of farm products that may be found at the market Saturday: Whole milk, buttermilk, butter, whipping cream, cottage cheese, live chickens, dressed chickens, broilers, capons, eggs, canned fruit, pickles, onions, turnip cakes, pies, candy, nuts, hams, sausage, liver mush, and pork.

Rules and Regulations

At a meeting of the board of directors, Monday night the following rules and regulations were adopted for the sellers:

1. Keep within the enclosure made by the tables, so as to avoid congestion with the customer, who should be on the outside.
2. Do not place boxes, crates, or produce on the outside of tables in way of customer. Place them on the inside.
3. Clean up around your place before leaving.
4. All sellers must be governed by prices posted on bulletin board.
5. Pay a commission of 5 per cent on total sales to the manager before leaving.
6. The Curb Market will open at 8 a. m. on Tuesdays, and Saturdays, and closes at 11:30 a. m. on Tuesdays and at 2 p. m. on Saturdays.
7. Sellers must not use more space than allotted. Only one space to each family.
8. Only Rutherford county farmers are eligible to sell on the curb market.
9. Sellers must guarantee all produce to be fresh.
10. Correct weights must be given. Sellers will be required to refund on any error made if same is found before purchaser leaves market.
11. Weight on scales provided by curb market for customers shall be final.
12. Each seller is to register with manager before selling each day.
13. Any violations of the above rules forfeits right to sell on the curb market.

ANNOUNCES FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

Mr. Joe Groves, prominent farmer of Union Mills, Route 3, announces as a candidate for county commissioner in this issue. Mr. Groves is one of the best known citizens of the upper section of the county, and if elected will make an excellent officer.

TO CORRESPONDENTS AND OTHER CONTRIBUTORS

A break down on our linotype Tuesday caused much loss of time, compelling us to leave out many interesting letters this week. We are under lasting obligations to our neighbors of the Rutherford News for valuable help given us by Mr. Carl Laughridge.

DR. J. T. BURRUS ADDRESSES COUNTY CLUB HERE TUESDAY

Holds Joint Meeting With Rutherford County Medical Society.

The March meeting of the Rutherford County Club was held jointly with the Rutherford County Medical Society in the Kiwanis hall here today at 1 o'clock. The dinner, served under direction of Mrs. R. R. Blanton, was up to expectations.

At the opening of the program Mr. C. F. Cline reported that the roads committee had an audience with Mr. Kistler who was very much in favor of completing Route 19, but that there was insufficient funds at present.

Mr. Z. O. Jenkins and Dr. A. C. Duncan spoke briefly in interest of the Older Boys' Conference, after which Dr. W. C. Bostic introduced Dr. J. T. Burrus in a few well-chosen words. Dr. Burrus, president of the State Medical Society, brought a message of importance to the Club and Society, on the value of the medical profession to the state in general. He was followed by Dr. H. A. Crowell, of Charlotte, former president of the North Carolina Medical Society. He made a brief speech and gave away to Dr. Chas. O. Laughinghouse, secretary-treasurer of the State Board of Health of Raleigh, who outlined the policies of the state board.

Approximately seventy-five guests were present, including members of the club and of the medical profession of the county.

"HELP YOURSELF"

The people of Forest City and Rutherford county who like good acting, dancing, and singing cannot afford to miss "Help Yourself," which will be presented at the High school auditorium, Forest City, Friday, March 23, at 8 o'clock.

The Dramatic and Glee clubs, under the direction of Misses Gaines and Wilder, are giving this play. "Help Yourself" is a musical comedy in three acts, written by the same author as "The Flapper Grandmother" and has met with equal success and enthusiasm wherever it has been staged.

ADAVILLE NEWS

Forest City, R-2, March 19.—Rev. D. J. Hunt will be at Adaville next Saturday night to give a lesson in the Normal Manual.

Mrs. O. H. Sinclair has been sick for the past week but is much better.

Mr. Mack Ramsey and family spent Saturday night with his father, near Henrietta.

Mr. James Crow is all smiles, it's a new car.

Miss Ella Trout, of Spindale, spent the week-end at Mr. A. C. Mores.

Mr. Gordon Yelton and family spent the week-end at Mr. T. L. McBrayers.

Miss Irene Dixon spent Sunday clairwith Miss Evzelia and Nannie Lou Sinclair.

Mr. Price Henderson and family, of Rutherfordton, visited at Mr. A. M. Dixon's Sunday.

Mrs. Pegram has been very sick with relapse of measles, but is improving.

Little Miss Myrtle and Master James Collins have been sick, but are better.

You can not dress up for Easter without a new hat to match the other new things. If you want the best selections, best values, give me a call. Mrs. E. E. McCurry.

Rose bushes, colieus, ferns and geraniums, 10c each. Stahl's Ten Cent Store.