Pritchardville, S. C.—"I had some very bad spells, looked at times as if I would die. I wrote to Dr. Pierce about my condition and he advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' which I did at once. My weight was 120 when I first started taking these medicines, now it is 140. I have had no return of the trouble since taking Dr. Pierce's remedies. I hope these few lines may benefit some one who may be suffering."—Mrs. Annie Joyner, c/o D. C. Sheffield.

WALTER FANNING DIES IN SHELBY

Funeral of Beloved Business Man Held in Shelby Friday Afternoon.

Shelby, March 26.—The business section of Shelby along with hundreds of other Shelby and Cleveland county citizens paid final respect Friday to Mr. Walter Fanning, popular Shelby business man, whose funeral rites were conducted at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Fanning home on South Washington street.

Mr. Fanning, for years one of Shelby's most popular business leaders and most beloved citizens, died Thursday morning at Asheville after a lingering illness. He had been in ill health for many months and went to Asheville for treatment a little over one year ago.

Dr. Hugh K. Boyer, the Fanning pastor and pastor of the Central Methodist church, conducted the funeral services assisted by Dr. Zeno Wall, of the First Baptist church. Following the funeral services here the body was taken to York, S. C., for interment, and in addition to the scores of relatives and friends was escorted by a body of men from the Hoey Bible class of Central church, of which he had been president for years. Masonic friends accompanied the remains and Masonic funeral honors were paid him at the graveside by members of Cleveland lodge No. 202.

The death of the former head of the Fanning chain of stores was not unexpected due to his weakened condition, but nevertheless it came as a shock to a town that had learned to love his indomitable will, courage and optimism. To the business life of Shelby he had given a rare exhibition of the highest principles in business and personal life and due to his remarkable trait of adding cheer to the life of others, while he battled his own troubles silently, he numbered his close friends by the hundreds.

Thirteen years ago Mr. Fanning came to Shelby from Henrietta and entered business. At one time he headed department stores in Shelby, Hickory, Rutherford and Cherryville, and was one of the most respected business men in Western Carolina. For 15 years he travelled for Hogue-Montgomery Shoe company before devoting his full time to his local business interests. He was superintendent of the Sunday school at Henrietta before coming to Shelby, and while here he was always the unanimous choice of the big body of men forming the great Hoey Bible class for their president. He was a steward of Central church, a Mason and Shriner and a Junior.

At the time of his death he was 42 years of age. He was born in Henderson county and the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fanning. Twelve years ago he was married to Miss Josie Carroll, of York, S. C., and is survived by his widow and two attractive children, Martha Carroll Fanning and Walter, Jr. In addition to his immediate family he is survived by three sisters and one brother: Miss Betty Fanning, Shelby; Mrs. P. M. Harris, Rutherfordton; Mrs. W. L. Smith, Henrietta, and Mr. W. H. Fanning, Woodruff, South Carolina.—Cleveland Star.

Dreaded Aches, PAINS Disappeared

"My health had been poor for ten years, before I took Cardui," says Mrs. Anna Cronin, of Rockport, Ind. "I was lifeless and 'no account'. I dragged around day after day, every move an effort, and never feeling the joy of being well."

"At times, I had a dreadful ache across my back, and my sides hurt me. I worried along, sometimes hardly able to leave my bed, but the demands of a growing family had to be attended to; so I would get up, do what was absolutely necessary, and then lie down again."

"One day, someone suggested Cardui to me. I took it for several months, and all the time I was growing stronger, and less nervous. My aches and pains finally disappeared."

"That was two years ago. My improvement has been permanent. The good health, which followed the taking of Cardui, is still with me, so I do not hesitate to recommend it to my friends."

Cleveland, arrested for spooning in their own car, were awarded $3,675 damages by the common pleas court.
