ENTERTAINS LITTLE FRIENDS

Caroleen, March 27.—On Saturday afternoon, March 24, Master A. C. Lovelace, Jr., entertained thirty-five of his little friends, the occasion being his ninth birthday. The spacious lawn was free to the children, where many games and contests were enjoyed. After the games the children marched to the dining room to see the birthday cake with its nine candles burning. The birthday cake was cut and each child took a piece, then Mrs. Lovelace, assisted by Mrs. Charles McCurry, of Cliffside, served the children to "Snappies." Favors were Easter baskets containing a rabbit and nine Easter eggs. The young honoree received many beautiful gifts.

ECONOMY DEPARTMENT

Persistently higher in quality. Admittedly lower in price. Surely none can beat that combination! And the way men are talking about these sensational Up Stairs values--and buying them--you'd think no one else in town was selling popular priced clothes. Frankly, it's merely wasted time and effort to shop any other place.
