PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Mr. Arthur Carpenter had the misfortune to lose the thumb and index finger of his left hand on Wednesday of last week when by some means his hand came in contact with a rip saw at Avondale. The digits were left with only a bit of skin holding them and Dr. Scruggs found it was impossible to save them. He dressed the wounds and Mr. Carpenter is doing fine. We sympathize with him in his misfortune.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

An enjoyable event was the supper and get-together meeting last Friday night of the Men's Bible class and the Young Men's Berean class. A committee comprising members of both classes had been appointed to plan the supper and meeting. They had planned a Fish Stew and also oysters, but the fish did not arrive. They had only four gallons of oysters and when the express came in Friday afternoon late and they found that the cat-fish for the stew was missing; it was a blue lot of men for a while. Soon they were telephoning for more oysters, having got all they could get here they went to Forest City finally for the rest and at 7 o'clock they had more than the eighty or more men could eat.

Mr. J. C. Hames, teacher of the class announced that the committee had engaged three men to speak for this occasion and they learned too late that two of them were ill and the third was away attending a funeral so they were disappointed for a while. But, Mr. Hames stated that he wanted volunteer speeches from some of those present. Mr. B. E. Gold, superintendent of the Young People and Adult Department was the first speaker and he was followed by Mr. Beaty of the School faculty; Mr. D. C. Whitaker, president of the Men's Bible class; Mr. O. G. Moorehead, teacher of the Young Men's class and Mr. Hames also made a fine talk. These with a short talk by B. E. Roach comprised the speakers. As the committee were the only ones who knew about the other speakers who were unable to come they were really the only ones disappointed, but they soon forgot about it as all seemed to enter into the fine spirit and fellowship of the occasion.

The Sunday School classes and B. Y. P. U. elected delegates last Sunday for the Older Boys conference which convenes at Forest City next Friday and the indications are now that the churches and other organizations of the town will have a large delegation of boys present.

A man remarked last week that he thought the Friday night Bible Study class was one of the most interesting features of the church's activities. Are you attending? The public is cordially invited.

Last Sunday was Home and Foreign Mission day in the Sunday school. The subject for the morning sermon was "Baptist and their Education Work." Rev. Smith read 2 Tim. 3:1-9.

Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock the superintendents of the Sunday school in the churches comprising Group No. 5 met here. Goodes Creek showed the greatest gain in points of the Standard among the schools who have not yet reached the Standard.

Attendance in the B. Y. P. U. Sunday evening was well over one hun-

BOY SCOUTS

Troop No. 1, B. S. A., held their regular meeting Monday night. Last Thursday evening the Scoutmaster with two other boys went on a half an hour before the others and made a trail using the usual Scout signs. He told the boys they had better watch close as they were to go to an entirely new locality from the usual camping places of the Troop. A while after sundown the others arrived and then preparation for cooking their suppers were begun. There was a fine spring within a few steps of the camp fire and after they had prepared and feasted on a good camp supper instead of the usual games they sat around the fire and talked. It was after 9 o'clock almost before they realized it and the trek back home was begun. The Troop has held four regular meetings and one
