Dr. Ayers Talks in Chapel
We enjoyed Dr. Ayers' talk in chapel last Wednesday. He told about a boy who had written to Dr. Frank Crane. The boy said that he had ambition, willingness to work, but had no education, and was 21. He could not get a job, and wanted to know what to do. Dr. Crane gave him ten points to go by to make a success. Dr. Ayers discussed these ten points, which were very beneficial to us.

To Flunk or Not to Flunk?
"Are you scatterbrained?" An advertisement for a famous correspondence course begins. When you start flunking and even your best friend won't tell you why, don't go contemplating suicide. You're probably just scatterbrained.

Athletics, magazines, and other outside activities are alike in distracting us from our studies. For the more "weak-minded" males, the girls are responsible for a considerable number of zeros and much day-dreaming. Then, too, there are some "wild-west weekly" fiends who spend their time studying the heroic exploits of the redoubtable Tom Tyler.

But we digress from the subject. This was originally intended as a psychological solution, (whatever that is) of the flunking problems. The writer feels amply qualified to expound this subject, having flunked no less than four subjects during one six-weeks term—An accomplishment not to be sneezed at, if you ask us!

Flunking is with most of us a mere habit. We always feel that the next six weeks we will do better—saying, "well, if I make only 50 this time I can still pass by making 90 next time." So it goes—Another term passes; another failure is recorded.

Sometimes this situation can be remedied by proper co-operation of the parents. But usually the student could fight his own battles—if he only would.

Lack of concentration is the foremost obstacle in our path to scholastic accomplishments. How few of us can go into a class and put away all thoughts not pertaining to that lesson. There must be some reformation. To flunk or not to flunk—that is the question—Let us change our ways before June rolls around—else we'll be numbered among the "also-rans." Time only will tell.

CHESTERFIELD CIGARETTES

WE STATE it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield cigarettes are of finer quality and hence of better taste than in any other cigarette at the price.

BASEBALL

Shelby Loses to Locals

Shelby Hi's pitching ace, was ineffective against the hard hitting Forest City crew and Forest City pounded him for fifteen hits and nine runs while Capt. "Tim" McKeithian was holding the visitors to two hits and two runs Tuesday of last week. He also fanned an even dozen of the visitors.

Forest City's biggest inning came in the fourth when they scored five runs on an error, a hit by pitcher and five hits.

Watkins, local catcher, led the hitting with two for three while D. McKeithian and T. McKeithian tied for second place with three hits out of five times up.

Likens hit for the circuit in the fourth inning with three on base.
