THE CURB MARKET

Forest City is rapidly experiencing the benefits of the Curb market. It is filling a real need and is proving a wonderful factor in promoting the friendship of town and county people. This co-operative spirit is going to redound to the good of all concerned. The Courier suggests that the citizens of the town give the curb market full support and service so that it may rapidly grow in usefulness and service.

MATHIS-HARMON WEDDING

Forest City, R-1, April 10.—One of the most surprising social events of the season was the marriage of Miss Millie E. Harmon, of Forest City R-1 and Mr. Minter Mathis, of Sulphur Springs, at 2:30 o'clock, Sunday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas Jones. There was a large number of relatives and friends at the wedding, who congratulated the young couple, wishing them a long and happy life.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Harmon, of Forest City R-1.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mathis, of Sulphur Springs, and a very prosperous young farmer.

Following a trip to Chimney Rock the young couple returned to Mr. Horace Hodge's, where a bountiful supper was served about 6:30 o'clock that was enjoyed by all. Shortly after supper Mr. and Mrs. Mathis went to his parents' home where they will live for a while.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, an all wise providence has seen fit to remove from our midst Paul Rheinhardt, a member of the Board of Directors of the Farmers Bank and Trust Company of Forest City, N. C.:

And Whereas, in the tragic and untimely death of Mr. Rheinhardt the Bank has lost one of its most valuable and esteemed directors and the Town and Community has lost one of its most progressive and beloved citizens:

Now, therefore, the undersigned, in behalf of the Bank and its Board of Directors, desire to express our sincere appreciation of the life and services of Mr. Rheinhardt, and especially for his devotion and loyalty to our bank.

In his death the Town and Community has lost one of their best citizens and to them we express our sincere sympathy.

Mr. Rheinhardt was a devoted son, ever loyal and true and loving to his aged father and mother, and to them we extend our sincere sympathy, realizing as we do that the vacancy in their home can never be replaced; but in their grief and loss we commend them to the all-wise God who doeth all things for the best and to His will we must all humbly bow.

Be it resolved, therefore, that a copy of the above be spread upon the minutes of our Bank and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family and to the press for publication.

Respectfully submitted:
M. W. HARRIS,
J. A. DENNIS,
F. E. WEBB,
Committee.

SPINDALE TO PLAY SPARTANBURG SATURDAY

The Spindale baseball club will play Mike Kelley's Spartan Leaguers, of Spartanburg, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at Spindale. This game is the second of the season. One year ago this week Spindale defeated the Spartanburg club by a substantial score. This year's teams are better and stronger and a comparatively better game is expected to result.

NOTICE—My office will be closed on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, April 16, 17 and 18. Dr. C. S. McCall. 27-1t

ELLENBORO NEWS

Ellenboro, April 9.—Mrs. A. B. Bushong, president of the Betterment club is specially gifted in "Basketry," and of making different articles of reed used in the home. She has a rare collection of beautiful designs of baskets and finds ready sale among her friends and from the tourist travel.

The Christian Endeavor met at the church Sunday night. A very interesting program was given, the subject being "What happens when young people dare to follow Christ." The subject was very ably discussed by Misses Mildred Rogers, Jessie Martin, also Mesdames. E. E. Harrill and O. R. Huston. Music was a special feature of the meeting.

The B. Y. P. U. met at the church Sunday night with a large attendance. An instructive program was rendered. Subject—"Power of Consecrated Life." Those on the program were Misses Annie Sue Barber, Lorene Culbruth, May Hamrick, Cleo Burns and Mr. Hammitt. Special song by Mertice and Morris Hamrick.

A reunion and birthday dinner was given at the home of Mr. George Harrill's Sunday. Quite a large crowd attended. This was Mrs. Harrill's 59th birthday.

Mr. Tolliver Hawkins and Miss Clara Walker were quietly married at the home of Mrs. Walker's Wednesday night in Spartanburg. Congratulations for a happy wedded life. "Pandora," an operetta in three acts, will be given by the elementary grades of the Ellenboro High school Friday evening, April 13, at 8:00 o'clock in the school auditorium.

MR. D. F. BEACHBOARD TO OPEN NEW GROCERY

Mr. D. F. Beachboard will open a new grocery store in Forest City next Saturday, in his brick building next door to The Courier's office. He will carry a full line of staple and fancy groceries and will give an excellent service. Mr. Beachboard will be given a warm welcome to this city. He some time ago occupied a handsome new home here.

Mr. Beachboard has sold his business at Caroleen to Mr. L. B. Robbins, who has taken charge of the stand where for twenty-two years the former conducted a successful business. Mr. Beachboard has asked The Courier to express his appreciation to his many friends there for the loyal support they gave him while in business at that place.

For the opening of the new store here Saturday, Mr. Beachboard has arranged to give free 200 samples of flour. He invites the public of Forest City and vicinity to visit his new store on opening day.

Mr. Beachboard is one of the substantial citizens of the county and will prove a valuable addition to the citizenship of this city. He has elected to make Forest City his home and has an abiding faith in the future of this city, which has been growing at a rapid pace and has a bright future.
