BAPTIST CHOIRS RENDER EASTER MUSIC PROGRAM

Sacred Easter Concert at First Baptist Church is Greatly Enjoyed By Large Audience

On last Sunday evening at 8 p. m. a sacred Easter concert was rendered by the choir of the First Baptist Church.

First on program was a violin prelude by Mr. A. M. Glickman which was played in his usual inimitable style. The processional, "With Happy Voices Singing" was given by both the adult and young peoples choirs, singing as they entered from both doors of the church, they marched down the aisles and took their places in the choir, the young people taking the seats on the rostrum right in front of the adult choir. This was a splendid number and well rendered, the voices of the two choirs blending well. Anthem—"Gladness in the Garden" was well rendered. Male quartet—"He is Risen," composed by our townsman, Mr. A. T. Helton, was rendered by Messrs. Hamrick, Petty, Stahl and Smart; which was greatly enjoyed. Solo—"Golden Sunshine Follows Night," was effectively rendered by Miss Ruth Meares, who possesses a sweet soprano voice. Anthem—"Rejoice O Ye Righteous" was well rendered by the adult choir. Solo—"The Heavenly Song," by Mr. A. M. Hughey. Everybody greatly enjoyed this. Solo and chorus—"Living For Jesus" by Miss Mae Hill and young peoples choir was a most effective number, and Miss Hill received many compliments and was well supported by the young girls. Easter carol—"Dawn Eternal" which was composed by Mr. M. L. Ayers, a brother of our pastor, a beautiful number, was well rendered by a mixed quartet in a very pleasing manner.

Right at this time, Miss Margaret Bostic appeared on the scene and gave two readings—"Not Understood," by Thomas Backen, and "Faith," by Edgar Guest, in a most graceful, pleasing and feeling manner, and which charmed the entire audience. Vocal trio—"Father, Lead Me By Thy Hand," by Misses Gaines, Meares and Mr. Hughey. This was one of the most enjoyable numbers and words cannot express the beauty in which this was rendered. Solo—"He Did Not Die in Vain," by Mrs. A. M. Glickman. This was rendered in her usual charming manner. Solo—"O Jesus, Thou Art Standing" by Mr. Frank Smith, who was at his best and which was greatly enjoyed. Anthem—"Lift Up Your Heads," by choir. Solo—"Lights, Glittering Morn" by Miss Mary Wilder. This was exceptionally well rendered and held the audience spell-bound to the end. The final number, an anthem—"King All-Glorious," which reached the climax in beauty and in rendition, the young peoples choir joining in at close of this, reaching a grand climax. The ladies of the adult choir all dressed in white, gave a pleasing appearance, surrounded by Easter lilies and the young girls were also dressed in white with short sleeves, in front of adult choir, looked like a beautiful picture. Mr. Petty had charge of the decorations which was beautiful setting and reflected credit on his good taste. Last but not least, the organist, Miss Katherine Goggins, was beautifully dressed in a white, evening style, and who deserves much credit for this program, which the church appreciates.
