

HENRIETTA NEWS OF LATE INTEREST

Miscellaneous Shower For Mrs. Neal
—Commencement Exercises—
Democratic Precinct Meeting

(Special to The Courier)
Henrietta, May 29.—A delightful social event of last week was the miscellaneous shower given Mrs. Robert Neal by Mrs. J. F. Whisnant and Mrs. Buren Phillips at the home of Mrs. Whisnant in North Henrietta Tuesday afternoon May 22, from four to six o'clock. The reception hall and parlor were attractive decorated with baskets and vases of pink and white roses and peonies.

The guests were welcomed at the door by Mrs. Whisnant and Mrs. Phillips, Misses Dovie Sue Harris and Irene Stroupe served punch. Pink booklets tied with dainty white ribbon were given the guests in which each one drew a first floor plan of their ideal house, made out a first grocery bill and wrote five requirements for domestic happiness. The booklets also contained a contest and Mrs. S. J. Asbury won the prize, a pretty wall vase which she presented to the bride. Cards were passed to the guests and they were asked to write their favorite recipe. The booklets and cards were then given to the guest of honor. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Lucile Wall, Martha Jane Lovelace, three year old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Lovelace, and James Whisnant, young son of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Whisnant, dressed as bride and groom, entered the room and presented Mrs. Neal with a key on a silver tray. She was requested to follow the ribbon attached to the key. This led to a chest filled with beautiful and useful gifts. Among the gifts was a handsome silver vase, linen guest towels, luncheon sets, pictures, etc. Mrs. Whisnant and Mrs. Phillips assisted by Mrs. T. C. Lovelace served delicious strawberry ice cream and cake and mints in pink rose holders. The invited guests were Mesdames Edgar Neal, B. B. Smart, A. C. Lovelace, Hugh Walker, John Dalton, R. N. Childress, F. H. Price, B. A. Hamrick, F. O. Hand, J. F. Timmerman, Frank Edwards, R. E. Haynes, C. E. Elmore, P. H. Wiseman, O. J. Mooneyham, S. J. Asbury, D. M. Layne, Clyde Mahaffee, G. O. Wall, W. M. Lovelace, M. B. Mahaffee, W. S. Moore, C. M. Harrell, Walter Mahaffee, Misses Ruby and Maude Neal, Sue Harris, Sue Koon, Elizabeth Stroupe, Irene Stroupe, Pearl Gillespie, Cleo Sane, Ethel Robinson, Elizabeth Reid, Lucile Wall, Olema Flack, Brama Layne, Eunice Lord, Mamie Eaens, Frances Reynolds, Ada Smith, Euzelia Smart and Ruth Robertson.

Mrs. Neal before her marriage was Miss Berta Lee High and has taught in the high school here for the past three years. At the last meeting of the parent-teachers association she was presented with a beautiful bed spread.
Dr. Zeno Wall, of Shelby, preached the commencement sermon in the High school building last Tuesday evening. His subject was "Living and dying for Christ." Dr. Wall was introduced by Superintendent A. C. Lovelace. Dr. Wall preached a wonderful sermon and it made a wonderful impression on his hearers.
Class day exercises were held Thursday night. The stage setting was beautiful. The sixteen seniors seemed to be sitting in a beautiful rose and silver boat with a silver sail on which was the class motto in old rose letters: "Tonight we launch, where shall we anchor." Salutatorian, Eugenia Randall; statistician, Paul Neal; poet, J. Austin Turner, Jr.; class colors, Emefson Lynch; jokes, Nollie Biggerstaff; will, Mary Sparks; giftorian, Eules Hawkins; prophecy, written by Estell Kiser, acted by Earp Hicks, Joseph Lockman and Robert Spratt; valedictorian Ruby Brindle; song, class. ## VOTE FOR BEAN FOR RECORDER

Recorder John P. Bean Gives His Political Platform

To the Voters of Rutherford County:

I am a candidate for re-election to the office of Recorder of Rutherford County, subject to the rules and regulations of the primary to be held in June.

If nominated, my political views have been Democratic—my present politics. I stand for law enforcement, and an equal and square deal for each and every voter and citizen of Rutherford County, regardless of his or her political conviction.

I am for the upbuilding of our grand county as far as the office I seek shall enable me to promote. Your support and votes are sought by me with no selfish thoughts in view more than the honor of being of service to the voters of this great county in a way of promotion of its enterprises by proper law enforcement, to all alike.

If re-elected, I shall endeavor, to the best of my ability, to make our county continue at greater strides if possible in leadership and second to none in the great commonwealth of North Carolina.

I will appreciate your support to the fullest extent, and express to you further that with your support and cooperation in re-electing me to this office to fill it to the fullest extent of my ability.

Co-operation and strict honesty, fair and impartial law enforcement, are the principles for which I stand, and if re-elected, will be very proud and grateful for your support and feel that you, the men and women, the voters of Rutherford County, have placed this privilege and honor within my reach.

Pol. adv. JNO P. BEAN.

OLD FORT GETS B. Y. P. U. SESSION

Annual Convention Closes Sunday at Marion Church

Marion, N. C., May 28.—The next annual session of the Green River Association B. Y. P. U. convention will be held at the Baptist church in Old Fort, according to the vote of the delegates who attended the convention which closed Sunday at the First Baptist church here.

Despite the rainy weather, a number of delegates attended the convention which convened here Saturday and Sunday. The Mills Spring church received the honor of having the most mileage covered by delegates and received the chautauqua salute.

Saturday many attended the opening meeting of the annual session and following it the delegates were taken to Lake Tahoma where a recreation tour was enjoyed and picnic served. The Rev. A. A. Walker, pastor of the Clinchfield Baptist church, held a sunset service which was a very fitting climax to the program. The Rev. E. B. Jenkins, of Rutherfordton, delivered the address at the evening service.

The Rev. E. N. Gardner, of Thomasville, president of the State B. Y. P. U. was present Sunday morning and delivered an address on the subject "Youth Obedient." In the afternoon session, which brought a close to the convention, officers were elected as follows: President W. G. Wilson of Marion, vice-presidents to be appointed by president; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Fritz Hemphill, Union Mills; director, Prof. W. E. Sweatt, Union Mills; pianist, Miss Geneva Early, Old Fort; choir-leader, George England, Clinchfield. The time for the officers' council was set for June 10 at Union Mills.

CANNERY ASSOCIATION FORMED AT ELLENBORO

Ellenboro, May 28.—At a meeting held in the Ellenboro school building last Saturday afternoon the Ellenboro Cannery Association was organized with the aim of stimulating the canning of fruits and vegetables for home consumption and then to encourage canning under the association's brand for sale.

The association, which is to be a federation of many small canning units distributed within the community, is to be a non-stock organization. Shares will not be sold and membership fees will not be required despite the fact that the association should give to its members the advantage of a centralized plant.

Many of the small canning units

MATINEE PARTY

Miss Mary Logan King celebrated her eleventh birthday on Friday afternoon, May 25th, by entertaining twelve of her little playmates at a matinee party from 2 to 5.

After the show they all went to Peoples Drug Store where delicious ice cream and angel food cake was served. Mary Logan received many lovely gifts and wishes for happy returns of the day.
