

TWO ENGAGEMENTS ARE ANNOUNCED AT PARTY TUESDAY

Engagements and Approaching Marriages of Misses Bunnah and Bertha Jones Announced

Miss Hattie Jones and Mrs. O. B. Green entertained on Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 at thirteen tables of "Progressive Matrimony." The lower floor of the home was thrown en suite and was most beautifully decorated with vases and hanging baskets of Dorothy Perkin roses and white lilies. The dining room was especially beautiful. A handsome Irish lace cover was used on the table, with four pink tapers in silver holders and pink Dorothy Perkin roses formed the centerpiece, and baskets of white lilies arranged artistically through the room. At each guests' place were found place cards in the form of "Wedding bells." After several games were played, Miss Dorothy Green gave a reading "The Wedding of Miss Bray." Miss Jen Norton, of Shreveport, La., gave a beautiful violin number "Romance" accompanied at the piano by Miss Clara Adele Self, of Cherryville, N. C. After these numbers Mesdames O. B. Green, G. C. Jones, Misses Hattie Jones and Meriam Green served a delicious ice course, during which time Miss Jen Norton played the wedding march from Lohengrin, which revealed the secret and which came as a complete surprise to their many friends.

The favors which were small pink baskets with handles in the shape of two hearts, and a small white wedding bell, with match clappers each bearing a card with the initials B. M. J. to L. C. A. July 1928. B. E. J. to J. V. O. August 1928, announcing the engagements of Miss Bertha Jones to Dr. L. C. Adams, of La Grange, N. C., and Miss Bunnah Jones to Mr. J. V. Ogburn, Smithfield, N. C.

Miss Bertha Jones was attired in a yellow chiffon, and Miss Bunnah Jones wore a Nile green taffeta, trimmed in peach colored taffeta and silver motifs.

Miss Johnnie Mae Hemphill was presented with a set of bridge score pads for making high score and an embroidered guest towel was given Miss Jen Norton for low score. The brides-to-be were presented with a handsome hand-painted piece of lingerie by Miss Hattie Jones.

Misses Winnie Davis and Della Collins spent the week end with relatives in Asheville.

ON TOP OF THE WORLD

The above cartoon, by our fellow townsman, Mr. Kynard Baynard, was inspired by the winning of the state championship by the Forest City High School baseball team. We are sure our readers will appreciate his offering.

Dr. R. L. Reinhardt, chairman of the entertainment committee of the Kiwanis Club, stated this morning that full plans for the banquet for the team have not yet been made. However, details and the date will be announced next week.

The election, the chautauqua and other things seem to have caused a few to overlook the "honor roll," started by The Courier last week, in which subscriptions were solicited for our champion team. Since the publication of the donors last week, only three have responded, as follows: R. L. Brown, $1.00; W. L. Callahan, Asheville, 50c; R. H. Hoegner, Chicago, 50c. Total amount subscribed, $21.00. Of this amount, $4.00 was used to purchase cut for the above cartoon.

LOOKING OVER THE BOYS

Mr. R. C. Brown, freshman coach at Auburn, Ala., was here several days last week. He came to look over some of the stars of the champion Forest City team, and was the guest of Mr. C. J. Young while here. "Big Tim" McKeithan and some others may be at Auburn if the coach's mission proves successful.

CHAUTAUQUA IS COMING NEXT YEAR

Ladies of the Woman's Club and Kiwanians Insure Return of the Great Educational Feature

Owing to the good work of the Woman's Club, the Kiwanians and other public spirited citizens, Forest City has secured a return engagement of Redpath Chautauqua. The requisite number of tickets being pledged, thirty of our citizens signed the guarantee last Monday.

The chautauqua this year worked under unfavorable conditions, following so closely the winning of the state championship by our local high school team, rain, the election Saturday and other things. However, the attendance was good and the ladies put over the ticket sales with a small amount of profit. It was a little harder than usual this year to get the usual co-operation in signing pledges for the return of the chautauqua, but due to the great work of the ladies and many of our business men, the task was accomplished.

Some say the program this year was not up to standard, but are hardly justified in this stand. Many numbers alone were worth the entire price of a season ticket, and while some other programs might have pleased a greater number, it cannot be said with justice that there was any considerable falling off in the quality of the program over other years. It might be said that any dissatisfaction was brought about by conditions rather than any deterioration in quality.

Mr. R. E. Meiners, the superintendent, did everything in his power to make the stay of the chautauqua one of pleasure and profit, and displayed a courteous and accommodating spirit throughout. He left for Newport, Tenn., Monday, after having attended to the matter of getting the city signed up for next year.

farmer of the Harris community and was well known and beloved by a large number of people of Rutherford county. He was a member of the Methodist church, where he took a prominent part in the affairs of the church.

TEN CANDIDATES ARE ENTITLED TO SECOND PRIMARY

Commissioners, Sheriff, Legislature and Recorder May Demand Second Race June 30

As The Courier goes to press indications are that there will be a second primary. To date none have filed for the second race, however Mr. J. P. Jones, a candidate for commissioner, states that he will enter a second primary. Four candidates are entitled to contest in the commissioners race, also the "runners-up," in the sheriff's race, recorder and legislature are entitled to a second race should they desire it.

All candidates for a second primary have until midnight Friday to file with the county board of elections for a second race.

In case of a second primary it will be held on Saturday, June 30.

Saturday's vote was the largest ever polled in Rutherford county in a primary. An increase of more than 1,200 votes over the 1926 primary was polled.

The vote for state officers will be found elsewhere in this paper.

BUILDING ACTIVITIES

It may be quiet in some places, but Forest City is going steadily along with its building activities.

Work on both the new theatre and city hall is under way, both of which will prove handsome additions to the city.

Huntley & Wilkins have begun the erection of a new brick garage building and filling station on Main street, near the present quarters of the Huntley Motor Co. The building is to be 50x80 feet, of one story and basement and to be especially adapted to the automobile business. The filling station, directly on the corner and separate from the garage, is to be of beautiful design. These new buildings will add much to that section of the city, which is fast building up.

A new pressed brick bungalow of handsome appearance is under way on Broadway. This structure is being built by Mr. M. J. Harrill, who never does anything by halves.

A number of other residences are under way over the city, which continues to show a steady growth. Quite a few of our best informed business men are of the opinion that Forest City will acquire the much needed new hotel before the year is out.

OFFICE BUILDING BEING REMODELED

Spindale, June 4.—The Spindale office building is being remodeled inside this week. The various mill offices will be moved upstairs and the first floor will be used for the post-office and the bank. The changes are being made in order to give the post-office larger quarters.

NEW ICE CREAM STORE

The Blue Bird Ice Cream Store was opened in the building next door to the Farmers Bank last Friday. Mr. J. J. Kee, formerly of Chester, S. C., is local manager. The store is a branch of the Spartanburg firm. Mr. Kee reports a good business for his initial week in this city and all indications are that the firm will prosper in Forest City.

WOODLAND PARK OPENS TODAY

Mr. Lee G. McMurry, manager of Woodland Park Swimming Pool, announces this week that the swimming pool will open today for the 1928 season. While the weather has continued rather cool, he thinks that it will be warm enough for the opening today. The pool has been resanded, drained and is in a sanitary condition. Mr. Lee Stalnaker will serve as life guard again this season. A large crowd is expected for the opening.

Good values in ladies' brassieres, 25c and 50. Stahl's Ten Cent Store.
