HALF-HEARTED Never Felt Well

"I don't see why women will drag around, in a half-hearted way, never feeling well, barely able to drag, when Cardui might help put them on their feet, as it did me," says Mrs. Geo. S. Hunter, of Columbus, Ga.

"I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides. I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks."

"I could not work, and just dragged around the house."

"I got very thin. I went from a hundred and twenty-six pounds down to less than a hundred."

"I sent to the store for Cardui, and before I had taken the first bottle I began to improve. My side hurt less, and I began to mend in health."

"Cardui acted as a fine tonic. I do not feel like the same person. I am well now, and still gaining."

CORN CRACKER CONGRATULATES VOTERS OF COUNTY

People of County Have Voted for the Cause of Righteousness and Temperance

Shelby, R-5, June 18. As Rutherford is a neighboring county, permit me to tender hearty and sincere congratulations for the patriotism of its pure and undefiled Democracy. Despite the sophistry and bluster of the adherents of the high priest of Tammany, Rum, Romanism and Rebellion, the boys in the trenches of your gallant territory stood undismayed and voted for the cause of righteousness and temperance.

No man of fairness but realizes that the interests of town and country are reciprocal. Col. W. J. Bryan, whose clarion tones rang with the unctious of prophecy,—declared in the inspired message that electrified the Democratic Convention in 1896, that if interests of the masses were safeguarded prosperity would accrue to town and country as the waters that cover the sea, but if the interests of the country were violated grass would grow in the streets of the cities. But the votaries of greed and grab, in unholy aggregation of political freebooters of Tammany Hall, moved heaven and earth to make one proselyte,—and made him tenfold more the child of perdition than they were themselves. Of course they spread their poison by seductive propaganda,—claiming that Tammany was a big Bible class, without which no candidate could be elected from constable to president. Some of their snuffing scribes and philosophers, who have always, with true rancor of an enemy of the American cause, claimed that Washington was a member of this iniquitous organization. Washington belonged to an organization known as Columbian Patriots,—which was no more like Tammany than the lecture of Col. Robert G. Ingersoll is like the Book of Revelation in the New Testament. In 1800, the gifted Aaron Burr, but as much of a traitor as Judas Iscariot, or Benedict Arnold,—used the organization as a political machine for ulterior motives. Every reader of history knows the infamous record of "Boss Tweed," and how he broke into prison for his nefarious practices. A perversion and falsifying history results, either from lack of information or malevolence,—and I hope the flagrant results from lack of information. All informed people know, that Ryan and Belmont, of Tammany had caused the knightly Champ Clark to accede to their blandishments. But the prophetic crusader was present in the person of the lamented W. J. Bryan. His marvelous eloquence and organization swung the tide of delegates to Woodrow Wilson who was triumphantly elected. Samuel J. Tilden, Winifred Scott Hancock, Grover Cleveland, W. J. Bryan and Woodrow Wilson all felt the claws of the Tammany Tiger, and it still flourishes amid the slums and sidewalks of New York. No man was allowed to speak with authority except the apostles of the New York Governor. Every minister, teacher, or anybody else who had backbone and political independence was labeled "bigot," "provincial," "ignoramus," "bonehead," "meddler," and, if a minister, enjoined to preach the old-time religion and let things alone beyond his circumscribed understanding. A man who had never read history and could not read a fourth reader with fluency and comprehension, if he could say, "Hurrah for Al Smith, by d—n,"—was adjudged a political guide and sooth sayer. Every town has a political ring. The high priests in these aggregations declare, "They haint no sich animal"; but people know if they have enough brains to grease a gimlet. Every political ring was for Al Smith. Thank God, the day is passing when some ward heeler can deliver the verdant voter like sheep to the shambles. The school teacher is abroad, the people read,—and have burst the fetters of ignorance and servile adoration to ringsters like Samson in the full flowing of his locks broke green withes, fetters of brass imposed by the corrupt Delilah. But when he succumbed to her wiles and was shorn, his strength departed. Rutherford County is not in the toils of corruption, and nominated my schoolboy for State Senate. The band will please play, "Should Auld Acquaintance Be Forgot," while some orthodox minister gives thanks. We don't mean some unshod and unconverted priest. We respect the religion of all; but this is not his inning.

TROUSSEAU SHOWER FOR BRIDE - ELECT

Avondale, June 15.—Miss Ruby Smith and Miss Lucille Frye were joint hostesses at a trousseau shower for Miss Alice Earle Edwards, bride-elect at the latter's home Tuesday night, June 12.

The home was attractive decorated with cut flowers, large jardeniers of field daisies with cedar and oak boughs. The color scheme of yellow and white was used all through the decorations and refreshments.

The guests were met on the front porch by Miss Frye and taken to the dining room where Miss Margaret Haynes and Mrs. John M. Layne served punch then directed to the living room where the bride's register was signed by each with a wish for the bride.

Miss Lucille Wall won the prize in a "Bride's Trousseau" contest, this she presented to Miss Edwards in a charming way.

Master Jack Frye and little Miss Frances James, of Spindale found a letter addressed to Miss Edwards in an umbrella attractively made of white and yellow crepe paper, in a very unique and comical way they presented the letter to honoree, this directing her to a chest filled with many very beautiful and useful gifts.

The hostesses assisted by Miss Haynes, Mrs. Layne and Little Miss James served a very delicious orange-pineapple jelly salad course with accessories to the following:

Mesdames Julian Hord, Myles Haynes, Henry Jenkins, J. G. Roach, Jno. M. Layne, H. M. Owens, Luther Campbell; Misses Lila Freeman, Alice Carpenter, Willie Carpenter, Virginia Moore, Selma DeBrule, Lillian Smith, Coda Carpenter, Una Edwards, O. ## A Guarantee of more tire mileage at less cost per mile

We positively know that these tires have more quality and mileage built into them at the factory. That's a matter of better materials, workmanship and design. Our service, performed by experienced tire men, enables you to get all these in-built miles out. Just put two and two together—top quality plus real service—and you are bound to get full mileage as a result.

When we say SERVICE we mean more than just carefully applying the tire. Our service lasts through the life of the tire—any time you drive in our men are on the job to inspect tires, rims and wheels and make sure that everything which affects tire mileage is in good working order. Brakes must be equalized; wheels must be in alignment; rims must be "true", and without bent flanges; tires must contain the correct amount of air. A tire that is cut must be immediately repaired, so that the cut will not spread and cause loss of thousands of miles of service. Slow leaks in valves are adjusted. Missing valve caps, rim nuts, lugs and bolts are replaced. Our service work guarantees more mileage at less cost.

Begin today, to save tire money. Come in and get your tires at the price you want to pay.
