OAK GROVE NEWS

Bootic, R-3, Aug. 6.—The revival meeting came to a close at Oak Grove Friday night. We had a real good meeting with twelve additions to the church. Rev. Edwards, of near Charlotte, did the preaching. He delivered some soul inspiring sermons twice daily. All regret to see him leave and we hope he will come back and hold another revival for us in the future. We feel that much good has been accomplished from the meeting.

Rev. J. E. Hipp filled his regular appointment Sunday morning. He preached an interesting sermon on Jesus as our best friend.

Miss Morie Biggerstaff, of Winston-Salem, is spending some time with home folks.

Rev. and Mrs. J. North Randall and daughters Lenora and Meriam, of Gastonia, spent several days in this community and attended the meeting at Oak Grove. They also spent a few days with Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Tate near Asheville.

Misses Lucile Webb and Edith Biggerstaff spent one day last week with Miss Olliere Randall.

Rev. T. C. Holland and family, of near Spartanburg, spent Friday night at Mr. M. E. Hawkins'.

Rev. Edwards and Rev. J. E. Hipp were dinner guests at the home of Mr. L. D. Wilkie Friday.

Mr. Nollie Biggerstaff spent several days last week at Mt. Mitchell.

Miss Ethel Tate, of Asheville, is spending some time with home folks.

Miss Mae Harrill, of Charlotte, spent the week end with home folks.

Misses Belle Wilkie and Ethel Tate spent Sunday night with Miss Olliere Randall.

Miss Mildred Carson, spent last week at the home of her uncle, Mr. T. B. Harrill.

Mrs. J. M. Randall and daughter spent one night last week at Mr. C. B. Harrill's.

Miss Victoria Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Edney Greene of the Walls section spent a part of last week at Mr. W. P. Tate's.

Miss Mozelle Jolley spent last Sunday with Miss Olliere Randall.

Little Miss Lillie Mae Blanton, of Cliffside is spending this week at the home of her grandfather, Mr. K. M. Randall.

Miss Attie Bailey spent one day last week with Miss Morie Biggerstaff.

Mr. C. N. Tate and family, of Avondale, spent Friday night at Mr. W. P. Tate's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morehead and little daughter Helen spent one day last week at Mr. L. D. Wilkie's.

Miss Geneva Harrill, of Spindale, spent last week with Miss Maggie Spurlin.

We are sorry to note that Mr. J. R. Mauney, teacher of the Baraca class at Oak Grove, has been real sick the past week. We are glad to know he is improving now.

CHESTNUT HILL

Gerton, N. C., Aug. 6.—Misses Amanda and Rosa Mae Haynes and Miss Hazel Haynes entertained a number of young people last week at a house party at their summer homes at Chestnut Hill.

Misses Amanda and Rosa Mae Haynes' guests were Misses Virginia Mae Love and Madeline Moore of Gastonia, Mae McIver of Petersburg, Va., Frances Albert, of Pennsylvania, and Anne Hall of Belmont, and Messrs. James Griffin, O. W. McFalls and Fairly of Gastonia.

Miss Hazel Haynes' guests were Misses Agnes Jones, Knoxville, Tenn., Edith and La Verne Horton of Winter Haven, Fla., Lila Gordon King, Forest City, and Margaret Haynes, Avondale, and Messrs. Joe Shull, Jimmie Equires, Walter Graham, and Curtis Bees of Charlotte.

A round of social activities was accorded the guests during their visit. On Thursday they attended a luncheon given by Mrs. Barron Caldwell at her home in Cliffside. In the afternoon the party was shown through the Cliffside Mills where the well-known Haynes towels and gingham are made.

On Friday Mrs. G. C. King entertained the party at a bridge luncheon at her summer home at Chestnut Hill. In the afternoon they were entertained at a theatre party in Asheville.

On Saturday the party made a trip to Chimney Rock, going to the top of the famous Rock. Afterwards they enjoyed a swim in Lake Lure, followed by lunch at Lake Lure.

Another interesting trip was a hike to the top of Little Pisgah Mountain, where they killed and brought home a four-foot rattlesnake.

Miss La Verne Horton is remaining for a visit with Miss Hazel Haynes. Miss Editha Horton went to Gastonia, where she is visiting Miss Edna Love.

Miss Agnes Jones is remaining for a visit with Miss Amanda Haynes.

Misses Amanda, Rosa Mae, and Hazel Haynes, Agnes Jones and La Verne Horton visited from Tuesday until Thursday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Smith, Cliffside, going from there to Gastonia, where they visited Misses Virginia Mae and Edna Love, and from there to Charlotte, where they were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. Rush Shull over the week end.

Dr. and Mrs. Auley Crouch are the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haynes.

Mr. and Mrs. Barron Caldwell of Cliffside are building a lovely summer home at Chestnut Hill, and are spending some time here.

Mrs. J. Rush Shull and children of Charlotte were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Haynes this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Moore of Cliffside are enjoying a vacation in the mountains at Chestnut Hill.

Mrs. R. A. Love of Gastonia was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Haynes last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hunnicutt and children of Monroe visited last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. King.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Asbury, of Henrietta, are now occupying their new summer home here.

Mrs. W. B. Craig and daughter, Miss Lillian and Mrs. W. H. Anderson and sons, W. H., Jr., J. B. and Bob, all of Winter Haven, Fla., have rented a cottage here and have arrived to spend the remainder of August.

Mr. Robert E. Haynes, of Avondale, has purchased a cottage here and he and family will arrive this week to occupy it.

Misses Virginia and Nell Moore of Cliffside, and Messrs. Chas. Moore of Springfield, Ohio, and Audrey Humphries of Morganton spent Sunday afternoon here visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Moore, Sr.

Mr. Chas. H. Haynes of Cliffside spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Haynes.

ON FISHING TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Wilkins and small daughter, Helen, and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Harris and son, James, of Harris, spent last week at Myrtle Beach, S. C., and while there spent sometime fishing in Murrell's Inlet. A two hours fishing trip resulted in a catch of forty fish, and Mr. Harris caught four large ones in two casts.

REVIVAL CONTINUES AT PLEASANT GROVE

The revival meeting which began at Pleasant Grove Methodist church Sunday July 29, will probably continue through Friday night of this week. Large crowds are attending and Rev. M. T. Hinshaw, of Rutherford College, is delivering some great sermons. Professor George Hawks, who is conducting the singing has been bringing gospel messages in song at each service. Although he does not have but one arm, yet he plays the piano as a skilled musician, and with his well trained voice in his solo singing has touched the hearts of many with gospel songs.
