Frail, Nervous Women, Read This!
Columbia, S. C.—"I suffered from backache and pains thru my sides and was so nervous I could not sleep, I got so weak and thin that I was just barely able to drag around. Finally I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and found it to be just the right medicine for my trouble. It restored my nerves, strengthened the organs, and built me up in health and strength all over. I could sleep, gained weight and never felt better."—Mrs. W. G. Sheppard, 1114 Calhoun St.

A Funny Story
was "put over" on us a few days ago when one of our contractor friends told us that when he registered just before the last election, in answer to the trade he was in replied: "Mason and builder." When the same question was put to an old Irishman next in line, he replied: "Knight o' Columbus and hod carrier." Builders and hod carriers, Masons and Knights of Columbus, rich or poor, will learn that the groceries and table luxuries obtainable here are lowest in price, yet rank foremost in quality.

NEGRO DIES AT AGE OF 117 YEARS

Caroline Green, Ante-Bellum Slave, Dies at Ripe Age in Rutherfordton

Rutherfordton, Sept. 10.—Caroline Green, colored, age 117 years, died here Saturday afternoon, September 1, after a brief illness and was buried at New Hope cemetery for colored Sunday afternoon, September 2. She was the oldest person in Rutherford county and has been for many years. She was a most remarkable character. She took sick on Monday night and gradually grew worse until the end. Prior to that time she was up and going about on sticks, or small crutches.

There are several proofs of her age. She had a son, Anderson Green, who died in 1915 at the age of 83 years, of old age. His mother was 21 years old when he was born. Had he lived until now he would have been 96 years old. Anderson was 13 years old when the big flood of August 1845 came.

Caroline Green was born in Rutherford county, near Rutherfordton, April 1811. She has made her home here in New Hope with her niece, Sallie Liles for the past 17 years. Her husband, Jack Eaves, was sold as a slave before the War Between the States to a large cotton planter of Mississippi for $1100 and was never seen again in this part of the country. During the days of slavery, Caroline was a slave and was freed by the Greens, hence taking their names. Caroline often talked of the days of slavery. About two weeks before her illness she talked with the writer of the days of slavery and well remembered seeing negroes auctioned off at public sales. She says that often a man and his wife were sold and went in different parts of the country, never to see each other again, or children sold from their parents, or sons from their mothers. Caroline's mistress was Miss Bettie Young, who later married Abraham Green. Caroline was given to her mistress after her marriage and remained with her until she was freed. Abraham Green freed Caroline at the close of the War Between the States.

MAN PREFERS DEATH TO LOSING LEG

Mooresboro, R-1, Sept. 10.—Worried because physicians had told him his leg must be amputated, Otis Huskey, 35, of near Cliffside, committed suicide by taking poison Tuesday night of last week.

He was dead when found by relatives. The coroner was summoned and an inquest was held Wednesday, when the jury found that Huskey came to his death by administering poison with his own hand. It is not known how he obtained the drug.

Huskey had been suffering from rheumatism for several years and became despondent when advised that an operation would be necessary to affect a cure. He was unmarried, and was alone when he died.

BOY INJURED WHEN RIFLE IS DISCHARGED

Frank Allen, age 14, son of M. G. Allen of near Forest City was wounded when a bullet accidentally fired from a .22 rifle struck a stone and glanced, entering the boy's left forearm. The youth was rushed to the Rutherford Hospital, where it was found, after an examination, that an operation would be necessary to remove the bullet.

It is reported, that young Allen and a friend, Lock Hicks, were out hunting and were shooting at stray sparrows when Hicks is said to have fired the shot which wounded his companion.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause." But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderless has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water oosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose. Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderless at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c to say at the nearest Rexall Drug Store. 26-1f

H. H. STEVENS DIES IN CHARLESTON, S. C.

Brother-in-Law of Mr. J. A. Dennis Succumbs to a Seven Months Illness

Charleston, S. C., Sept. 10.—Mr. Harlie H. Stevens, son of late Joseph G. and Eugenia E. Stevens, died at his home on 191 Rutledge Avenue, Charleston, S. C., Wednesday morning, September 5, after an illness of several months.

Mr. Stevens' early life was spent in Pinopolis, South Carolina. After graduating from the Citadel in 1906, he became principal of the Florence High School. A few years later he resigned his position to enter the firm of Weeks, Bradley, Hardware company.

Coming to Charleston in 1921, Mr. Stevens established the Stevens Hardware company at 514 King St., his brother, Mr. F. W. Stevens being associated with him. Mr. Stevens was held in high esteem and was regarded as a sterling business man. He was a member of St. Johns' Lutheran church. His widow, who before marriage was Miss Ray Pecksen, daughter of J. N. and the late Hattie L. Pecksen; two children, Harriette Eugenia and Harlie H., Jr., his mother, Mrs. Eugenia E. Stevens of Pinopolis, South Carolina; one sister, Mrs. J. A. Dennis of Forest City, N. C.; four brothers, Messrs. E. E. and J. G. Stevens of Pinopolis, S. C.; Dr. C. L. Stevens of Campobello, S. C.; and Mr. F. W. Stevens of Charleston, S. C., survive him.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at four o'clock from the residence, the Rev. C. B. Foelsch officiating. Interment was at Magnolia cemetery.

Mr. Stevens was a brother-in-law of Mr. J. A. Dennis, cashier of the Farmers Bank and Trust company, of this place.

WEEVILS FOUND IN RUTHERFORD COUNTY

A number of boll weevils have been reported found in several sections of the county, but due to the late arrival of the weevil it is not thought that any great damage will be done.

The damage will largely depend on the kind of weather prevalent until harvesting time. In the opinion of the county agent the weevils will not do any great damage unless the cool, rainy weather continues. In the event the bad cotton weather should hold out and the weevils increase in large numbers they could do a great deal of damage.

Cotton in this section needs a dry September more than any other favorable month. The cotton has not been fruiting satisfactorily, and it is not near so good as it seemed early in the season.

SPECTACULAR SUCCESS
is proving it "Chief of the Sixes"

In the tremendous success which Pontiac Six is enjoying is ample reason for designating this great General Motors car "Chief of the Sixes." Never has any new car risen so rapidly in the estimation of motor car buyers for during the first six months of 1928, over 136,000 Pontiacs were sold—the largest volume ever achieved by any car during the first half of its third year in production! This great public acceptance tells more of what Pontiac offers at $745 than even the most complete listing of such features as Fisher bodies, 186 cu. in. engine, the G-M-R cylinder head, cross-flow radiator, foot-controlled headlights, coincidental lock, etc., etc.! Come in for a ride today and learn why its sales sweep ever upward! *

2-Door Sedan, $745; Coupe, $745; Sport Roadster, $745; Phaeton, $775; Cabriolet, $795; 4-Door Sedan, $825; Sport Landau Sedan, $875. Oakland All-American Six, $1045 to $1265. All prices as factory. Check Oakland-Pontiac delivered prices—they include lowest handling charges. General Motors Time Payment Plan available at minimum rate.
