THE COUNTY CLUB MEETS HERE NEXT TUESDAY NOON

Mr. Word H. Wood, President of American Trust Co., of Charlotte, Principal Speaker

The Rutherford County Club will hold its September meeting here next Tuesday at 1 o'clock in Blanton's Cafe banquet hall, according to an announcement made by the secretary, Mr. Ivy Cowan.

Mr. Word H. Wood, of Charlotte, president of the American Trust Co., will be present and deliver the principal address. His subject will deal with some phase of banking.

Mr. David Lindsay will discuss the Rutherford county fair. All directors of the fair association are requested to be present at this time. The Courier has been requested to call attention to the fact that the Rutherford County Club is not only for the members of the club, but anyone who wishes may attend, provided they let the person in charge of serving the luncheon know before hand so that a plate may be prepared. It seems that some have the idea that the club is exclusive, and that no one except members are allowed to attend. This is not the case. The meetings of the club are open to any who wishes to attend.

A representative of one of the large condensery companies has been in Alamance to look over the situation in respect to establishing a branch factory.

Much over 100 tons of lime has been ordered cooperatively this fall by the farmers of Mineral Springs community in Durham County.

ALEXANDER NEWS

Alexander Mill, Sept. 11.—The Alexander school is progressing nicely. Prof. Allison and his teachers are working hard to put the school on the standard accredited list this year. The teachers are now working to get new books in the library and supplementary books in each room. Parents are urged to keep their children in school every day unless it is necessary for them to stay out.

A revival meeting will begin at the Baptist church September the twenty-third. Rev. C. C. Matheny will conduct the services and Mr. Karl Jordan, of Lattimore, will have charge of the singing. The pastor and his Christian workers extend to everyone an invitation to these services. Sunday school teachers are urged to strive hard to get the unsaved people of the town into their Sunday school classes before the meeting begins.

The children of Mr. A. L. Hamrick gave him a birthday dinner last Sunday at his country home near Cliffside. Those attended from here were: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hamrick, Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Matheny and daughter, Alice, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Blanton, Miss Ada Hamrick and Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Abernethy.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Abernethy delightfully entertained at a six o'clock dinner last Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Blanton and Miss Ada Hamrick.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Champion and family and Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Randall attended a birthday dinner given for Mr. Bill Curtis last Sunday.

Miss Ada Hamrick and Mrs. Kate Mae Hamrick left for Carson-Newman College this week. They both graduate there this year.

Mr. Gaddis who is attended school at Boiling Springs spent the week end here with his wife.
