

KIWANIANS HEAR REPORT FROM CONVENTION

Rev. G. R. Gillespie Gives Detailed Report of Winston-Salem Convention Proceedings Monday

A large attendance was present at the Kiwanis Club meeting Monday evening and a number of visitors added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Dr. R. R. Howes had charge of the program. Mrs. Edington presided at the piano.

A joint meeting of the Forest City, Rutherfordton and Shelby clubs will be held in this city on the evening of Thursday, November 25.

Dr. G. R. Gillespie read the following report on the district convention at Winston-Salem.

As delegates, representing the Forest City Kiwanis club at the eighth annual convention of Kiwanis for the Carolinas District, we find ourselves in a position tonight to thoroughly sympathize with all of our fellow members who were not enabled to attend this most wonderful and colorful gathering, in the history of Kiwanis in North and South Carolina. The convention was a pronounced success from the first registration of delegates on Wednesday afternoon to the last word that adjourned the remarkable assembly Friday noon. Delegates Giles, Eakes, Flack and Doggett, accompanied by Howard Magness, a feature of the Thursday morning session, reached Winston-Salem, Wednesday night. Trustee Gillespie arrived early Thursday morning. From the very first moment of arrival until the close, the time of every local delegate was filled to the utmost and the task of making this report falls to me, simply for the reason that the other four were so busily engaged in putting Forest City on the District and International map, that I was the only one privileged to profit by the programs and progress of the convention. Whatever honor may accrue to the local club, in the election of a district official, is due entirely to the zeal, the sacrifices, the untiring efforts and devoted loyalty of Kiwanians. Giles, Eakes, Flack and Doggett, who worked day and night for their town and their comrade in Kiwanis. They were cheerfully and ably supported by Deck Wilson and R. E. Price, of Rutherfordton and the delegation, as a whole, from Shelby. We will have opportunity of expressing our appreciation to these clubs Thursday night of next week when they come to our city for a joint meeting, and we are sure this will be done in a most acceptable manner. Due to the executive ability and magnificent work of Harry Freeber, general chairman of Winston-Salem's convention committee, 142 accredited delegates, four delegates at large and 573 Kiwanians and families were registered for the two and one-half days session of this convention that will live long in the memories of all who were privileged to attend.

From 2 p. m. until midnight the first afternoon of the convention was devoted to registration of delegates, conferences of district trustees and executive committees, closing the day with a get-together meeting in the interest of visiting delegates and a complimentary dance to visiting ladies, in the ball room of the Robert E. Lee hotel, where all sessions of the convention were held. The convention proper opened in the ball room Thursday morning, the time until 11 a. m. being taken up with addresses of welcome, responses, reports of convention committees and Lieut.-Governors. From 11 to 12 conferences for the presidents, secretaries and district trustees were conducted in adjoining rooms. During the morning session delegates were entertained by the singing of Howard Magness, of Forest City, with numerous comments on the ability of our young local boy. Also by Mrs. Jay Ward, of Lake Lure, sponsored by the Rutherfordton club. A luncheon for men only was held at noon featured by music and song and a splendid address by International-secretary Fred Parker, outlining the fundamental principles of Kiwanis. An outstanding address on "Kiwanis and Public Health" by Dr. Chas. O. Laughinghouse, of the State Board of Health, closed the afternoon session at 3:35, the remainder of the afternoon being given over to attendance at the polo game between the U. S. Army and Winston-Salem, to which tickets and transportation were provided by the Winston-Salem club, as also were tickets to the city's most popular picture show for all who desired to attend. From 7:15 until 10:30 p. m. all Kiwanians, ladies and friends totaling 573, were regaled at the banquet tables in the spacious ball room and on the mezzanine floors. The banquet was enlivened by a splendid orchestra, Mrs. Ward of Lake Lure, female quartet from Sumter, S. C., and the outstanding addresses of the entire convention, by International-past president Heinz, of Atlanta, who among many other fine things, stressed the policies to be pursued by clubs during the coming year, stressing particularly enduring service for underprivileged children, promotion of intelligent understanding of citizenship; that there may be a more general use of the franchise and larger service to our courts in jury duties; promotion of ideals expressed in Kiwanis statement of business standards; continuation of efforts to establish better understanding between the farmer and city man; enlisting all Kiwanis clubs in providing vocational training for all young men and young women. He also urged, emphatically and strongly, the applying of the Golden Rule to all club work and the individual lives and business associations of the members.

After the banquet the entire company adjourned to another building, where, beginning at 10:30 p. m., occurred the most unique entertainment of the entire convention and, possibly, of any similar convention ever held. The entire upper floor of a mammoth building was arranged as an exact duplicate of a New York night club and named "The Red Rat". Until 3:30 o'clock Friday morning the 500 or more visitors were in a continuous uproar. No privilege charge was attached, refreshments, entertainment and dancing free for all provided with Kiwanis tickets. The dancing was interspersed with music by two orchestras and some very high class vaudeville acts, including an internationally known Italian tenor. At intervals there came the close-up booming of a large toy-cannon to remind one of the occasional raids of federal agents and policemen.

The convention was brought to a highly successful ending Friday noon after the election of Tim Crews, of Spartanburg, for Governor, Roderick McDonald, of Columbia, S. C., secretary-treasurer, your humble servant as Lieut.-Governor of Division No. 1 and lieutenant governors of the other districts. Very much to the gratification of all Western North Carolina delegates the city of Greenville, S. C., was chosen for the next annual convention. In conclusion let me urge upon our local members a larger interest in and larger attendance upon our district and International conventions.

A challenge to all clubs in Division No. 1 was offered by Hickory clubs in the form of a loving cup for club having largest percentage of attendance next year. Hickory has led for three years. Let's go, Forest City, and capture this cup.

Forced to Sleep in Chair—Gas So Bad

"Nights I sat up in a chair, I had such stomach gas. I took Adlerika and nothing I eat hurts me now. I sleep fine."—Mrs. Glenn Butler.

Even the FIRST spoonful of Adlerika relieves gas on the stomach and removes astonishing amounts of old waste matter from the system. Makes you enjoy your meals and sleep better. No matter what you have tried for your stomach and bowels, Adlerika will surprise you. Hall-Rudisill Drug Co.

Our idea of a good guesser: The man who predicted that Jack Dempsey would win the fight in the play he is starring in on Broadway.

Governor Smith is out campaigning, and wears a brightly hued pair of suspenders. Let's hope this isn't construed as a slur to the corn belt.

A New Yorker charged with making out a false check tried to eat it in order to destroy the evidence against him. When he made out the check, he probably didn't think that he himself would be the goat.

"Silence is Golden" — but you can't get the producers who are cashing in on sound pictures to believe it!

To the 5000 who daily become owners of the new Ford car

THE service obligation of the Ford Motor Company and its dealer organization is now growing at the rate of 5000 cars a day. It is to these new car owners that this message is addressed.

The new Ford is a remarkably fine car for one that costs so little. It is simple in design, constructed of the finest materials, and built to unusually close measurements.

These are the reasons it performs so wonderfully. These are also the reasons its service requirements are so few and the up-keep cost so low.

When you receive your new car, the dealer will explain the simple little things that should be attended to at regular intervals to insure the best performance. He will also tell you something of his own facilities for doing this work promptly and at small cost.

With the purchase of your car, you are entitled to Free Inspection Service by your dealer at 500, 1000 and 1500 miles. This service is due you and we urge you to take full advantage of it. Proper care during this breaking-in period means a great deal to the life of your car.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY

Included in the Free Inspection Service is a check-up of the battery, the generator charging rate, the distributor, the carburetor adjustment, lights, brakes, shock absorbers, tire inflation and steering gear. The engine oil is also changed and chassis lubricated.

No charge whatever is made for labor or materials incidental to this inspection service, except where repairs are necessary because of accident, neglect, or misuse.

The labor of changing the engine oil and lubricating the chassis is also free, although a charge is made for the new oil.

We believe that when you see the good effects of this inspection you will continue to have it done regularly throughout the life of your car.

Wherever you live, you will find the Ford dealer very helpful in keeping your car in good running order for many thousands of miles at a minimum of trouble and expense.

He operates under close factory supervision and has been trained and equipped to do this work promptly, thoroughly and economically.
