EDITORIAL

We have sometimes wondered if the people of our town really appreciate the fact that The Courier has given us a page all for our own. Last week when "The Cliffside News" failed to appear there was a cry from all quarters wanting to know why there was no "Cliffside Page" in the paper. It showed that quite a number do appreciate the page and missed it when it failed to appear. The Editor was not responsible for we sent in the largest "batch" of news notes in many months. Nor was the Editor of the Courier responsible. He will explain the matter very likely in this issue of the paper. Let us say that none of you were more disappointed than the writer because we had a number of important articles including a fine article from the Methodist church concerning the fine work of the pastor during the past year and a writeup concerning the tragic death of our townsman and splendid young man, Addie Dobbins with a card of thanks from the family and several other items. We regret it as much as any of you, but it was unavoidable on the part of the Editors.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

The pastor was away holding a meeting at Stedman, N. C., last week returning home Monday of this week. Mrs. Smith met him in Charlotte Monday afternoon.

Members of the W. M. S. had charge of the prayer service last week with Mrs. R. C. Smith, president, in charge. An interesting program was rendered by the ladies.

On Sunday morning Rev. Paul Stewart of Green's Creek brought a fine message which was appreciated by his hearers. Rev. Stewart is a young man who is possessed of a personality and manner that attracts and holds his hearers.

Sunday evening at six o'clock the B. Y. P. U.'s met as usual and after brief sessions all came together to hear an address by Dr. J. F. Davis, president of Boiling Springs Junior College. The assembly room was well filled with members of the Unions and others who came in to hear Dr. Davis' address.

Dr. Davis brought the message at the evening preaching hour and a large audience was present to hear him. Dr. Davis was a stranger to most of those present, but after he began his message this fact was entirely forgotten and the man himself forgotten in the interest his message inspired.

There were several visitors present Sunday, especially at the evening service. Mr. E. Husky of Avondale was present and led the music and Messrs. C. H. Wilson, Earl Harrill and others were also present from Avondale.

Prof. and Mrs. A. C. Lovelace of Caroleen were among many others present Sunday evening from out of town. We are always glad to welcome visitors to our church. Among the home folks we were glad to have a number from the Methodist church.

We regret to note that little Miss Elizabeth Hendrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hendrick is critically ill here at her home with scarlet fever. As we write this it is reported that there seems to be a little change for the better in her condition. All that two doctors, two nurses and loving hands of family and friends can do is being done for her.

STOVE REPRESENTATIVE AT CLIFFSIDE THIS WEEK

Mr. G. W. Ragland, of St. Louis, Mo., representative and factory man for the Majestic range manufacturers, is at Cliffside Furniture store this week demonstrating the range during the sale now in progress there.

Mr. Ragland will explain the salient features of the range to all ladies who call, showing them why it takes less fuel, etc., to cook on a Majestic range, regardless of whether they buy or not.

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Carpenter accompanied by Mrs. Carpenter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Hames spent last Sunday in Lexington where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Hames. Mrs. Burrell Hames has been very ill for quite awhile, but is reported a little improved.

The following teachers spent the week end at their respective homes; Miss Bookout at Rock Hill, S. C. Miss Sara Workman at Cherryville, N. C., and Miss Flora Morris at Spindale.

Misses Pamela Pruet, Pearl Simmons, Alice David and Dr. Oren G. Moss and Mr. Chas. Haynes were guests of Miss Una Edwards at a buffet dinner at her home in Ruthersfordton last Saturday evening.

Mr. Wyman McDaniel of Greenville, S. C., spent the week end here the guest of his cousin, Mr. Dan Hawkins.

Attorney John H. Fogler of Mt. Airy is scheduled to speak here at the Hall at 7:45 next Saturday evening, October 26. Mr. Folger has the reputation of being quite a good speaker and a large crowd is expected to hear him.

Mrs. Shields of Fingerville, S. C., was a visitor here Monday.

Mr. Clarence Bracy of Rolland, N. C., was a visitor here last Sunday.

Mr. A. T. Humphries of Asheville, visited here last Saturday evening.

Mr. J. L. Rhinehardt and family of Gastonia visited friends here last Sunday and attended service at the Methodist church.

Mr. O. G. Morehead and family of Gastonia visited here last Saturday afternoon.

On last Friday afternoon the Glen Alpine boys came down and met the local Hi football team in a fine game in which the score was 7 and 19 in favor of the locals. Both teams played a good game but they did not get the backing of the people of our town as they deserved. Folks, let's show the boys we do appreciate their work by backing them up with our presence. Last Friday the folks were not busy at work—at least not many were—and the game should have been witnessed by ten times the number that did witness it. Get out with and for the boys.

ENTERTAINS AT DINNER

On Friday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Caldwell entertained at a buffet dinner a number of friends honoring Prof. and Mrs. F. S. Hall of Avondale who were married recently. Mrs. Caldwell was assisted by Mesdames Walter Haynes and M. Hendrick in serving a tempting repast after which progressive rook was enjoyed with the one holding high score at each table receiving a beautiful brush.

The house was tastefully decorated with Nasturtium and Ageratum which carried out the color scheme of purple and gold.

Those present were: the honor guests, Prof. and Mrs. F. S. Hall of Avondale; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Webb and Mrs. G. C. McDaniel of Forest City; Mr. and Mrs. John Lane and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Jenkins of Avondale; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hames; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Whitaker; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Haynes; Mr. and Mrs. M. Hendrick; Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Fortune; Dr. and Mrs. Harry L. Robertson; Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Campbell Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hord; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Carpenter; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haynes and Mr. Chas. H. Haynes.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Last Sunday morning, Rev. D. H. Rhinehardt preached his last sermon of this Conference year to the largest congregation he has had during the year.

His subject, "The Great White Throne Judgment" was handled in a masterful way and held the attention of the congregation from first to last.

At the conclusion of the service Mr. Rhinehardt was showered with congratulations on his message and at the same time each individual expressed the hope that he would be returned to this work.

A feature of the service Sunday was the two special selections rendered by Virginia and Howard Magness of Forest City. These talented young people were well received and won the admiration of every one present.

Mr. Rhinehardt left Tuesday for Charlotte where the Western North Carolina Conference is being held. Mr. Rhinehardt stated that he was happy to report every financial obligation of the church paid in full.

PROVIDENCE NEWS

Forest City, R-2, Oct. 23.—We have been having some nice weather in which to pick our cotton crops.

Those on the sick list last week were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith, Mrs. Della Costner, Mrs. Maggie Lee Christy, Mr. Frank Adams, and Mr. D. L. Smith. We hope for them a speedy recovery.

Mr. Leland Clayton and family spent the week end with Mrs. Clayton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Smith had as their supper guests Sunday night, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hill, Mrs. Ola Smith, Miss Mary Francis Smith, all from Shelby.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brandle, from Drayton, S. C., spent the week end with his parents, Mr. Amos Brandle.

Mrs. Frank Adams spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buff, who live in Harrilltown.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. W. V. Harrill.

An immense crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Harrill Sunday, October 21, honoring the birthday of Mrs. James Harrill, who was 77 years old. Their hospitable home is near Providence church. A bountiful dinner was served in picnic style. The table was loaded down with good things to eat. We hope for her many more birthdays. There were about one hundred present.

HOLLY SPRINGS NEWS

Harris, R-1, Oct. 21.—The farmers of this section are very busy picking cotton.

There was a large crowd at Sunday school Sunday. We hope they will continue to come.

There was a large crowd at the B. Y. P. U.'s and prayer meeting Sunday night.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Roach and family who have recently moved back to our community.

Mr. Rector Robbins and Miss Maggie Cole, of Boiling Springs spent the week end with home folks.

Misses Lillie, Maudie and Ina Robbins entertained a number of their friends Saturday night with a candy pulling. Those present were: Misses Maggie and Myrtle Cole, Myrtle and Ebbie Sue Matheny, Gladys Roach, Estelle and Joyce Bland, Ruby, Annette and Selma Hopper, Leuna and Ruby Robbins, Pauline Cole, Sallie Jane and Belle White, Nan and Beatrice Lancaster, Bernice Green, Le-la Rash, Lillie, Maudie, and Ina Robbins and Messrs. Floyd, Lloyd and Horace Owens. Edward and Howard Cole, Berryman Hamrick, Ralph Green, Garland Roach, Herman, Virgil and John Matheny, Dennis Jenkins, Eugene McCraw, Vance Henson, John Page, George Abernethy, John Bland, Robert Lynch, Walter Poteat, John White, Rector, Camon and Caldwell Robbins. Those present seemed to enjoy themselves very much pulling the candy.

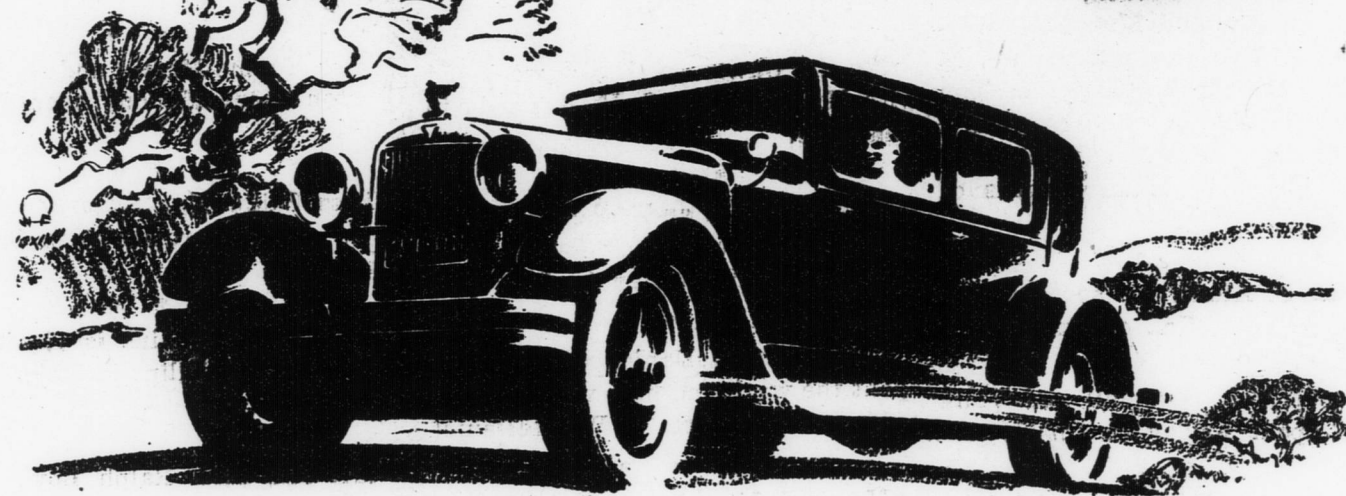

We are glad to report that little Joe, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Harris who was severely burned a few weeks ago and later developed scarlet fever is now about well again. Master C. T. Hord has also about recovered from scarlet fever. We do not know at present of any other cases, but have been told that there are several in town. We trust there will be no epidemic.

HUDSON SUPER 6

ABSOLUTELY - the most thrilling performance of my experience... and then think of the price . . . . .

Thus, thousands are voicing their new discovery!

And the occasion—a nation-wide program of personal demonstrations on the greatest scale in Hudson history.

New thousands literally "discovered" Hudson for the first time.

For the first time they travelled so fast with such safety, smoothness and exhilarating ease.

For the first time they witnessed incomparable performance delivered with a fuel economy that averaged from 16 to 18 miles per gallon, according to the local conditions of demonstration.

And the concrete results were the largest proportion of Hudson retail sales of any demonstration program of all time.
