J. B. BLANTON CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mooresboro Citizen Succumbs to Paralysis at Age of Seventy-One Years

Mooresboro, Oct. 22.—John Batie Blanton, age 71, died at a hospital in Morganton Friday after a short illness. He was one of the best known men of this section of the county, being president of the Mooresboro Cotton Oil Company and having other important business connections. He was unconscious 12 hours preceding his death, and died of paralysis.

He was twice married, first to Miss Barr of Lincolnton. After her death he married Lillian Purcell of Mooresboro, who survives with ten children as follows: R. S. and W. M. Blanton, Charlotte; Mrs. J. A. McBrayer; Mrs. J. A. Lucas, R. P. and John Blanton, Jr., all of Mooresboro; Charles and Fred Blanton, Columbus, the latter a banker of Polk county; Mrs. Frank Straight, Rock Hill, S. C., and Mrs. C. O. Champion, Mooresboro. One brother Hackett Blanton and one half brother, Jim Wilson, both of Shelby, survive with one sister, Mrs. Andrews of Roxboro.

He was a native of Rutherford county, and was born near Bostic. Funeral services and burial were held at Sandy Run Baptist church, Mooresboro Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with Revs. J. W. Suttle of Shelby, and A. T. Stouemire, of Avondale, officiating. He was a Baptist and one of the outstanding citizens of this section. A large crowd attended the funeral services.

A German actor, Parlatius, has broken the endurance speaking record, it is said, talking continuously for more than 45 hours. We're proud to say that many obscure American women could probably outdo him in any fair contest.
