AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS

Renn Drum of the Cleveland Star says:

Eugene Ashcraft, of the Monroe Enquirer, continues to manufacture typewritten lines with the best of them. Last Sunday, Ashcraft, while out motoring noticed a young fellow driving with one hand while the other arm was coupled about a bit of flapper femininity. Returning to his office the next day he tickled out the following on his typewriter:

Young lad
Young lass
Ford car
Much gas
High speed
Tight squeeze
Flip-flop
Hades

But necking youngsters are not the only ones who die in auto crashes we contend with the following lines:

Sensible man
Business mind
On auto trip
Crossing blind
No thoughts slip
Brakes shrieking
Train rolls on Widow weeping

ELECTION ODDITIES

(Spartanburg Herald)

As the smoke of battle clears away and various results emerge plainly, numerous surprises confront the county. Queer turns of political fortune, some of them inexplicable as yet, show up all over the county.

Why should Senator Royal S. Copeland of New York, run far ahead of his ticket? This is puzzling New York state. Why should James M. Beck be defeated by a Democrat in Philadelphia in the face of a Republican landslide?

Rather ironically it was President Coolidge's own state, Massachusetts, that deserted to the Democratic fold, carried Rhode Island along, while Governor Smith's own state turned him down. The corn Belt after all its fussing stuck to the G. O. P., and the Black Belt, surrounded with desertion to the Republican candidate, stuck loyally to the Democratic candidate.

In the House of Representatives a daughter of William Jennings Bryan will represent a Florida district, while a negro will represent a Chicago district—the first to sit there since reconstruction days. This means embarrassments of various kinds for various people in Washington and in the House hereafter.

Hoover gets an electoral college vote far beyond any seen for many years but Smith gets a popular vote greater both absolutely and proportionately than Davis or Cox got. Hoover's popular majority was less than Harding's or Coolidge.

A very considerable portion of Hoover's vote went to him, because Governor Smith is a Catholic. Yet Hoover cannot consistently recognize this vote at all. He must repudiate any obligations to it, for he expressly declared himself against that sort of intolerance. This vote was largely in the South. It was not that Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Oklahoma, and Texas wanted a Republican president, but that they refused to accept a wet Catholic from New York. This puts a difficult political problem up to Hoover.

Time will no doubt bring to light other curious features of the recent extraordinary election. But those noted are sufficient to signalize 1928 as a memorable year in our political history.

WHAT SHELBY PAPER SAYS OF FRIDAY'S GAME

Commenting on Friday's football game, the Cleveland Star says: The 1928 edition of the Shelby highs makes it last appearance here Friday when Casey Morris' fast-moving eleven takes the strong Forest City outfit.

It will be the last time local grid fans will get the opportunity to see the fast Shelby backfield in action as it is now formed. In recent games Capt. Gold, Zeno Wall, Bridges, Washburn and Ab Eskridge have established a reputation for running up big scores and since Forest City has had one of its best seasons it may be that Morris' hard-driving backs will have quite a job cut out for them. It will also be the last appearance on the local lot of Big Joe Singleton, All state guard, last year, and several other seniors, such as Gardner Lattimore, Eskridge and others.

FROST PROOF Cabbage plants—100, 25c; 1,000, $1.25. Wood's Cabbage Lettuce and best Curley Kales 100, 50c; 1,000, $1.50. Rev. M. L. Buchanan's Thermal Belt Gardens, Union Mills, N. C. 6-2t.

BIG SUIT FILED IN SHELBY BUILDING CRASH

Memories of Shelby's worst disaster, the building crash of August 28 in which six were killed, came back today when an envelope was filed in the office of A. M. Hamrick, superior court clerk here.

The envelope contained the complaint of the Clyde Carpenter estate in which suit is brought against four individuals and the town of Shelby for the death of Carpenter, young farmer of the Casar section.

Carpenter had been to the First National bank on business when the building toppled upon him and crushed him to death on the sidewalk.

The Defendants

The defendants in the suit brought by Mrs. Carpenter, for her and her three children, are named as follows: "John S. McKnight, Tom Webb, Cicero Lutz, E. A. Rudasill and the town of Shelby."

In the complaint McKnight is set forth as the owner of the building under which excavation work was being carried on. Webb and Lutz are named as the contractors doing the work; E. A. Rudasill as the city building inspector, and the town of Shelby as responsible for the building inspection.

Throughout the lengthy complaint, which sets forth many angles and sidelights of the disaster, negligence is charged to all those named as defendants in the complaint with the allegations directed by paragraphs to the various individuals.

Huffman Handles

The Carpenter suit, which will attract the interest of this entire section, was filed by former Solicitor R. L. Huffman, of Morganton and Asheville, who is acting as attorney for the Carpenter estate.

There is a likelihood, it is said, that the big suit may be tried at the special term of superior court convening here on November 19, which is next Monday.—Shelby Star.

VISITS COUNTY HOME

The T. E. L. class of the First Baptist church Sunday school, of which Mrs. Alice McDaniel is teacher, visited the county home on last Sunday afternoon and rendered a delightful program of sacred songs, readings, etc. Each member took home made candy, fruits and literature, some of which was given to each one of the inmates there. Miss Dorothy Green gave a lovely reading. The class wishes to thank Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Royster who are in charge of the home, for the cordial welcome they received.

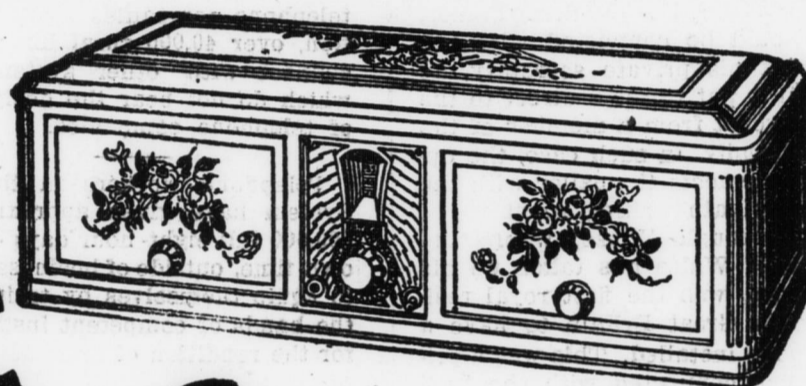

JOINT MEETING OF W. M. S. AND LADIES AID SOCIETIES

Wednesday afternoon, November 7, the Missionary and Ladies Aid societies held their regular monthly business meeting at the First Baptist church. The meeting was held in the Young Matrons' class room, adjoining the social hall. Forty-seven loyal, interested members were present. All joined in singing "The Kingdom is Coming." The president, Mrs. B. B. Doggett read the 15th chapter of John, then the society was led in prayer by Mrs. A. H. McDaniel. Various subjects of business were discussed. Some of the circles reported boxes and money ready to be sent to the Alexander School at Union Mills.

A nominating committee was appointed to nominate officers for the years 1929.

Personal service report: Visits to sick, strangers and shut-ins 139; baskets of food, 14; trays 25; garments given 156; flowers 71; tracts distributed 35; collection for missions $48.15; To Thomasville orphanage $11.25; charity $9.00; total $68.40. The meeting was then turned over to the Ladies Aid Society and after disposing of the business a delightful social hour was enjoyed while the West Main Street circle served delicious refreshments.

Mesdames W. M. Miller and Hague Kiser and Miss Mary King Harrill were shopping Monday in Shelby.
