

GOLDEN VALLEY MAN CALLED BY DEATH

Mr. S. B. Harris Died Sunday Afternoon—Funeral Monday—Other News of Bostic Route 4.

Bostic, R-4, Nov. 18.—Death has again saddened our community and claimed as its victim, Mr. S. B. Harris who died Sunday at one o'clock. Mr. Harris had been in declining health for some time, but died suddenly with heart trouble.

Mr. Harris leaves to mourn his departure, his widow, Mrs. Julia Harris, quite a number of relatives and a host of friends. He was well known and a Christian gentleman. Funeral services were held at First Broad Baptist church Monday at two o'clock with his pastor, Rev. Martin Gold in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan C. Melton, of Forest City, spent Saturday night with Mr. Melton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Melton.

Mr. Blaine Melton and family, of Glen Alpine, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Melton.

Misses Mildred Grayson and Bertie McCurry, of Glen Alpine, spent the week end with home folks.

Misses Elizabeth and Louise Gurley spent Saturday night with their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Melton.

Mr. Pratt Turner spent Saturday night with his cousin Mr. Guy Melton.

Miss Inez Houser is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Bedford Beatty at Spindale.

Miss Nannie Melton spent Sunday with Miss Inez Houser.

Those visiting Mr. Dan Melton and family Saturday evening were the following: Mrs. M. O. Mauney, Mr. Champ Mauney of Alexander, Miss Inez Houser, Messrs. Durham Hoyle of Casar, and Pratt Turner.

The choir of Sunshine's new church will sing at Golden Valley Methodist church next Sunday, November 25th, at 2 o'clock. Everybody is invited to attend.

Mr. E. M. Jones purchased a new Dodge sedan Saturday.

HOLLY SPRINGS

Harris, R-1, Nov. 19.—Dr. Davis, of Boiling Springs preached a very interesting sermon at Holly Springs Sunday night. A large crowd was present to hear him.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henderson and Rector Robbins, of Boiling Springs, spent the week end with home folks.

On the first Sunday in December, the Sandy Run Sunday School Convention will meet at the Holly Springs church about 2:00 o'clock. All other churches are invited to meet with us in this convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Pinson and little son visited at Mr. Dock Henson's Sunday.

There will be preaching at Holly Springs, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, November 25th by the pastor.

Mrs. Annie Briscoe and Mrs. Mae McDaniel visited Mrs. Nora Ridings Sunday.

Messrs. Arthur Cole, J. T. Splawn and Mr. Lowery each had the misfortune of losing a mule last week.

Inalienable rights upon many things, but chiefly on sleeping with one eye open.

ARTHUR TOMBLIN DIED SUNDAY

Pneumonia and Influenza Bring About Death of Well-Known Spindale Man

Spindale, Nov. 20.—Mr. Arthur Tomblin, aged 38 years, died at his home here Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Mr. Tomblin had been in ill health for two years, and during the greater part of the time had been unable to work. He was attacked with pneumonia last week, followed by the influenza, which claimed him Sunday morning.

Funeral services were held at Piney Knob Baptist church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. His pastor, Rev. M. M. Huntley, was in charge of the service. Interment was in the Piney Knob cemetery.

Mr. Tomblin is survived by his widow and six children, the eldest fifteen years of age. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tomblin, of Spindale survive, also the following brothers and sisters: Will, Columbus, Burgin, Clarence and Ed Tomblin, all of Spindale; Mrs. John Allen, of Alexander and Weda Tomblin, of Spindale.

He was a member of the Piney Knob Baptist church until about three months ago, when his membership was transferred to the Spencer Baptist church, at Spindale. He was a consistent Christian worker in the church, a devoted member and a man who was highly respected by his neighbors.

It is stated that the largest number ever attending a funeral at Piney Knob was present Monday afternoon at Mr. Tomblin's funeral.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

The little friends of Jeffries Cooper gathered at her home on South Broadway Saturday to celebrate her eighth birthday. Many interesting games were played after which the little folks were invited into the dining room and had some contests. Margaret Scruggs won first prize and Irene Montieth, second. The dining room was beautifully arranged with yellow and pink. A birthday cake was in the center with eight candles burning.

At four o'clock refreshments were served. Mrs. N. C. Wooten, Mrs. Ed Huntley and Mrs. B. B. Green assisted Mrs. Cooper in serving. Those invited were Madeline and Irene Montieth, Treva and Wheeler Lowrance, Imaell Caraway and B. Wooten, Madison and Glenn Nanney, Rose Suber, Margaret, Madline, Bobo Kendrick, Ted Huntley, Billie Kendrick, Marjorie Green, Mildred Plyler, Tula and May Sue Clary, of Gaffney, S. C. Jefferies received many little presents of which she was very proud.

FARMERS MEETING AT HARRIS FRIDAY

Harris, Nov. 20.—A farmers meeting will be held at Harris school house Friday evening at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing vocational agricultural evening classes in the school. An instructive program has been planned and an amusing program will be given also. Music will be furnished by a special musical committee.

Miss Laura Howard, county demonstration agent, will meet with the women at the same time.

All farmers and their wives in the Harris community are requested to be present at this meeting.
