

Local Happenings

Entertains at Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Jones entertained at their home on Magnolia Street last Wednesday, at dinner, Judge Michael Schenck, of Hendersonville; Solicitor Will Pless, of Marion; and attorney and Mrs. C. O. Ridings, of Forest City.

Mr. Will Wilkie, of Greenville, S. C., visited his mother here Sunday.

Children's wool sweaters, $1.00 at Courtney's 5c and 10c Store.

Messrs. C. C. Hicks and Broad Green attended the Water and Light convention held in Raleigh this week.

Mesdames F. F. Black and J. T. Camp and Mr. J. B. Meares spent Saturday afternoon in Spartanburg.

Mrs. G. C. McDaniel and son, spent Tuesday in Marion the guests of Miss Nena Neal.

Mr. E. G. Abernethy returned Saturday from a ten days trip to Mississippi.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Doggett will go to Asheville Monday to see Miss Ruth Doggett.

Big assortment pictures at 10c, 15c, 20c, 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Courtney's 5c and 10c Store.

Mrs. W. W. Poole and son, Robert Poole, of Spruce Pine, spent a few days here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Biggerstaff, of Asheville, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hicks spent Sunday with Mr. B. E. Hensdale in Landrum, S. C.

Mrs. C. R. Price and children will spend Thanksgiving with her father, Mr. H. B. Thomas in Statesville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kennedy, of Charlotte spent Wednesday here with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Butler.

Mrs. J. P. Lore and Mr. Martin Rhodes, of Lincolnton spent Tuesday here with Mrs. A. W. Falvey.

Mrs. Clarence Young and Misses Mayme Martin and Sudie Young were shopping Tuesday in Charlotte.

Special box writing paper, 10c; the biggest box in town. Courtney's 5c and 10c Store.

Dr. John S. Wood is in Charlotte this week, attending the Scottish rite re-union.

Mrs. A. C. Jones has returned from a most delightful visit to her daughters Mrs. J. V. Ogburn, Smithfield and Mrs. L. C. Adams, of LaGrange.

Miss Mary Crowell and Mrs. Jennie Blanton, of Shelby, spent Tuesday afternoon here with Mrs. A. W. Falvey and Miss Mayme Martin.

Miss Myrtle Doggett and Mr. Geo. Stahl went to Spartanburg on Saturday to see Al Jolson in "The Singing Fool."

Misses Dana McDaniel and Margaret Robertson and Mr. English, of Charlotte, were the guests Sunday of Miss Myrtle McDaniel.

Mrs. J. Kenneth Pfohl, Miss Bessie Pfohl and Mrs. Teague, of Winston-Salem, were breakfast guests of Mrs. G. C. McDaniel Saturday morning.

Misses Ruth and Eleanor Meares and Mr. Arval Alcock motored to Spartanburg Saturday to hear Al Jolson in the vitaphone production, "The Singing Fool."

Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Davis and Miss Elizabeth Davis are visiting relatives in Knoxville, Tenn. Misses Jennie and Mary Davis will return home with them after a ten days visit to relatives in Knoxville.

Mrs. G. C. McDaniel entertained at dinner Sunday, in honor of her husband's birthday, the following: Messrs. Will Moss, T. R. Padgett, Fred Webb, J. R. McDaniel, P. D. Harrill, D. Harrill and Robert Holmes.

HORN'S THEATRE

Program Nov. 22 - 29 Inclusive

THURSDAY, NOV. 22.

"HAUNTED HOUSE."
Comedy—"Run Buster."

A MYSTERY PICTURE

Here are the ingredients for a mystery film:

Clanking chains.
Clutching hands.
Mysterious shadows.
Deep groans or sudden cries of horror.

Something hidden behind a secret panel.

Footsteps overhead — where there is no living creature.

Wailing wind.

Shining eyes in the dark.

A horrible something that slithers across the floor.

A dark hooded figure that rises from an obscure corner.

Doors that close unaided.

A gray thing that mops and mows in the shadows.

All these and other mysterious things are to be found in "The Haunted House" First National's thrilling mystery picture coming to Horn's Theatre, November 22. Chester Conklin, Thelma Todd, Montagu Love and many other notables are in the cast.

FRIDAY, NOV. 23

"SHIELD OF HONOR."
Comedy—"Rattling Good Time."
Blake of Scotland Yard, No. 6.

2,500 REAL LIVE POLICEMEN PLAY "SHIELD OF HONOR"

Not even a policeman will be able to find a technical fault in the manner in which the actual police drill team scenes in "The Shield of Honor," the Universal which comes to Horn's Theatre here, November 23, were handled.

They are said to be perfect in every detail for with the exception of the more prominent figures in the cast, who impersonate officers in the picture, all the other police officers are members of the Los Angeles police department and were actually on a field day when the picture was taken.

2,500 policemen were used in these thrilling scenes which were taken in Exposition Park, one of the largest and best public parks in Southern California, the men working under Chief Davis of the Los Angeles Police Department.

During the making of the picture the policemen forgot they were just acting before the camera and entered into the spirit of the thing with great gusto. They went through their maneuvers and drills with the same enthusiasm as they put in their every day work.

The sheriff of Los Angeles was also an interested onlooker of the taking of the picture for his department of public protection supports an airplane and he readily appreciates what its addition to metropolitan police forces will do in checking the nefarious operations of criminals and law breakers.

The stellar cast embraces such players as Nell Hamilton, Dorothy Gulliver, Ralph Lewis, Nigel Barrie, Thelma Todds, Claire McDowell, Harry Northrup, Joe Girard and others. Emory Johnson directed the picture which is from the story written by Emilie Johnson.

SATURDAY, NOV. 24

"MYSTERIOUS LADY."
Comedy—"Kid Hayseed."

GRETA GARBO TRIUMPHS AGAIN IN SPY ROMANCE

Greta Garbo, the blonde star who has been delighting American screen audiences since her discovery in Sweden by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, has achieved another outstanding triumph with her work in "The Mysterious Lady," the picture at Horn's Theatre, November 24.

In this screen version of Ludwig Dolff's fascinating drama of European espionage systems, the Swedish star is seen in a difficult role. She plays as a beautiful Russian spy who plots the disgrace of a young American officer to gain a military secret for her own country.

With this unsympathetic part to sustain, Miss Garbo gives a vivid

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Howes served a six course dinner Friday evening, honoring Mrs. J. Kenneth Pfohl. The following guests were present: Mrs. J. Kenneth Pfohl and daughter, Miss Bessie Pfohl Mrs. Teague, of Winston-Salem; Mrs. D. H. Sutton, Mrs. T. R. Padgett and Mrs. G. C. McDaniel.

interpretation of the character she plays, and succeeds in winning sympathy by revealing the character's love for the man she has lured to misfortune.

"The Mysterious Lady" is Miss Garbo's first screen appearance since "The Divine Woman." She appears more accomplished in this latest picture than she has ever been before. This may largely be due to the excellent direction of Fred Niblo, who also directed Greta Garbo in her second American film, "The Temptress." He seems to have a knack of understanding the star's capabilities, and by making full use of this ability has created a vehicle for her that easily ranks among the year's best films.

Conrad Nagel, who has probably appeared with more feminine stars than any other leading man, in this picture makes his debut opposite Greta Garbo. The love scenes in which they appear together lack nothing of dash, verve and fire.

The story of "The Mysterious Lady" is one of engrossing interest. Miss Garbo as the Russian spy lures Nagel, an Austrian officer, to disgrace and exile, but redeems herself and displays her love for him by slaying the head of the espionage system which had enslaved her, convincing the Austrian of her true love for him and leading him back safely to the land which he had fled as a fugitive.

"The Mysterious Lady," it safely may be said is one of the finest pictures in which the beautiful and talented Greta Garbo has appeared.

MONDAY, NOV. 26

"ADVENTURE."
Comedy—"Just Dandy."

"THE ADVENTURER" A TROPIC ROMANCE

Tim McCoy, dashing adventurer of the screen, has a new setting and a new brand of adventures for his newest role—and consequently reaped a new triumph in "The Adventurer," his latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer vehicle, coming to Horn's Theatre, Monday, November 26.

It is a romance of the tropics, with McCoy playing an American mining engineer thrust, through a strange trick of fate, into the midst of a Latin-American Revolution—and, through a series of strenuous adventures, into the position of arbiter of the fates of the little country in which the strange adventure took place.

It is a story crammed with thrills, hairbreadth escapes, daring feats of horsemanship, and with a pretty romance told to an accompaniment of the thunder of guns and the staccato rap of horses' hoofs.

TUESDAY, NOV. 27

"WIZZARD OF THE SADDLE."
Comedy—"Top Bets."

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 28

"GEO. WASHNIGTON."
Also a good comedy.

THURSDAY, NOV. 29

For Thanksgiving we are offering Corinne Griffith in "The Outcast." She is at her best in this picture. Don't miss it.
Comedy—"There's a Will."

I have just received a big line of metallic hats in gold, and silver, and am closing out all felt hats at a big reduction. Mrs. A. C. Jones.

Just a step off Main Street into toy land at Courtney's 5c and 10c Store.

LOST — Light gray coat, pin stripe. Lost between Floyd's Creek and Henrietta. Return to Marcus Mauney, at Floyd's Creek Church. It

Teachers and Students

Will find it to their advantage to call at this office for all kinds of

Typewriter Sheets
Second Sheets
Cardboard, Etc.

You will find just what you want in our large stock and make a saving on your purchase.

The Courier
Forest City, N. C.

JUST ARRIVED 50 NEW

DRESSES

For Thanksgiving

All new styles and beautifully tailored in materials of georgettes, satins and crepes.

See them today.

$9.75 $14.95 $24.50

Stunning new fur trimmed

GOATS

For Ladies and Misses

The season's newest styles and colors. Let us show you.

$9.95 $16.50
$24.50 up $59.50

We are pleased to announce that we have secured the famous

Gordon V-Heel Hosiery in a full range of colors at $2.50
Our famous $2 FULL FASHIONED HOSE at the pair $1.00

We are showing the very newest thing in

Ladies' Hand Bags

You will be more than delighted with them

$2.95 up to $6.50

NEW SWEATERS

for children, all wool and neatly made in fancy and plain colors,

98c up $2.95

Men's New Oxford Grey Suits

with 2 pairs trousers. They are the newest thing on the market—

$25.00 up $35.00

Cold Weather Calls For

Top Coats

We have a splendid assortment at $9.95 up $25.00

BOYS' 2-PANTS SUITS

sizes 6 to 18.

$6.95 up $16.50

Enna Jettick Arch Support Shoes

A fit for every foot. Widths A to E. Sizes 2 1-2 to 9. Price—

$4.95

Ladies' fabric
Gloves
All new styles,
98c up $1.95

Kid Gloves in the fall leading colors,
$3.50

Part Wool Blankets

Size 66x80

$3.44

Cotton Blankets

Size 66x80

$1.95 up $2.95

Don't fail to see our new Ladies' Dresses and Coats.

Dalton Bros.

"The Place To Trade"

Forest City, N. C.