Y. W. A. NOTES

Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 20, 1928, the Y. W. A. of the school entertained the members of the Woman's Missionary Society of the church at a lovely reception. The reception hall was beautiful, decorated with autumn leaves and flowers, making the setting for the Mother-Daughter program altogether cheerful and inviting.

After the mothers had been introduced to their respective daughters, the following program was given.

Welcome Address—Miss Lunette Odom.
Response—Mrs. J. L. Jenkins.
Song: "Little Mother O'mine"—Miss Woody.
Poem: "On Mothers Love"—Miss Billie Odom.
Playlet: "The Stages of a Girl's Life."

Those taking part in the playlet were as follows: Kindergarten girls: Margaret Small, Jannie Wilson, and Edna Putnam.

High School girls: Jannie Irvin, Ruth Irvin, Iris Rollins, and Hazel Deaver.

College Graduate—Maggie Cole.
Bride—Lillian McEntyre.
Young Mother—Louise Bettis.
Mother in Old Age—Gwendolyn Doggett.

As a fitting climax to the playlet Miss Woody sang "Mother Machree." After the program all engaged in a very delightful social hour, at which time delicious punch was served by Misses Rebecca Austell, Frelove Crawford, Mildred Harrill, and Frances McCardwell.

B. Y. P. U.

The B. Y. P. U.'s are doing splendid work. The grades are not what they should be, but we are trusting that each member of both sections will strive to help make his or her union one hundred per cent. We are hoping that there will break out, among our students, a spiritual epidemic of B. Y. P. U. enthusiasm that will be so contagious that no student can evade it.

Our general assemblies have been very interesting and uplifting. Messages that were both educational and spiritual have been given us at these assemblies. Professor Snuggs gave us some fundamental ideas of the interpretation of doctrinal thoughts. Dr. Davis brought us a very interesting and impressive message on "The Challenge to Youth." He enumerated the challenges as, first: The past; second, The present and last, The future. All these challenges us to give our best to the world and to mankind.

Brother Jenkins, our pastor, gave us a very profitable message. He spoke on the "Value of an Organized Prayer Life." The speaker emphasized the forming of a prayer list, and the development of specific praying.

We appreciate the interest and encouragement shown us by our faculty. May we show to them our appreciation by making our B. Y. P. U. one hundred percent in efficiency for Christ.

B. S. U.

The council of the Baptist Student Union meets in regular session semi-monthly. At each meeting interesting reports are given by the representatives from the B. Y. P. U., the Ministerial Class, the Y. W. A., and the Sunday School. In the next meeting we are expecting to have reports from other schools.

Plans are now being made to erect a bulletin board in front of the memorial building. Watch it for further announcements.

On December 15, 1928 the K. L. S. girls will have their annual debate.

The query is: Resolved, That North Carolina Should Further Restrict Child Labor.

Affirmative—Irene Price, Janie Irvin.
Negative—Ruth Bridges, Alice Crayton.

Every one is cordially invited to attend this debate.

The Kalliergeonian Literary Society is thriving beautifully under the leadership of our new president, Miss Mozelle Gold, who has proved her ableness to lead. Each program marks a great improvement in those taking part.

Our sincere hope is that each of you will pray for our development in society to prove helpful to us and that through us others may be benefited.

LOWELL ENTERTAINS

Lowell favored us with a most effective little play given by their Y. W. A. The money made from the play was given to the school.

We are most thankful to these kind people for their generosity and good spirit.

The little play was entitled "Little Miss Jack". It was very sweet and effective. The acting was unusually good.

RHAMSOEUR NOTES

The Minnie Rhamsoeur Literary Society gave her eighteenth Public Debate Saturday evening, Nov. 24, 1928. An interesting program was given and attended by a large and appreciative audience.

The stage was decorated with huge baskets of autumn leaves, pines and shrubs. The society colors were carried out by beautiful baskets of pink rose buds and green fern being placed on the tables. These blended beautifully with the other decorations.

The following program was given:
Welcome Address—Martha Hamrick.

Piano Solo "Thine Own", Lange—Iris Rollins.

Essay—"The Reveries of An Old Maid"—Billie Odom.

Piano Duet—"On The Stage"—Lyda Ree and Velma Green.

Reading: "The Family Groups"—Harbour—Iris Rollins.

Debate: Resolved, that Religious Education should be taught in Public Schools.

Affirmative—Lunette Odom, Helen Crawford.

Negative—Eunice Hamrick, Halle Frances McCardwell.

Reading: "And So Did I"—Margaret Small.

Double Quartette, A Barcarolle—Kesslering—Misses Rollins, McCardwell, Crawford, Austelle, Deaver, Arrowood, Green and Green.

The Affirmative won the query. The Lucile Green Weathers Debaters Medal was won by Hallie Frances McCardwell for the best all-round debater.

THANKS TO BLACKSBURG

Nov. 24, 1928, Blacksburg high school honored us with a play entitled "The Poor Married Man." The proceeds from this play go to beautify the campus of our school. We greatly appreciate the interest shown in our school by these kind people.

HOME-MADE CANNON KILLS

Kearny, N. J., Dec. 13.—Andrew Capjak, out of work eighteen months, has amused himself by making a miniature cannon, with a gas pipe barrel, a tenpenny nail and a rubber band for the firing mechanism. The whole was mounted on a board attached to four small wheels.

Finally Capjak put a .45 calibre pistol cartridge in the cannon breech, pointed the muzzle at his chest and snapped the rubber band, discharging the bullet in his lungs.

Livestock growers interested in learning more about the job will enjoy the meeting of the Southern Livestock Association to be held at State College in Raleigh, December 18, 19 and 20.

Nature never makes the mistake of placing clashing colors together in a floral arrangement, as one will learn who studies natural landscapes.

From 40,000 to 50,000 pounds of Danish Bald Head cabbage cut from one acre of bottom land is the record of Porter Morgan of Transylvania County who says he cleared $800 an acre from the crop this season.

Tom Tarheel says that city merchants who expect to get all the trade of farmers nearby should also expect to buy from the farmers.
