WOMAN'S CLUB

Welfare Dept. Needs Clothes
The Welfare department of the Woman's Club is greatly in need of warm clothes for both boys and girls of school age. If you have any boys' suits in sizes that will fit a boy 8 to 14 years old, please send them at once to Mrs. Geo. R. Gillespie, chairman of the Welfare department. We are asking that every house keeper look over their wardrobes and see if there are any clothes they can give to some needy person at this time. Please do not send soiled clothing, as we can not handle these.

Christmas Stockings
The Woman's Club members are packing Christmas stockings for the soldiers at Oteen Hospital. Anyone, whether a member of the club or not, may fill one of these stockings. Mrs. A. W. Falvey has the stockings and if you care to fill one call at her home for a stocking at once. All stockings must be shipped by December 20, so it is urgent that this matter be attended to at your earliest convenience.

HOPEWELL NEWS

Ellenboro, R-2, Dec. 12.—The friends of Mr. Braidy Robbins surprised him with a birthday party on last Tuesday night. Among those present were Misses Alma Robbins, Marie Robbins, Estelle Spratt, Donna Bridges, Dorcas Bridges, Mrs. Ida Robbins, Mrs. Madge Carpenter, and little Master Jennings Carpenter, Mr. Gifton Black, Cheaner Bridges, Grady Hamrick, Van McDonald, Roland Bridges, Ray Bridges, Loren Davis, Horace Bridges, Elmer Guffey, R. J. Guffey, Coy Ramsey, Romie Ramsey.

All present reported a nice time. The friends of Master Kermit Bridges will be glad to hear that he is recovering from a long illness of heart trouble and it is hoped he will soon be well and in school.

The friends of Miss Dovie Bridges are sorry to note that she is very sick at the time of this writing. We hope she will soon be well again.

Mr. Lester Bridges is very sick with "flu" at this time. His friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. James Fite and other members of his family have all got the "flu". The family have the sympathy of friends and neighbors.

The little son of Mr. A. A. Owens is seriously sick at the time of this writing. His friends hope he will soon be well and in school again.

Miss Lois Swink gave a cotton picking on last Wednesday night. Lots of cotton was picked and all present reported a nice time.

Mr. Erman Ramsey of Mooresboro spent last Saturday night with his cousins Coy and Romie Ramsey.

HORN'S THEATRE

Program, December 13, 14 and 15
THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13
Richard Barthelmess in "SCARLET SEAS."

Never has Dick Barthelmess played a more stirring role! Fearless and feared — scrappy and happy — he's the Barthelmess of "The Patent Leather Kid," "The Noose," and "Fury" rolled into one! Comedy — "Horse Play."

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14
Hoot Gibson in "A TRICK OF HEARTS."

A Western drama that's as different as night is from day. A wild and woolly Western town—run by women—hard-fisted gun-toting women, who believed they were as good as any gang of bad men.

Episode No. 9 "Blake of Scotland Yard" and Comedy — "Helen's Harlem Scarem."

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 15
Renee Adoree and Conrad Nagel, in "THE MICHIGAN KID" by Rex Beach.

He cheated at cards, he cheated at love, and he cheated at honor.

Beyond all question the most magnificent outdoor picture ever screened. A forest fire that pales into insignificance anything that has ever gone before—a ride for life in a frail canoe through the mad whirl of treacherous mountain rapids.

Chase Comedy—"Never the Dames Shall Meet."

Under a new order a government agent is prohibited from employing his wife as a stenographer. Who said governments were heartless?

AWAITS BABY'S AMPUTATED TAIL

Baltimore.—Dr. Schultz of Johns Hopkins Medical School is awaiting a specimen of the "missing link." Two or three weeks ago a baby was born in Knoxville, Tenn., with an unmistakable tail, seven inches long. It was immediately removed by a surgeon and promised to Dr. Schultz for study. There are about 25 cases known to science, says Dr. Schultz, of babies born with tails.

TAKEN FOR MAN SHE SUES

St. Louis.—Suits for $90,000 damages have been filed against the Coronado Hotel by a woman guest who charges that the house detective slandered her when he broke into her room, suspecting she was a man because of a heavy voice induced by a cold.

BUYS A TRUNK AND FINDS A BODY IN IT

Vancouver, B. C.—J. E. Butts purchased a trunk for $14 at an "unclaimed baggage" sale at a railway station. Inside he found a miniature casket containing the dismembered body of a Japanese. The trunk was lined and hermetically sealed with metal. Resting on the casket was an imperial Japanese passport, made out to Hisamata Zaa, forty-eight, a native of Okinawa Ken. The trunk had been in the custody of the Canadian Pacific for a year.

"F" AS IN "PHONOGRAPH"

Salem, Mass.—An athlete wearing the letter "F" on his sweater was asked what it stood for and he said "Philadelphia."
