WELFARE OFFICER ASKS AID FOR COUNTY'S NEEDY

Rutherfordton, Dec. 17.—Mrs. F. B. Moss, county superintendent of public welfare, states that there are a number of people in the county in dire straits and are in need of assistance at Christmas time. The circumstances of these people are such that the county is unable to assist them with funds. Mrs. Moss requests any who desire to contribute to this fund to send, or leave them at her office.

The Rutherford county cottage for delinquent boys at Jackson Training school, Concord, also needs some decorations for the interior. This building was erected by the people of Rutherford county a short time ago, and to date little has been done to decorate and beautify the interior. Anyone having Christmas decorations or decorations suitable for the interior of this cottage please send them to Mrs. Moss.
