WWNC PROGRAM DECIDED SUCCESS

Local Artists Receive Much Praise—Forest City Again on Air Wednesday, Jan. 9

Judging from the number of favorable comments concerning the Forest City Kiwanis broadcast from the Asheville radio station WWNC Wednesday night, it was a decided success. Those taking part were highly complimented by the management of the station and several of the artists promised to give return engagements. The piano performance of Mrs. Marie Eddington and the singing of Mrs. Nell Padgett Norris, Messrs A. M. Hughey and Henry Giles and the Magness children elicited several phone messages from delighted listeners. The sextet composed of Misses Anna Belle Ware, Eleanor Mears, Virginia Magness, Reba Matheny, Joy Brackett and Ruth Gillespie, rendered three of the popular numbers of the program. Individually and collectively the entire sixty minute program was most decidedly a credit to Forest City, representing many different phases of its steady and continued growth and progress.

Featuring as it did the advantages and attractions of our city it was possibly the most outstanding advertisement and distinctive piece of publicity ever put out by local interests, for the edification of our neighbors in the Piedmont section and people of other States. Next Wednesday night, at the same hour, Forest City will again be on the air from WWNC and the program will feature the business of individual merchants and manufacturers who have subscribed to the broadcast and those who wish to do so. This is advertising that will pay any merchant interested in the next program.

An
Autobiography
He Didn't Know
He Was Writing

Woodrow Wilson never wrote an autobiography as such. Yet his letters, written with no thought of publication, tell his story more dramatically, more authentically, more intimately and more interestingly than it could have been told in any other way. And when Mrs. Wilson authorized Ray Stannard Baker to arrange and publish this unconsciously prepared autobiography, he had at his disposal more than 200,000 of Wilson's private letters—five tons of them! With such a wealth of material, the story could not help but be interesting.

Perhaps you read the first series. If you did, you will look eagerly forward to this new series, more interesting than the first, if that is possible, to begin in The ASHEVILLE TIMES, Sunday, January 6th. Subscribe now, so that you won't miss a single chapter.
