

CLAIMS MR. M. ROBERTSON, AGED 78, SATURDAY

City Tax Collector, Former County Coroner and Deputy Sheriff Succumbs to Heart Trouble

Mr. C. M. Robertson, aged 78, died at his home here Saturday morning of heart trouble.

Mr. Robertson had an attack with his heart last June and had not been well since that time. He had another attack last Monday and rapidly grew worse until death came Saturday morning.

Mr. Robertson was perhaps one of the best known men in this county. He had served as deputy sheriff, county coroner and tax collector for the town of Forest City. He was city tax collector at the time of his death. He was one of the oldest members of the Methodist church here. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and a doky being a member of the Asheville temple. He was also a member of the Moose Lodge.

Mr. Robertson was born at Caroleen July 21, 1850. On September 21 1876 he married Miss Mary E. Bailey and to this union were born seven children, six of whom are now living. They are as follows: Mrs. Ada Fortune and Mrs. Grady Moore of Forest City, Mrs. Lillian Bell, Spartanburg, S. C., Mrs. Leroy Smith, Charlotte, Therman Robertson of Wadesboro and Clyde Robertson of Greenville, S. C.

On October 6, 1903 Mr. Robertson married his second wife, Miss Virginia Doggett, who survives. To this union were born four children three of which are now living. They are Louis, John Lee and Milton Robertson all who live at home.

Funeral services were held at the Forest City Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock with his pastor, Rev. M. F. Moores, in charge, assisted by Revs. John S. Wood, Dr. W. A. Ayers and Dr. Zeno Wall. Each of the ministers paid a fitting tribute to the deceased in some form.

Interment was in Providence church cemetery. The burial service was in charge of the Knights of Pythias, of which he was a member. The Pythian ceremony was used at the grave side.

The many beautiful floral offerings were borne by Misses Ruth Reid, Alice King, Ruth Doggett, Kathleen Dorsey, Mesdames I. S. Robinson, Jack Hodge, A. D. Nanney, C. E. Alcock, M. F. Moores and Almae Davis Ellis.

Forest City, Jan. 1.—A wedding of interest to a large circle of friends was that of Mr. William Lytle and Miss Callie Dean which occurred December 22, in Spartanburg, S. C. The ceremony was performed by the probate judge. A number of young friends accompanied the contracting parties.

Shytle - Davis

Saturday, December 22, Mr. Kenneth Shytle and Miss Mattie Davis accompanied by Mr. Guy Toney and Miss Annie Davis motored to Gaffney, S. C., where the former couple were united in marriage by Probate Judge Lake W. Stroupe.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and

Mrs. M. C. Davis of Union Mills, R-3, and is quite popular among her young friends. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Shytle. Both are employees of the Florence Mills and will make their home with the groom's parents for the present. Their many friends join us in wishing them a long and useful life together.

Henrietta, Dec. 31.—The following teachers are expected to return Tuesday after spending the Christmas holidays at their respective homes: Misses Cleo Sane, Margaret Kimsey, Sue Koon, Goldie Lee Morrisette, Virginia Poole. School begins Wednesday morning.

A happy reunion of members of Mr. A. M. Lovelace's family was held on Christmas Day, at his home in Mooresboro. There were twenty children and grand-children present for the occasion. Those attending the dinner from Henrietta were Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Lovelace, and daughter Martha Jane, and Prof. and Mrs. W. M. Lovelace.

The friends of Mr. Dan Smith, of this community, regretted to hear of the accident to his father, at Sandy Mush, last Friday night when Mr. Smith was struck by a car. We are glad to know his condition is more favorable at this time.

A special Christmas program was given at the Henrietta M. E. Church on Sunday night, the 23rd, at which time the members of the Sunday School received a nice gift of fruit, nuts and candy. Mr. O. J. Mooneyham, Superintendent had charge of the program.

One of the most delightful affairs of the holiday season was the party given on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Asbury, Jr. Seven tables of progressive bridge were played, Mrs. W. M. Lovelace receiving high score ladies' prize, Mr. Henry Jenkins, high score gentlemen's prize, and Mrs. Frank Edwards consolation prize. SYMPOSIUM AND NEW YEAR'S GREETING FROM HORN'S THEATRE

Well, folks: Since writing you through these columns, the whole calendar has been changed, even the day of the week, the month and the year, and we made only one entry of 1928, after 1929 came in, but it was discovered in time not to go out, and don't forget to change yours. We have a lot to be thankful for which the retiring year brought around, and want to take this time and space to thank our many friends and patrons for helping us to enjoy and carry on our unequalled means of enjoyment. These thanks and appreciations go on down the line to the producers, the directors and the stars, musicians et al who have taken part in these great productions we have been enabled to present to you.

Now for the work of 1929: The little winged nymph, called the new year, has a great work before him, but with our help, encouragement and co-operation, his burden will be a pleasure to us and the next lapse which he has to cover will slide by as though on a greased track, and contribute unconsciously one more notch on our ferule of time.

Our aim is to give you the best the industry will afford, and Colleen Moore, William Haines, Alice White, Al Hoxie, Hoot Gibson, Corine Griffith, Billie Dove, Mary Carr, Claire Bow, Joan Crawford, Ted Wells, Tom Tyler, and many others, which space forbids mention, have joined our group, or rather renewed their allegiance to us, for the new year, and we are sure what they will bring will merit your time and finance to enjoy. Some of the subjects to be treated in the near future, will be Divine Lady, Synthetic Sin, Divine Sinner, Trail of 98, one of the big ones of the year; Mask of The Devil, Phantom Woman, Show People, Waterfront, Wild West Show, Out Cast Souls, Red Riders of Canada, Dancing Vienna.

Elsewhere in this paper you will note billing for the next six days which pictures you will be permitted to see. There are always surprises coming along which you will be thrilled to have thrown on you, and rest assured if you find it here you will find the best to be had.

Again thanking you and wishing you a prosperous and pleasant New Year, we will try to carry our part with and for you.
