WOMAN'S CLUB

Literary Department

A very delightful social occasion was the meeting of the Literary Department of the Woman's Club held last Thursday afternoon in the banquet hall of Blanton's Cafe. The hostesses for the afternoon were: Mesdames M. W. Harris, Hoyle Elliott, W. R. Harrill, C. Z. Flack, G. P. Reid and B. B. Doggett.

The special topic for the afternoon was American and Canadian cities. Mrs. J. H. Thomas gave a beautifully written paper on modern New York and quaint old Charleston and Mrs. S. J. Asbury talked of the cities of the West in a most interesting manner.

The music for the afternoon was a delightful surprise being contributed by two out of town visitors—Mr. Gallery of Parker-Gardner, Charlotte, gave several violin selections with Mrs. Roberts accompanying him and Mrs. Roberts gave two delightful solos.

A delicious salad course, with coffee and accessories was served at the close of the program. The refreshments, as well as the decorations of the hall, were appropriately suggestive of Washington's birthday. A large number of members and visitors enjoyed this meeting.

Prof. Gallery Plays

Prof. J. F. Gallery, of Charlotte, was a guest of the Woman's Club at their luncheon Wednesday. He furnished several delightful musical selections, which were greatly enjoyed. Prof. Gallery also played at the Romina theatre during their showing of 'King of Kings.'

Change of Meeting

The Dramatic Club meeting has been postponed from Thursday, February 14 to Tuesday, February 19. All members are requested to bear in mind the change of date.

YOUNG MAN SHOT WHILE RABBIT HUNTING TUESDAY

Play Owens, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Jones, of Ellenboro, was shot and seriously wounded Tuesday afternoon while hunting. He, in company with several others, were hunting, when a rabbit suddenly jumped up. John Allen, one of the party, quickly took aim and fired. The discharge of the gun entered the hip of Owens, inflicting a serious wound. He was taken to The Rutherford Hospital where he is resting very well. There is yet some doubt as to whether his leg can be saved. Both Owens and Allen are highly respected young men of the Ellenboro community.

The large store is now being attractively arranged for the sale and a large force of competent salespeople will be on hand to take care of the rush during the sale.

Y. P. M. SOCIETY GIVES "OLD MAIDS" PARTY

Circle No. One of the Y. P. M. Society of the Methodist church gave an "old maids" party on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. M. H. Hewitt. Each person came masqueraded suitable for the occasion, bringing a penny for each year of age, from which a neat little sum was realized. Receiving at the door were, Mrs. M. H. Hewitt, Miss Sudie Young and Miss Elizabeth Wilkie; in the living room and parlor were Mrs. M. F. Mogres and Mrs. Walsh Moore; in the hall Mrs. Ernest Roberson and Christine Roper directed the guests into the dining room where they were escorted back into the living room and seated by Miss Elizabeth Stradley, Mrs. Clayton Stalnaker. The meeting was then called to order by the president, Miss Sudie Young as (Miss Get-him-if-you-can) and the following program was rendered:

Song—"Hail, Hail, The Gang's All Here," by "The Old Maids."

Address—"On Cosmetics" by Mrs. Walsh Moore as (Mrs. Go-fetch-him). Reading—"The New Church Organ", by Mrs. M. F. Moores as (Miss Manhunter).

Solo—"How-Do-You-Do-?", by Mrs. Walsh Moore, as (Miss Gofetchim.) Selection—"A Gesture Song", by Mrs. Ernest Roberson as (Miss He-is-Mine), Miss Myrtle McDaniel, as (Miss Let-him-alone.) Miss Sudie Young, as (Miss Gethimifyoucan.) Mrs. Walsh Moore as (Mrs. Go-fetchim.)

Talk—"On Beauty Tints", by Mrs. Walsh Moore, as (Mrs. Go-fetchim.) Kat Song—"Different Selections", by Miss Lola Davis as (Miss Ihate-him.) Miss Ollie Tate as (Miss Myman.) Miss Ruth Dorsey as (Miss Findhim.) Miss Myrtle McDaniel as (Miss Let-him-alone.)

Solo—"An Old Fashioned Garden" by Mrs. Ernest Roberson as (Miss Heismine.)

Song—"When You and I Were Young Maggie", by "The Old Maids." It was voted and passed that this convention be held annually. A prize was given to Mrs. Walsh

Moore (as Miss Gofetchim) for the best costume.

Refreshments were served. At the close of the party the "Old Maids" paraded through the business section of the town to display their costumes which recalled to mind memories of years ago.
