BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Due to the fact that many of our people went away to spend Easter and also to the death of two members of this church the attendance was down to 308 in Sunday School last Sunday—eighty less than a week ago.

Rev. Smith read Matt. 28 for the morning Scripture lesson and used for his text Philippians 3: 10, or the first part of this verse which is "That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection."

The four B. Y. P. U.'s met at the usual hour. A number took the examination after the training course and each of the Unions extend to all who should be enrolled an invitation to join with them.

At the evening hour when the service began at 7:15 it looked as if the audience was destined to be the smallest in several months, but many more came in later. The pastor announced that the two deaths just mentioned followed by the tragic homicide which occurred Sunday afternoon just outside of town had been trying on all and requested that all pray for God's power in the service. He announced that he would not take any text but his message would be based on the book of Malachi. In his message he stressed the duty to tithe and make God first in our lives.

The Y. W. A.'s met at the Memorial Building Monday evening at 7:15 after the meeting refreshments were served.

MR. O. T. CRAWLEY DEAD

At three o'clock the funeral of Mrs. Oscar T. Crawley was held at this church with the pastor, Rev. R. C. Smith in charge. Mrs. Crawley died Saturday afternoon at the Rutherford Hospital after a brief illness. A large crowd of sorrowing friends and relatives were assembled at the hours for the funeral. The funeral march was played on the organ softly as the procession entered the church and then the choir sang "Saved by Grace." Rev. Smith then read from the Scriptures after which the choir sang "In the Sweet Bye and Bye." One number had been requested which was a favorite of Mrs. Crawley. It was "Death is only a dream" and this was sung as a solo by Mr. Howard Hawkins with the choir joining in the chorus.

Before her marriage Mrs. Crawley was Miss Della McCraw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCraw. She was born May 9th, 1898, died March 30, 1929 at the age of 36 years, ten months and 21 days. She was married to Mr. O. T. Crawley, December 18, 1911. Mrs. Crawley united with the Camp's Creek Baptist Church at the age of sixteen, but for the past eight years had been a member of the Cliffside Baptist Church. She was possessed of a charm and grace that won the esteem of all who knew her and was a devoted christian. She is survived by her husband, Mr. O. T. Crawley, two children, Mildred and Guy, one daughter, Ruth preceded her to the grave a few years ago. Also her mother, Mrs. J. C. McCraw, two sisters, Mrs. Howard Burgess and Miss Bertha McCraw all of Cliffside; two brothers, Messrs. Robert McCraw of Patterson Springs, N. C., and J. T. McCraw of Alabama; one half brother, Mr. Will Moore of Great Falls.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Robert Sparks; Chester Scruggs; Monroe Bridges; T. S. Tate; N. E. Tate; L. E. Ramsey.

The flowers were carried by Mesdames J. C. Carpenter; Robert Sparks; R. C. Watkins; C. H. Laughridge; M. C. Simmons; T. S. Tate; J. J. Frye and O. G. Morehead, the latter of Gastonia. Hightower and Matheny were in charge. Interment was in the family lot in the local cemetery.

MR. FOREST BRIDGES DIED SUNDAY MORNING

The church lost another member Sunday morning at 9:30 when Mr. Forest Bridges passed away at his home on the Shelby Highway after an extended illness. Mr. Bridges lost his wife by death about a year ago leaving him with five children. He has tried to carry on, keeping the children with him in the home. Now that they are left without father or mother near relatives are to take them. The pastor accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Crawford, Mrs. L. H. Campbell and Mrs. M. E. Goode supplied the needs of the orphans for the funeral and the immediate future.

The funeral and interment was at Sharon Church near Shelby Monday afternoon with Rev. R. C. Smith in charge of the service. Pallbearers were Messrs. Frank and Arthur Greene; Jarvie Hawkins; Horace Scruggs; Samuel Bailey; Varnell Morgan. The flowers were carried by Misses Vernie and Emma Price and Mesdames Stella Bailey and Horace Scruggs.

Mr. Bridges has been in ill health for several years but most of the time was able to be about his work. His death was unexpected until a few hours before his passing. Messrs. Claude Smith and R. B. Watkins of Cliffside Mills undertaking establishment were in charge.

The church extends to the bereaved ones of both these stricken families tenderest sympathies.
