Henrietta, April 24.—Among those attending the Woman's Missionary Conference at Winston-Salem last week were Mrs. F. H. Price, Mrs. O. J. Mooneyham, Mrs. M. B. Mahaffee and Mrs. S. J. Asbury, Jr. The Henrietta auxiliary is especially proud of being one of the seven societies in the Western North Carolina Conference to receive the Woman's Missionary Council Certificate for one hundred per cent work in their mission study for 1928.

At a call meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Book Club on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. S. J. Asbury, Jr., plans for federating into a Woman's Club were concluded. The officers of the Club are Mrs. O. J. Mooneyham, President; Mrs. Henry Jenkins, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Edwards, secretary and Mrs. J. F. Timmerman, treasurer. The Club will be known as the Community Woman's Club, the members to be from the four towns of Henrietta, Avondale, Caroleen and Cliffside. Mrs. Robert Neal was elected Club Parliamentarian. The Program Committee is composed of Mrs. Robert Neal, chairman, Mrs. Buren Phillips, Mrs. T. C. Lovelace, and Mrs. F. O. Hand. By-laws and Constitution committee: Mrs. S. J. Asbury, Jr., chairman, Mrs. W. S. Moore, Mrs. W. M. Lovelace and Mrs. Walter Mahaffee. Active work will begin with the regular Club year in October.

Mrs. W. S. Moore spent Tuesday in Shelby as the guest of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Price spent Wednesday in Monroe visiting relatives.

Special services will be held at the Henrietta M. E. Church Sunday morning. At this time ten children will be received into membership of the church and the Junior Order are invited as special guests, by the pastor, Mr. F. H. Hand.

Mrs. J. J. Lindsay, of Spartanburg, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Edwards, in Caroleen, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Asbury, Jr., and boys, Miss Virginia Poole and Mr. W. Louie Smith spent the week end at the Sam-Tom Cottage at Chestnut Hill.

Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Mooneyham and family spent Sunday in Asheville with relatives.

Mrs. Henry Putnam of Asheville, was the guest of Mrs. W. S. Moore on Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Lovelace announce the birth of twin daughters on Monday, April 23, Carolyn and Mirilyn. Mirilyn died Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, with Rev. F. H. Price in charge. Interment was in the High Shoals cemetery.

Big One Cent Sale Begins Thursday

The Hall-Rudisill Drug Co., will begin their annual Rexall One Cent Sale today (Thursday), which will continue through to Saturday. This is one of the biggest bargain events in the history of the city. The sale is backed by the Rexall people, the local store being a link in the largest chain of co-operatively operated chain stores in the world. The Rexall Store has the exclusive sale for all United Drug Company's trademarked merchandise.

The plan of the Rexall One Cent Sale is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price, then another item of the same kind at one cent. The system makes for tremendous savings on every article purchased, and there is no limit—buy all you want, but only during the three days of the sale.

A large ad of the Hall-Rudisill Drug Company, appearing elsewhere in this issue of The Courier will give you full details and prices of a large number of items on sale during the three days.

Engagement Announced

Miss Louise Rose, daughter of Mrs. Lula Rose, of Spindale, whose engagement and approaching marriage to Mr. P. D. Nanney was announced recently. The wedding will take place in June. Mr. Nanney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Nanney, of Spindale, and is connected with the Gulf Refining Company, of Asheville.

THE WOMANS CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Sunday morning, May 5, beginning at 11 o'clock Dr. John F. Kirk, of Asheville, will preach the annual baccalaureate sermon.

Class day exercises will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock, and on Monday evening at 8 o'clock will be given the graduation exercises. The awarding of diplomas, and the annual address by Superintendent Clyde Erwin will also take place at this time.

The Ellenboro school is closing one of the finest sessions in its history.

PUBLIC LIBRARY RECEIVED 200 NEW BOOKS LAST WEEK

Interest Shown By Borrowed Books—Library Soliciting Magazine Subscriptions.

Forest City's new Public Library is progressing splendidly. Two hundred new books were received last week and are ready for distribution. Forty books were let out last week, indicating the interest being shown in the Library. There were no donations this past week, however. All organizations that are desirous of giving a subscription to a magazine are asked to give Mrs. Carl Huntley the money and the magazines will be ordered. We wish to acknowledge a subscription to the Etude by the music club, one copy of which has already been received.

Forest City Pupils Make Good Showing in Typewriting Contest

Through a series of tests and the following students have won Bronze Medals and Certificate of Proficiency awarded by the Underwood Company on 15 minute tests.

Bronze Medal Awards won by Eleanor Meares 49.2 net words per minute, Virginia Mills 46, Joy Brackett 46, and Mary Hollifield 40 net words per minute. The Bronze Medal Emblem is awarded for a net speed of 40 to 49 words a minute for 15 minutes. (Net words—after deducting 10 words for each error.)

"Desperate Lover" Omitted This Week

The Courier's serial story "The Desperate Lover," is omitted from this issue. This week's installment failed to arrive in time for publication in this week's paper, and will be published next week.

We regret very much that we must leave out this story this week, but assure our readers that it will appear next week.

POPULAR COUPLE WILL WED TODAY

Miss Marie Huntley and Mr. R. B. McBrayer Will Be Married at M. E. Parsonage

Miss Marie Huntley and Mr. R. B. McBrayer will be married at the Methodist parsonage this morning by Rev. M. F. Moores. Only a few intimate friends and the immediately family will be present at the marriage, immediately after which the young couple will leave for Charleston, S. C., on their honeymoon trip.

The bride will wear a tan flat crepe traveling suit, with accessories to match. After an extensive bridal tour, the young couple will make their home in Forest City.

The bride-elect is one of Forest City's most popular young girls, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Huntley. She is a graduate of Forest City High School, was elected Queen in 1927, and is widely known as one of the city's most beautiful young girls. She is also possessed of a most lovely disposition and is popular in a wide circle.

Mr. R. B. McBrayer is one of the city's successful young business men, being associated with his father, Mr. Reuben McBrayer, in the Forest City Furniture Company. He is a young man of fine business qualifications and has a bright future.

CITY OBSERVING CLEAN-UP WEEK

Citizens Are Requested to Clean Up Premises and Back Streets This Week

This week is being observed as Clean Up Week in Forest City. Practically all of Forest City's public-spirited citizens have taken advantage of the added opportunity to dispose of rubbish, and have cleaned up back lots, vacant and business blocks and cleaned out the cellars. Already many of the streets and lots in town have taken on new appearance as a result of the cleaning up of this week.

Clean-Up Week comes to a close Saturday. The town authorities request those who have not already cleaned up their premises to do so at their earliest convenience, and the rubbish will be collected by the city health department's wagons. Do what you can to see that all vacant lots are cleared of all refuse, tin cans and other litter. You are asked to kindly co-operate with the officials of the city in keeping our town numbered one among the ten of the best in the United States.

DAUGHTER BORN

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hardin are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter Elizabeth Ligon, born Saturday, April 20th.

Bostic, R-4, April 24.—Funeral services for John D. McCurry, aged 21, who was killed when his car was demolished Sunday afternoon at Gastonia, by the Crescent Limited, were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at South Mountain Baptist church, near Sunshine. Rev. C. C. Matheny, of Alexander, was in charge of the service. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining the church.

He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Lula Bradford, of Spindale before her marriage, also a small child. Mrs. McCurry and infant, who received injuries about the body and head, were removed to the home of Mr. Wilson McCurry, at Alexander, a brother-in-law, Monday, where they are rapidly overcoming the horrible experience which they went through Sunday.

Mr. McCurry is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Ethel McCurry, of Union Mills, R-2, and three brothers, Messrs. Fred, Wilson and Ben McCurry, all of Alexander.

Pall bearers were Messrs. Champ Mooney, Rex Ensley, Roy McFarland, Elijah Upton, J. C. Buchanan and G. T. Hawkins. Flower bearers were Mrs. Georgia Baynard, Misses Mamie Bland, Minnie Bradley, Pearl Whitaker, Ruth Murphy and Mayoma Murphy.

Mr. McCurry was killed Sunday afternoon when the car which he was driving was struck by the Crescent Limited, a crack Southern fast train at a grade crossing near Gastonia.

Four other were also killed at the same time and two injured. Mr. McCurry, a textile employee, had been working at Belmont, but had been making his home in Mt. Holly. He was engaged by Mr. Fred Parton, of Gastonia, to take his family to Gastonia Sunday afternoon. In the car with Mr. McCurry were Mr. and Mrs. Parton, their infant daughter, James and Bud Parton, twins of Mr. and Mrs. Parton and J. D. McCurry, Jr., infant of Mr. McCurry and Mrs. McCurry.

The train struck the car at a grade crossing near East Gastonia. Witnesses said McCurry apparently was oblivious to warnings of a watchman who attempted to flag him as he approached the crossing. Mrs. McCurry said he attempted to back the car off the track after realizing his danger. The car was completely demolished. Besides McCurry four others were killed, Mr. and Mrs. Parton, their infant daughter, and James Parton, their young son.

Mr. McCurry lived about three minutes after the crash, dying on the operating table in a Gastonia hospital. His skull was fractured and he suffered other injuries. He was never conscious after the crash.

Padgett & King had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mr. June Harrill Withdraws From Race

Mr. M. J. Harrill has requested The Courier to withdraw his name from the column of official announcements for Alderman.

Mr. Harrill gave as his reason, the fact that he could not find time to attend to the duties of the office in the event of his election. His name was announced by friends and he is appreciative of their loyalty. Mr. Harrill is a business man of fine judgment and has hosts of friends who will regret his withdrawal from the race for Alderman.

PRESBYTERIAL AUXILIARY MEETS IN RUTHERFORDTON

Rutherfordton, April 23.—The Twenty-second annual meeting of the Kings Mountain Presbyterian Auxiliary will meet in the Rutherfordton Presbyterian church on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 30 and May 1.

No Evening Service at Baptist Church

All the members of the First Baptist church are urged to attend the morning service next Sunday as there will be no night service on account of the revival at the Methodist church.

The pastor's subject will be "Assurance of a Future Life." A cordial invitation is extended the public.
