FELT BAD AFTER EATING

"FOUR YEARS ago, I suffered with heartburn and bilious indigestion. Whatever I ate disagreed with me. Gas on my stomach made me very uncomfortable. My tongue was coated and my color was bad. I needed a good laxative, and so my mother-in-law gave me some Black-Draught and told me to take it. I found it helped me very much, so I bought it for myself. Seems it was the very thing I needed. It is a fine family remedy, and I use it when I need something for constipation."

"I also give Black-Draught to my children whenever they need something for colds or upset stomachs. Our whole family takes Black-Draught."—Mrs. G. C. Leary, 103 North Alston Ave., Durham, N. C.

A Notable New York Cast to Present "Sun-Up" at Chautauqua

THE WIDOW CAGLE IN "SUN-UP," POWERFUL DRAMA TO BE PRESENTED AT CHAUTAUQUA

"Sun-Up," vivid drama of the mountain people of North Carolina, will be one of the big attractions of the coming Redpath Chautauqua here. It will be presented by an unusually fine New York cast.

Here is a poignant drama of the simple, primitive people of the Carolina mountains, living a life untouched by the great world "beyond the hills." How the World War shatters this isolated existence and plunges the Widow Cagle, her family and neighbors, into a vortex of emotional conflict is powerfully enacted in this great play.

"Sun-Up" has scored tremendous successes in New York, London and other metropolitan centers.

Henry Griffin and Wade Wells spent Friday in Rutherfordton.

Mrs. Joe Price visited her daughter Mrs. Jennie Hamrick Thursday night.

Misses Estelle and Lonnie Lovery spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Grady Walker.

The little son of Mr. Onzo Owens is very sick with whooping cough and pneumonia. We wish him a speedy recovery. Three of the older children also have whooping cough but are getting along fine, we are glad to note.

Mr. Bud McDaniel spent Wednesday night here with his daughter, Mrs. W. E. Stacey.

Gardens in this section are looking fine but the bean beetle is the worst this season they have been.

Mr. Will Davis and family of New House and Mr. Harrill Frady of Forest City were the evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Walker Sunday.

Mr. W. E. Stacey and family and Mr. Wade Wells were the evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Price Sunday night.

Mr. W. E. Stacey lost a fine flock of young chickens Sunday night by the heavy rains that fell.

People are getting in the grass by having so much rain. Most every farmer in this section have a good stand of cotton but very little has been thinned on account of the rain.
