WHAT DR. CALDWELL LEARNED IN 47 YEARS PRACTICE

A physician watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the system and is not habit forming. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for anybody's system. In a practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope, but go to the nearest druggist and get one of the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, or write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BB, Monticello, Illinois, for free trial bottle.

Daniel, has also been ill, having been confined to his bed with typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Smith and family spent last Sunday with Mr. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McDaniel.

Those visiting Mr. A. Brandle last Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brandle and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, of Chesnee, and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Kennedy, of Henrietta.

Mr. John McDaniel lost a fine mule last week. Going to the stable Mr. Daniel found the mule down, and upon investigating found that it had broken a leg in some unaccountable manner. The animal was injured to such extent that no aid could be given. The mule was shot.

Mr. Frank Adams and family spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Harrill.

Miss Jeanette Adams spent the weekend with her grandmother, in Caroleen.

Mrs. Dennis Butler and children were the guests of Mrs. Butler's brother, Mr. Tom Hamrick, of Ellenboro, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Phillips spent Sunday afternoon with their son, Mr. H. H. Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Brandle spent last Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. L. Hames and Mr. Hames, at Spindale.

NURSES know, and doctors have declared there's nothing quite like Bayer Aspirin for all sorts of aches and pains, but be sure it is genuine Bayer; that name must be on the package, and on every tablet. Bayer is genuine, and the word genuine—in red—is on every box. You can't go wrong if you will just look at the box:

presentative Biggerstaff, Mrs. Annie E. Logan, of Rutherfordton has been appointed a member of the County Pension Board. This is the first woman in North Carolina to serve in that capacity.

Mrs. Logan has been deputy clerk of court here since 1920, is a daughter of a Confederate Veteran, Major L. P. Erwin. Major Erwin served in the 16th North Carolina Regiment during the Civil War and occupied a prominent place in the affairs of this county during the reconstruction period. Owing to her wide acquaintance in the county and to her position in the clerk's office, Mrs. Logan is in intimate touch with the interests of the Confederate soldiers of the county and will be a valuable addition to the pension board.

The other members of the board for Rutherford county are O. C. Erwin, Chairman, A. H. McDaniel, Forest City, and Clerk of Court, M. O. Dickerson.

Worried Night after Night as health declined

"I SUFFERED frequently from nervous headaches, and I could not sleep well," says Mrs. Cora Dover, R. F. D. 2, Hickory Grove, S. C. "I was thin and pale. I was so weak I could scarcely walk. I tried several remedies which were suggested, but nothing seemed to help me. Night after night I worried because I could see I was going down-hill. I had my children to look after, and I was afraid of what would become of them if anything happened to me. I began to take Cardui on the recommendation of a friend. It wasn't long until I was beginning to pick up. My strength gradually began to return. I rested better at night and was less nervous. I took several bottles of Cardui, and when I had finished taking it I was in fine health."

THE fundamental reason for the success of practically every business that is successful, undoubtedly, is the character, initiative and ability of its owner, or those who are directing it.

But there are other reasons that contribute very largely to the welfare of a business, and among the chief of them is a good banking connection. Probably no other agency outside of your business is so great a factor in the growth and development of your business as your bank.

Business habits, practices and customs, nowadays, must be modern, practical and efficient if business is to be successful. Competition is too strenuous to allow anything except your best efforts.

A sound banking connection protects your money, promotes good business habits, and gives you a firmer financial standing and credit.
