LADIES AID AND W. M. S. HOLD MEETING

The Ladies Aid and W. M. S. met in the First Baptist church November 6th, at three o'clock for their regular business meeting. Beautiful roses and chrysanthemums were arranged artistically about the room. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Stallings, president.

Song, Sweet Hour of Prayer; Prayer, Mrs. W. A. Ayers; Scripture reading, Luke 4:17-19, by Mrs. Stallings, followed with prayer by Mrs. A. H. McDaniel.

Roll call, minutes read and report from committees. Personal service report as follows: visits to sick and shut-ins, 168; trays, 23; flowers, 81; garments given, 30; quarts of milk, 27; collection, $35.75; other objects, $342.90; Total $360.65.

The Society was glad to have Miss Athe Bostic, a returned missionary from China, at this meeting. Miss Bostic is well known here and has a host of friends and relatives. She gave a very interesting and instructive talk of her work in China, laying much stress upon the need of China.

A large number was present, also several visitors. West Main street Circle was hostess and served delicious fruit cake with whipped cream and coffee.

AUCTION SALE TUESDAY.

The J. B. Nolan Company, of Shelby, will sell at auction the J. W. McKinney estate, at Ellenboro, on next Tuesday, beginning at 10:30 o'clock. This farm is located on State Highway No. 20, just east of Ellenboro, near the Rutherford-Cleveland county line. The property has been sub-divided into several small tracts, each having a good road frontage. The property has several buildings on it, and offers a fine opportunity. Liberal prizes will be given and a big barbecue dinner will be prepared for 3,000 people. See their quarter-page ad in this issue of The Courier for further information.
