Editor Cliffside Page.

Our town is mourning the sudden and tragic passing of one of its builders; Mr. G. K. Moore, Sr. Monday morning, Mr. Moore with Mr. Lox Harrill were enroute to their work at Forest City when according to reports they were crowded almost entirely off the road and struck by a car coming in the opposite direction. Messrs Moore and Harrill were taken to the hospital at Rutherfordton, where at 9:40 Mr. Moore died without having regained consciousness. Mrs. Moore and a daughter, Miss Virginia and friends were with him when the end came.

Mr. Moore came here when the late R. R. Haynes began to build Cliffside and has served as engineer and director of construction work during all these years. He has had a large part in the building of the town as it is today and he was loved by all.

According to reports two young men and a girl from Avondale were in the car that struck the car occupied by Messrs. Moore and Harrill and the girl and one of the men were arrested at the scene of the accident and a quantity of liquor was found in the car. We understand the car was owned by another man who was also arrested. Immediately after the collision it is stated that one of the men hurriedly left the scene, but according to reports late Monday evening, he was thought to be surrounded in a woodland on the river between Henrietta and Cliffside. Feeling is bitter against those responsible and it is hoped that the law will make them pay for their crime.

At last reports Mr. Harrill was resting as comfortably as could be expected at the Rutherford hospital. He sustained a shattered knee cap and other injuries not thought to be serious.

Mr. Moore was well known throughout this and surrounding counties and numbered his friends by the hundreds. He was a member of the local Methodist church serving several years on the Board of Stewards. He was also for a number of years a member of the local school board and was always keenly interested in the progress of the town.

Mr. Moore is survived by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Margaret Dean of Forest City, and the following children: Mr. Charles F. Moore, of Cleveland, Ohio; Miss Virginia Moore at home; Mr. G. K. Moore, Jr., of St. Petersburg, Fla.; Mrs. A. T. Humphries, Lincolnton, N. C.; and Mrs. W. F. Blanton, of Morganton, N. C.

The funeral services were held at 1:30 Wednesday evening at the Cliffside Baptist church with Mr. Moore's pastor, Rev. D. H. Rhinehardt of the Methodist church in charge. The Mills stood Wednesday and as the Baptist church could seat more people it was decided to hold the services there. After the service at the church the body was taken to Pleasant Grove Methodist church near Forest City, for interment.

Miss Mavorean Lemmons entertained with a New Years party Tuesday night of last week. The guests were first entertained in the home of Miss Lemmons after which they went to the Romina theatre at Forest City for the mid-night show.

Miss Lemmons' guests included Misses Eunice Simmons, Sarah Hughes, Fern Pruet, Dorothy and Nell Padgett, Margaret and Katherine Kendrick, Catherine Hawkins, Georgia Blanton and Rachel Hill and Messrs. Francis Thompson, Edwin Hughes of Cliffside; Worth Wright, Robert McRorie and Claude Thompson of Rutherfordton; Berry Rhinehardt of Gastonia; Solon Smart, Oras Biggerstaff and Billy Watkins of Avondale.

Mr. C. B. Edwards spent last week in Florida. He accompanied his brother-in-law, Mr. Frank Duncan home leaving here December 29. Mr. Duncan lives at Haines City, Fla., and has been spending several weeks with his father Mr. W. F. Duncan of Harris and other relatives in the county.

Mr. Q. W. Lemmons was taken to the Rutherford Hospital Monday afternoon for an operation for appendicitis. We trust he will speedily recover.

Miss Howard, county demonstration agent is expected to meet the ladies here Tuesday night.

PLANS MADE FOR THE STEPHENS REVIVAL

Cliffside, Jan. 6.—Preparation for the Stephens meeting is going forward with ever increasing interest and momentum. At least three or four cottage prayer meetings are being held in different parts of the town every afternoon at 2:30 and Mr. Haymaker is here helping in a wonderful way with all the work. Sunday afternoon several ladies of the local churches met with others from other nearby churches at the Avondale Baptist church where Mr. Haymaker helped them organize and plan for serving the dinner to the men who erect the tabernacle Wednesday. They have their menu already planned and will serve a turkey dinner and of course other things to go along with the turkey.

Sunday night a number of men came to the R. R. Haynes Memorial building where Mr. Haymaker has taken a room for the present. They went into one of the assembly rooms where Mr. Haymaker talked over the work of preparation with them and then they turned the meeting into a prayer meeting asking for God's leadership in all the plans and work.

On Monday night at 7:30 a meeting was held in the large assembly room of the Memorial building at which time the chairman of each committee was elected and time and place for the several committee meetings.

At the meeting Monday night it was decided that to get everything in readiness for the meeting it would be best to have the services start on Sunday, January 19 instead of next Sunday, January the 12th.

Mr. Haymaker and several men met on the ground where the tabernacle is to be located and began work about 7:30 Monday morning. When they stopped Monday evening practically all the frame work was done and Mr. Haymaker seemed very much pleased with the results of the labors. More will be done tomorrow, (Tuesday) and then Wednesday, which is called "Tabernacle Day" it is expected that a hundred and twenty-five or a hundred and fifty men will be on hand to complete the job in one day or less. At noon the ladies will serve the turkey dinner and at this time there will be music and speeches. It will be a day of cooperation and fellowship that will be enjoyable to all participating.

We understand that several men at Rutherfordton and Spindale have stated that they would be glad to go out where ever desired next Sunday to tell the people who did not get in the meeting at Spindale about what a wonderful revival they had there and the blessings that have come to them from the meetings. This is certainly a fine spirit and much appreciated. It has been suggested that next Sunday teams of two—one Spindale man and one Cliffside man or one from this vicinity go out together to speak in all the territory in reach of the meetings.

The tabernacle will seat 2,500 or more and an annex is being erected also. The music committee are planning for 200 in the choir. Over two car loads of lumber will be used in the construction of the tabernacle. There certainly was fine cooperation in tearing down and moving the building from Spindale. Most of it, in fact nearly all of it was moved here last Saturday and placed on the ground convenient erection again. So far there has been such a fine spirit of cooperation we just feel that the meeting is going to be a fine success and with Mr. Haymaker to lead we feel that by the close of next week everything will be in much better condition for the right kind of a beginning than it would be possible were the services to start next Sunday. Mr. Haymaker seems to have won the hearts of all with whom he has come in contact in the short time he has been here and the folks at Spindale tell us that like the rest of the Stephens party he "will grow on us" as the days pass. He certainly seems to be the right man in the right place.

railroad trestle near the Lakeview Roller Mills. He was again seen in a car with two other men by a deputy sheriff at Cliffside, who was unable to catch him.

Police on Trail of Branch.

It was thought that Branch was either on his way to Gaffney, S. C., or Spartanburg, S. C. Chief Price of this city, telephoned all the surrounding towns and cities in an effort to head Branch off, requesting that the different police departments visit the hospitals and local doctors, for Branch was injured to such an extent that he will have to have medical aid.

Monday afternoon Chief Price, Deputy Sheriffs Marlow and Cobb, the latter of Cliffside, while scouring the woods for the driver of the death car in the swamps on Broad River between Henrietta and Cliffside, jumped Branch. Price and Marlow were both in sight of the wanted man and shot at him several times but he was too far away for them to wing him. They with the other two officers chased Branch for about two hours, and they ran him so hard he was forced to throw off his coat. The officers took possession of the coat and from the looks of it Branch was badly injured, for all the lining in the coat was covered with blood. Branch escaped the officers by out-running them.

Posses Formed.

Monday night posses were formed from all over Rutherford county and joined in the man hunt. At 10 o'clock Monday night it was estimated by Chief Price that 250 men were looking for Branch in the section between Henrietta and Caroleen. A large circle was formed by the deputized men and it was thought that Branch was in this cordon of Broad River and forests in that section. Branch was again seen several times Monday night, officers being close enough to shoot at him several times. While chasing the man officer Marlow tripped over a barbed wire fence and cut his legs rather badly, necessitating medical aid at Forest City.

About 1 o'clock Tuesday morning a great many of the special officers returned to their homes and as he had not been caught at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, it was feared that Branch had slipped through the human net and made his escape.

The girl that was arrested together with Woodrow Branch following the wreck made a statement to the police Monday, giving the name of the man from whom they had purchased the whiskey and whom it was for. The latter had already been arrested on another charge in connection with this case while officers immediately went after the other man, who lives in another county.

Borrowed Car.

When interviewed by a Courier reporter Monday morning, Woodrow Branch did not have very much to say. It was learned that he and his brother had borrowed the car from Gary Hames Sunday afternoon and had kept it all night, for he admitted that they were on their way home when the accident occurred. He further stated that if there had been any whiskey in the car he did not know it.

Mr. Moore, who was 72 years of age, being born November, 1858, is survived by his wife, Mrs. Maggie Dean Moore, and the following children: Charles Moore, of Ohio; G. K. Moore, Jr., of St. Petersburg, Fla.; Miss Virginia Moore, at home; Mrs. Nell Humphries, Lincolnton; Mrs. W. F. Blanton, of Morganton. He is also survived by one brother, John Moore, of Great Falls, Montana; two half-brothers, B. C. Moore, of Hendersonville; W. E. Moore, of Forest

City; and one half-sister, Mrs. Mary Webb, of Forest City. Three grandchildren also survive.

Funeral Services.

Funeral services for the late Mr. Moore were held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, from the Cliffside Baptist church, with his pastor, Rev. D. H. Rhinehardt in charge of the service. Mr. Moore was a member of the Cliffside Methodist church, and for a number of years was a member of the board of stewards. The Cliffside Mills suspended operation Wednesday for the funeral. As the Baptist church has a large seating capacity the funeral was held there in order to accommodate the thousands that were in attendance. Burial will be at Pleasant Grove Methodist church, near Forest City, today (Thursday).

Mr. Moore was one of the most popular and best beloved men in Cliffside, and was often referred to as the "father of Cliffside." He had a very definite part in building Cliffside, and had always taken a great interest in its civic and business life.
