B. E. ROACH Editor

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. D. H. Rhinehardt preached Sunday morning to an appreciative audience bringing a stirring message on "The Resurrection." Easter music was rendered by a male chorus which elicited many favorable comments from the hearers.

Mesdames L. G. Garvin, G. C. Shuford, Misses Una Edwards and Lee Womack will attend the annual missionary meeting at High Point from Tuesday to Friday of this week.

The W. M. S. of the Methodist church prepared the meals for the Lions club here Thursday night and also for the Rutherford County Club which met here Friday.

The Junior Missionary Society met at the Memorial building Monday night and the W. M. S. met at the church also Monday night.

FUNERAL HELD FOR MR. A. L. CAMPBELL

Mr. A. L. Campbell, who with his family have lived here for the past twenty years had been ill for several weeks, but had not been confined to his room until a day or so before he died Wednesday of last week, April 16. His passing came as a shock to his friends and loved ones.

Andrew Lee Campbell was born November 18, 1862 and died April 16th, 1930. He was educated at Catawba College and then moved to Lincolnton where he met and later married Miss Sarah J. Beal. To this union was born six children, Misses Lula and Jessie at home, Luther and Clarence, Mrs. Fred Greene all of Cliffside and William of Spindale. He is also survived by his wife, five grandchildren, one brother, one half-brother and two half-sisters.

At eighteen years of age he united with the Lutheran church, but some time after moving to Cliffside, there being no church of his faith here he united with the local M. E. church in which he retained membership when he died.

Funeral services were held at the local M. E. church Thursday afternoon at two o'clock conducted by Rev. D. H. Rhinehardt, of the local M. E. church, Rev. J. A. Hunnicutt of the local Baptist church, Rev. Keesler, pastor of the Lutheran church at Spartanburg, S. C., and Rev. Roscoe C. Smith, former pastor of the local Baptist church now located at Erwin, Tenn.

A quartett composed of Messrs. H. M. Owens, C. D. Hughes, Chas. Greene and S. L. Thompson sang one number and the choir sang other favorite hymns. The active pall bearers were Messrs. R. E. Carpenter, P. C. Hawkins B. B. Goode, Ed Pruett, J. C. Hames and Dr. H. L. Robertson. The flowers were carried by Mesdames P. C. Hawkins, R. C. Smith, Erwin, Tenn.; R. E. Carpenter, Charles McCurry, Ed. Pruett, George C. Shuford, L. G. Garvin and C. D. Hughes. Following the service at the Methodist church the body was laid to rest in a lot in the local cemetery.

Mr. Campbell had many friends here and throughout this section and a large number from out of town attended the funeral. He had been district manager of the Business Men's Insurance Co., of Greensboro, N. C., for several years.

GUFFEY-RAYBURN.

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized last Thursday afternoon at the bride's home when Miss Mollie Rayburn became the bride of Mr. Howard Guffey. Rev. J. A. Hunnicutt officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. R. J. Rayburn who has made her home here for many years. The groom is a young man popular with a large circle of friends.

KILLED IN FLORIDA.

Mrs. A. I. Moore received a message Sunday morning stating that her brother had been killed in an auto accident in Florida. She had two brothers living in Florida and we understand that it was Mr. Clinton Trent who a number of years ago lived here. Her many friends sympathize with Mrs. Moore in the hour of tragic bereavement.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

A large number of people went visiting last Sunday and spent Easter at other places and as a result the attendance at Sunday school fell away below the 500 mark.

The primary department gave a fine program at the close of the Sunday school hour. The beginners gave a program the preceding Sunday.

The ladies of the W. M. U. had the church beautifully decorated for Easter and many remarked that it was the prettiest ever. Different circles will take turns in decorating each week.

The pastor, Rev. J. Allen Hunnicutt read for the lesson Matt. 28 and used the sixth verse for his text, "He is not here." The subject was "The Resurrection." Special Easter music was sung by the choir and a chorus. At the close of the service

Mrs. Louise and Miss Macie Bridges were received into the church by letters.

Next Sunday morning the pastor will conduct his second services for the young people. His subject will be "Play Ball!"

The public is cordially invited.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT.

At the close of the Sunday school the superintendent stated, "some people say that a woman cannot keep a secret and the ladies say the men are just as bad, but evidently there is a lady and a man both here in town that can keep a secret, at least for awhile. On December 19, 1929, at Gaffney, S. C., Miss Geneva Honeycutt became the bride of Mr. Marvin White."

The new B. Y. P. U. of which Mr.

Wendall Grigg is president decided on a name for the Union Sunday evening voting unanimously to call it the Judson Union.

The subject for the evening message was "The Message of the empty Seat." It was based upon the words of Jonathan to David as recorded in 1st Samuel 20:18.

The W. M. S. will meet at the church Tuesday evening for the regular monthly meeting of all the circles.

WHITE-HONEYCUTT.

The many friends of the contracting parties were very much surprised when it became known recently that on December 19, 1929, Mr. Marvin White and Miss Geneva Honeycutt were married at Gaffney. Mrs. White is the attractive daughter of Mrs. Weldon Honeycutt of Cliffside and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. White of Floyd's Creek. Both are popular in the younger set and have a host of friends who will be interested to learn of their marriage.

Local Happenings

Miss Ruth Hawkins spent the week end with friends at Shelby.

Mrs. G. K. Moore and daughter and Mr. John Crawley accompanied by Mrs. Mattie Vernon of Forest City, spent Easter at Hickory and Morganton, N. C.

Mrs. F. S. Hall, of Avondale, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. J. P. Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Webb and little son, Fred, Jr., spent Easter here with Mrs. Webb's mother, Mrs. J. P. Carpenter.

Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Robertson were to have spent Easter at the home of Mrs. Robertson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Finch, at Guilford college. Mrs. Robertson left Thursday of last week and Dr. Robertson was to follow Friday but received a message stating that his mother, Mrs. Robertson, of White Plains, N. C., had received severe injuries in an automobile accident and he left Friday for the bedside of his mother. They returned Monday night. Mrs. Robertson, though yet scarcely able to move, is thought to be improving.

Mr. Crawford Carpenter, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is now improving and was out on the street Tuesday.
