Banking and Confidence

A Bank must have the confidence of the section it serves if it does any good for itself or the section where it is located.

The Bank, likewise, must have confidence in the people, generally speaking, if it gives full banking service in its section.

Therefore CONFIDENCE is the basis on which BANKING RELATIONS are established.

We feel that we can merit your confidence and that our years of good, safe, sound banking in your adjoining county should attract your confidence.

Likewise our coming with Banking Service to your section should prove beyond doubt our confidence in your citizenship, your worth, your courage, your ability, honesty and public spirit.

We want to grow and want you to grow. We want your confidence and promise you it will not be misplaced.
