THIS 'N THAT

(By H. L. W., Bostic, N. C.)

Seneca wrote, "No man is found who can acquit himself." All men have faults. Nature's inevitable mould. The ability to ignore the other fellow's and concentrate on one's own nature's incomparable compensation. Most friendships spring up from the hot-bed of admiration. Being tender plants they require careful handling. Praise your friends openly, let them bask in the sunshine of your good nature-amplified to the 'nth degree; exercise your fault-finding proclivities among your enemies, exclusively.

If the commonwealth is so greatly disturbed because of taxation, tax problems and new sources of revenue why can not some genius introduce another system, present a feasible solution and discover The New Source? No hurry. answer at leisure. In the meantime ignore defunct banks, spin hurriedly to a skating tent, on the way eat ice cream, moon in the dark! (it's declared possible!), or beguile times passing at the movies?

"The soul best discovers itself in the eyes of another." a true friend often is a mirror for the soul. Wise men affirm that life and mind need not always be associated with matter, but that they can and do inhabit empty space. Truly, the soul cometh from afar; is ever seeking affinity with others and more glorious realities.

Strange how love and hate seem to commingle in everyday life. Reflection will widen the rift between them. Love is positive, hate is negative. The one engenders life, the other is the sole source by which come stagnation and ultimate death. Once in every man's life comes the time to settle the most delicate and serious question. Then it is his friends will misunderstand. He must decide alone. The picture is pathetic and sublimely grand!

How prone is humanity to judge! And how poorly equipped and inefficient to execute justice! Justice is neither here nor there. It lives within the heart but is so often hidden and sequestered, hampered and handicapped it functions haltingly.

FIRE DESTROYS HOUSE ON HARRILL STREET

A house on Harrill street, belonging to Mrs. Charles Harrill, was completely destroyed by fire last Wednesday night about ten o'clock. The fire was not discovered until the entire building was a solid mass of flames. Both trucks responded to the call, but nothing could be done toward checking the flames, as they had already gained such headway.

The origin of the blaze was unknown. The house was vacant, a family having moved out Wednesday morning.

The building was a frame structure, valued at about $1,000.

G. O. P. DELEGATES TO MEET IN BRYSON CITY

Bryson City, Apr. 22.—With more than 200 delegates expected, the tenth congressional Republican district meet will open Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Swain county courthouse at Bryson City. George Ward of Waynesville will offer the name of Brownlow Jackson of Hendersonville as the district's choice for Congress.

It is expected that Lawrence Pace of Hendersonville and other delegates from that county will second the nomination of the former chairman of the state Republican executive committee. It was indicated the nomination would be by acclamation.

Mr. Jackson was placed in the race at the earnest solicitation of friends and party leaders who have placed before him the necessity of his strength to enable the G. O. P. to secure this district and in the support of George M. Pritchard of Asheville, candidate for United States Senate.

A large number of republican leaders of Rutherford county will attend this meeting.

Revenge is sweet only to the very small individuals.

Many a true word is spoken by mistake.
