COURT IS ASKED TO DECIDE TAX DEPOSIT TANGLE

Opinion of Court Sought on Who is Responsible for $23,000 in Tax Funds.

The Rutherford county superior court, now in session, will likely decide who is responsible for $23,000 of Rutherford county's tax money.

A meeting of attorneys was held Saturday morning and certain issues were agreed upon, which will be submitted to the court for an opinion.

The facts in the case are briefly this: Sheriff Hardin had collected $30,000 in tax money. He checked $23,000 over to the county treasurer, Mrs. Minnie Blanton. The check was on the Forest City bank and before the check was cleared through Charlotte and Rutherfordton and credited to the county treasurer, both Rutherfordton and Forest City banks had failed. An interesting point of law is at stake. If the sheriff or treasurer is responsible, their bondsmen will pay. Both defunct banks were county depositories. If the banks are responsible, which one? Did the banks furnish the commissioners surety bonds sufficient in amount to protect the county funds or will the county share in the winding up of the bank affairs with other depositors?
