

BUYS LARGE TRACT LAND IN COUNTY

Western Carolina Power Co., Acquires Large Holdings in Rutherford and Cleveland Counties.

The Western Carolina Power Company, a subsidiary of the Duke Power Company, has recently purchased over three thousand acres of land in Rutherford county. The land purchased lies for the most part in the townships of Sulphur Springs and High Shoals on and near Broad River. The land was purchased from the Cliffside Mills, the R. R. Haynes estate and the Cone Export and Commission company, of Greensboro. The three deeds recorded in the court house takes up many pages and gives in detail the lands purchased. The deeds are dated April 21, 1930. This firm also purchased land in Cleveland county on Broad River. The deed says in part: The Western Carolina Power Co., a corporation also bought the right, privilege and easement to back, pond, raise or flood the waters of Main Board River and each and all of the tributaries thereof and to divert said waters through, in, upon, over and or away from the tract of land in connection with the construction, operation, maintenance, repairing, replacing or renewing one or more electric generating plants, including dam, power houses and other necessary or desirable structures on or across Main Broad River the top of any flood gate so erected not to exceed in height the elevation of 680 feet above sea level, U. S. G. S. Datum. The company also has a right to cut away and otherwise remove all trees, brush, structures, etc.

New Ford Car Wins Favor

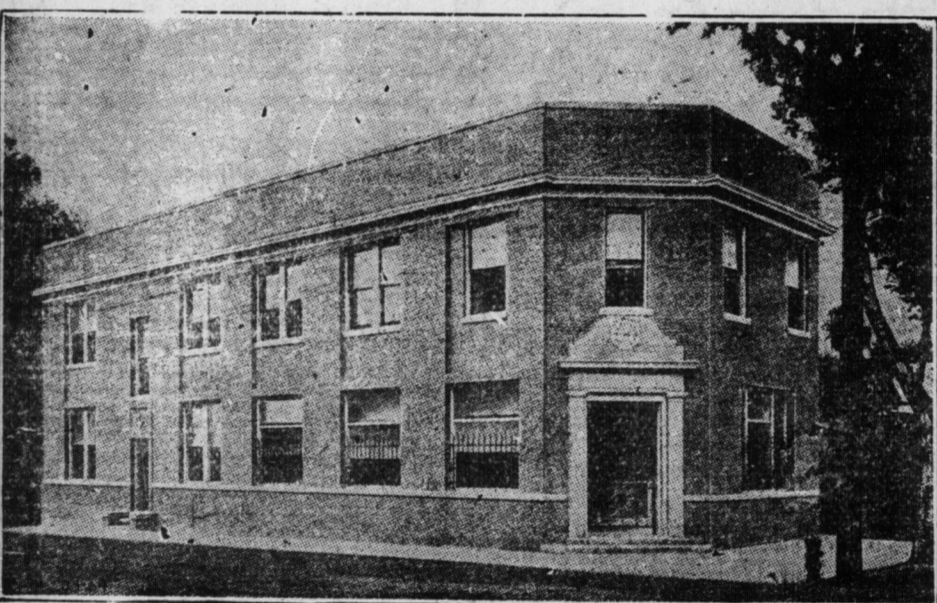

Ford Phaeton

THE Ford Phaeton, shown above, is equally popular as a family car and as a sport car for young people. The seating arrangement provides for the driver and one passenger in front and three passengers in the rear. Seats are upholstered in two-tone cross cobra grain artificial leather.

The top is of the quick collapsing type, easily handled by one person, and folds flat. The windshield, of Triplex shatter-proof glass, is of the folding type and can be laid flat forward. The windshield wings fold over it, emphasizing the sport effect of the car.

WORTH WHILE

Maybe SAVING isn't always convenient. Maybe it's a kind of nuisance or even a mild hardship, but the time invariably comes when troubles are multiplied, when a fellow is out of a job or working only part time, and that is the time when a cash reserve is most satisfying.

Yes, SAVING is very much worth while if for no other reason than that it brings ease of mind and minimizes worry. We urge you to open an account with us and add to it regularly on pay days, no matter if your deposits may not be more than a dollar a week; the aggregate at the end of the year will be gratifying.
