Mrs. Duncan Entertains.

The following invitations were sent out this week: "Mrs. Amos C. Duncan, at home, Tuesday afternoon, July 1st, four to six o'clock. West Main street, Forest City, North Carolina."

The lower floor of the handsome new Duncan home was thrown en suite and was very artistically and tastefully decorated in vases and silver baskets of red and white gladioli and blue petunias; and the ever beautiful American flag was proudly displayed, which lent much to the color scheme of red, white and blue. The delicious brick cream, cake and fruit punch which was served, carried the color note of July 4. Miss Nell Young and Mrs. R. R. Planton greeted the guests on their arrival and introduced them to the receiving line, composed of Mrs. A. C. Duncan, Mrs. Addis H. Moore, of Hampton, Va., Mrs. Frank Masters, of St. Augustine, Fla., and Mrs. W. A. Datterer, of Charleston, S. C. Mrs. Terry Moore received at the North entrance to the solarium, where Mesdames B. B. Doggett and T. R. Padgett presided at the guest's register. Mesdames W. A. Ayers and M. F. Moores stood at the South exit of solarium to music room, where Mrs. C. E. Alcock directed the guests to the dining room entrance, where they were received by Misses Mayme Martin and Ruth Moore.

Misses Margaret Young and Robbie Biggerstaff received in the main dining room, and Mesdames J. F. Weathers and Spurgeon Moss received the guests in the second dining room, introducing them to Mrs. G. C. McDaniel, who stood at the entrance to the library, where Mrs. F. F. Black presided at the punch bowl. The bevy of beautiful young la-adies who assisted in serving, were beautifully attired in lovely summer frocks of pastel shades. Serving were: Misses Margaret Moore, Miriam Padgett, Lilah Padgett, Sara Ruth Doggett, Dorothy Bostic and Ruth Reid. One hundred and fifty guests called during the afternoon.

Dinner Party.

Mrs. J. F. Alexander entertained at 1 o'clock dinner Saturday honoring Mr. and Mrs. Addis H. Moore, of Hampton, Va., who are visiting relatives throughout the county. Plates were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Addis H. Moore and children, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Biggerstaff, Mrs. J. S. Dorton and daughter, of Shelby, Mrs. Chas. A. Ford and son, Charles, Mr. William Biggerstaff, Miss Robbie Biggerstaff, and Misses Nell and Margaret Young.

Entertains at Bridge.

Mrs. Walter W. Richbourg entertained at four tables of bridge on Wednesday afternoon from four to six o'clock at the "Dutch Grill" honoring her sister, Mrs. W. A. Dotterer, of Charleston, S. C. The main dining room of the "Dutch Grill" was beautifully decorated in flags and red and white flowers, and the very attractive tally cards in the form of flags, eagles and the statute of Liberty carried out the color note of July 4th.

A top score prize was given and guests prizes were presented to Mrs. W. A. Dotterer and Mrs. Addis H. Moore. The color note of red, white and blue was carried throughout the salad and ice course served. Those playing were: Mesdames W. A. Dotterer, D. H. Sutton, Chas. Z. Flack, Spurgeon Moss, R. R. Blanton, Addis H. Moore, G. J. Henry, Terry Moore, F. R. Wilkins, F. B. Moss,

A. C. Finch, Frances Little, R. C. Alexander, A. C. Duncan, F. B. Long, of Spindale, Misses Nell and Margaret Young, Ruth Moore and Robbie Biggerstaff. Invited in for refreshments were: Mesdames J. M. Burkholder, E. O. Thomas, Wilbur McBrayer, U. S. Courtney, J. F. Alexander, M. F. Moores, M. W. Harris, C. H. Verner and Hoyle Elliott.

Hudson-Morris.

In a nuptial ceremony of simplicity and beauty, the wedding of Miss Hattie Hudson daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hudson, Route 2, Forest City, and Mr. R. Roy Morris, of Forest City, was solemnized Sunday morning at 7 o'clock at the Hudson home. The Rev. E. B. Hudson, of Cramerton, uncle of the bride, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. The Hudson home was beautiful for the occasion. The living room was beautifully arranged with baskets holding ferns and Queen Anne's lace. The improvised altar was arranged in the living room and was banked with ferns and flanked on either side with candelabras holding white tapers. A musical program was rendered by Miss Mary Crow at the piano and Miss Emily Camp accompanied by Miss Crow sang "I Love You Truly." As the soft strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Mendelssohn sounded, the bride and groom entered and took their place before the altar where the vows were spoken.

The bride wore a lovely frock of heavy white crepe, with picture hat of horse hair braid and white satin slippers. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. The bride's going away costume was a blue georgette ensemble with accessories to match. Immediately after the ceremony they left on a bridal trip to Raleigh, Wilmington and other points of interest. Mrs. Morris is a graduate of the Rutherford Hospital and has been assistant to Dr. C. H. Verner for the past year.

Mr. Morris is one of Forest City's best known young business men. He is active in political circles and was a candidate for the office of sheriff in the primary one month ago. He is a young man of much ability, and has been engaged in business in Forest City. He is a World War veteran, and served overseas in the A. E. F.

Birthday Party.

Little Miss Helen Ridings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Ridings, entertained six of her little playmates on Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, celebrating her third birthday. Many delightful little games were played. A beautiful birthday cake, with the three candles, made a pretty centerpiece for the table. Helen extinguished the candles, and the cake, with pink and white brick cream and lemonade was served to her little friends. Helen received many beautiful and dainty little gifts from her friends, who said goodby and wished her many happy returns of the day.

Celebrates Birthday.

Master Sillis Michalove celebrated his fourth birthday on Wednesday, June 18th, from 4 to 6 o'clock. He had as his guests thirty-three of his playmates and many games were played after which punch, ice cream, cake and fancy candies were served. All left with happy hearts and wishes for many returns of the day.

Haworth-Hamrick.

Alexander, July 1.—A marriage of special interest to their many friends in North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky was that of Mrs. Kate Mae Hamrick and A. G. Haworth, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on last Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. C. C. Matheny, pastor of the Alexander Baptist church, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The ceremony was performed on the step of the front entrance to the home. Potted plants and baskets of gladioli and shasta daisies provided a setting of unusual charm and beauty.

Prior to the ceremony two vocal selections were rendered. Paul Hamrick sang "Love's Old Sweet Song," and Mrs. Marion D. Blanton sang "I Love You Truly."

The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Ada Hamrick. "Love Song" by Henself, was played softly during the ceremony. The bride who was dressed in powder blue crepe with eggshell accessories was given in marriage by her father, John B. Neale. The bridegroom had Robert Neale of Jefferson City, Tenn., as his best man. Miss Margaret Neale, the only sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was beautiful in a dress of green organdy. Ruth Champion, the lovely little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Champion carried the ring in a white lily. She was dressed in pink organdy.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom left for points of interest in North Carolina and Tennessee.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Neale. She was educated at Carson and Newman college having received her A. B. degree from this institution in 1929. During the past year she taught English and history in one of the high schools of the county.

Mr. Haworth, a native of Kentucky, taught mathematics and science in one of the high schools of Tennessee during the past year. He is also a graduate of Carson and Newman college of the class of 1929. It was here that the romance began which culminated in their marriage.
