A Pleasant Trip.

To The Seashore.

Mesdames C. C. Whitacre and C. E. Alcock returned Thursday from a delightful week's visit to the former's parents, Capt. and Mrs. W. T. Willis, in Southport, N. C. They also visited in Wilmington and at Wrightsville Beach. A beach party, dinner and dance was given for them on Tuesday evening at the U. S. Coast Guard Station, Oak Hill island, where surf bathing was also enjoyed. Capt. Willis and his coast guard crew took the party out to sea on a most delightful boat ride, which was made the more thrilling on account of a high tide and rought sea. The guests proved to be "good seamen" and no "fish were fed." A most interesting visit was also made to old Fort Caswell, where every courtesy was shown them by Capt. Jelk, who is in charge there. A trip through the old battery, which was built in 1830, and all the building of interest, which were occupied during the late World war, was greatly enjoyed, as Capt. Jelk explained in detail what each building was used for at that time. Fort Caswell would make a most wonderful year around resort at very little cost, as there are many handsome buildings there which could be easily repaired and put into excellent condition.

The accident occurred when she became tangled in a rope while watering a cow, causing her to be thrown violently to the ground. She is resting as comfortably as could be expected and while she may be bedfast for some time, her ultimate recovery is fully expected.

HELEN KANE HERE IN NEW FILM SOON

Helen Kane, the "boop-boop-a-doop" girl, will be seen and heard in the title role of "Dangerous Nan McGrew" at the Romina Theatre Friday and Saturday.

Miss Kane was transformed from a stage person to a stage personality about two years ago when Paul Ash, impresario of jazz at the Paramount Theatre on Broadway, gave her a "break" in one of his stage shows. She sang her baby-voice songs so charmingly that she broke all attendance records for a singer and was retained for return engagements.

Shortly after that she was cast in Hammerstein's musical comedy "Good Boy." Her voice became a thing to be sought on the radio and her phonograph records sold by the hundreds of thousands.

Came her first picture, "Nothing But the Truth," with Richard Dix. It brought Miss Kane forward as an outstanding singing comedienne. Other hits in which she starred were "Pointed Heels" and "Sweetie". She was teamed with Skeets Gallagher in "Pointed Heels" and with Stuart Erwin in "Sweetie". Erwin is again seen as her blond and befuddled play-mate in "Dangerous Nan McGrew."

MR. ORSON MORROW DIED SUNDAY

Funeral Held Monday at Bethany Church—Masons in Charge of Interment Service.

Forest City, R-2, July 29.—Funeral services were held at Bethany Baptist church Monday afternoon for Mr. Orson Morrow, aged 68, who died Sunday at the hospital. The church was filled to capacity for the service, and many could not secure admittance and remained outside.

Mr. Morrow had been in ill health sometime. He was taken to the hospital a few days ago where his condition was thought at first to be improving, but was taken suddenly worse and died Sunday morning.

Rev. L. N. Epley, pastor of the Bethany church, was in charge of the funeral service, assisted by Rev. D. J. Hunt, of Glenwood, Rev. M. M. Huntley, pastor of the Spencer Baptist church, Rev. Mr. Goode, of Boiling Springs and Dr. J. S. Wood, of Forest City. Mr. H. B. Doggett also made a short talk. Each of these men spoke of the splendid character and high ideals of the deceased.

Mr. Morrow is survived by his widow, and three children: Mrs. Lola Cole, Harris, R-1; O. B. Morrow, Forest City, R-2, and Luther Morrow of Boiling Springs. Three brothers and two sisters survive as follows: Thomas L. Morrow, Oklahoma; S. L. Morrow, Laurens, S. C.; Dr. T. E. Morrow, Campobello, S. C.; Mrs. M. D. Wilson, Bostic, R-1; and Mrs. Doc Mickett, of Texas. Eighteen grandchildren survive.

Mr. Morrow was the oldest Mason in Rutherford county, from a point of service in that order. He joined when barely twenty-one years of age, and had spent forty-eight years in the service of that order, during which time he had held several Masonic offices.

He was a consecrated and faithful member of the Baptist church, having joined in young manhood. He was a member of the Bethany church at the time of his death.

The grand daughters were flower bearers. Member of the Masonic order were pallbearers. The Masonic order had charge of the interment service.

LINCOLNTON HIT BY $50,000 FIRE

Block in Middle of Town is Virtually Wiped Out; Outside Aid Given.

Lincolnton, July 30.—Fire, which brought out firemen and apparatus from Hickory, Gastonia and Cherryville to aid the local department, Tuesday evening virtually wiped out a whole block in the center of town at an estimated loss of between $50,000 and $60,000.

The blaze, which was discovered at 9:30, in the livery barn of Rhodes Corriher, covering about a quarter of a block, was practically under control at 10:30, after that structure, one dwelling and a garage building had been destroyed and a second house badly damaged.

Six mules, a horse and a cow, 10 carloads of hay, harness estimated to be worth between $5,000 and $8,000, and several wagons were burned in the barn. Insurance carried will practically cover loss of the building, it was said.

The home destroyed was occupied by Jacob Ramseur and family, who saved none of their effects, it was said. The residence in which R. F. Beal and family lived was seriously damaged and the garage of Columbus Heavener and A. P. Willis was burned till only the walls were left standing, although cars were moved to safety. One of the items of Mr. Corriher's loss, which it was thought would total about $35,000 or $40,000, was an old safe, containing all cash on hand, mortgages and other business papers.
