

C. E. HUNTLEY VINDICATED OF UGLY CHARGES

Gar Burgin at $1,000 for his appearance at Superior Court.

Warrants were sworn out for Huntley, Burgin and Philbeck Saturday as the result of a story told to Chief Charles R. Price by Burgin Saturday. Burgin met Philbeck Friday, it is alleged, and contracted with him to burn a house located on Big Springs Avenue here, the consideration being $15.00. A second meeting was held Friday night in the park, when Philbeck raised the amount to $17.50, and then went with Burgin to show him the house to be burned. Philbeck told Burgin that Clarence Huntley was to pay him, thereby bringing into the unfortunate affair the name of an innocent man. According to Burgin he wanted to find out the particular house, and "trap" Philbeck. After visiting the house and assisting in preparations for its burning, Burgin returned to the business section of town and told Philbeck that unless he would pay him $500.00 he would tell Chief Price. When the money was not forthcoming he reported the matter to Chief Price Saturday morning.

HOOVER DOES NOT RECOGNIZE TAX PAYER

Whatever may be the great ability of Mr. Hoover, there is one individual whom he does not know exists in this country, and that is the taxpayer. He seems to think that money comes like manna to the children of Israel from Heaven and not from the sweat and toil and sacrifice of the people.

FOREST CITY JUNIORS WIN FROM SHELBY TEAM

The intermediates of the First Baptist church defeated the intermediates of the Shelby Baptist church here Tuesday afternoon by a score of 6-5. The features of the game were the hitting of Lattimore and Abernethy, the latter with a home run with one on base. The hitting of Austell of Shelby was a feature of the visitors game. Abernethy pitched a splendid game for Forest City.

N. C. NOT SPENDING MUCH FOR EDUCATION AS NATION

Raleigh.—"How much is too much?" State Superintendent A. T. Allen asked state college summer school teachers when he discussed school expenditures before them and reminded them that North Carolina put out just half the per capita expenditure on the schools that is made by the whole nation.

Dr. Allen was out there justifying the state. He said that North Carolina is spending 30 times as much today on its schools as it did 30 years ago. And the ratio of increase is admittedly great. But at that North Carolina is not spending more than half per capita that the nation expends. The nation puts $18 into schools, North Carolina $9. He was not dogmatic about this whether he and his department should not call for further sacrifice in order to meet the standards of other states. Dr. Allen continued:

"To answer the expenditure of money in our public schools system, the question of the state's ability to pay what is accomplished with the money and whether it will tax the resources too much, arise. North Carolina has made unusual progress in education, but this is typical over the United States.

"The expenditure on public education in North Carolina is being scrutinized by the public as never before," the speaker continued. "Different critics take different attitudes. The opinion of these groups is divided in three classes. There is the bad bargain group who think we are able to pay, but are not getting our money's worth. They demand we turn out a better product or lower the price, but we can't expect to find the best over a bargain counter.

"Then there is the 'over-bought' group who think education is too costly and that the firms can't bear the burden. They say we are headed for bankruptcy. But when we only spend 2 1/2 per cent. for education of children out of our entire state income can't the 97 per cent remaining take care of the rest? I don't think the former will land us in the poor house.

"There is still another group," said Dr. Allen, "who think there is an 'excuse opportunity' beyond the reped of the people and that the opportunity is costing too much. This group would have the schools stopped in the sixth grade. They want to modify the course of study and stick to the old 'readin,' 'ritin,' and 'rithmetic' idea.

"North Carolina has seen other crises and has successfully met them. Her people are slow to start but don't quit. My faith makes me believe that we will continue in the future as we have in the past."

CARROLL FAMILY REUNION HELD

Large Number Gather in Annual Reunion at Home of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Carroll.

Forest City, R-2, July 28.—On Thursday, July 24, a family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Carroll's, four miles south of Forest City. For many years the children and grandchildren have been meeting each year at this place. Mr. Carroll was 81 years old on his last birthday and Mrs. Carroll was 71 years old.

There were sixty-nine present at this reunion, the largest number we have ever had at any meeting. The children present were as follows: Mrs. H. B. Doggett and family, of Forest City; W. F. Carroll and family, of Forest City; Mrs. J. S. Doggett and family, Forest City; Mrs. Herbert Carroll and family, Forest City; Mrs. L. B. Robbins, Spindaie; Mr. A. B. Carroll and family, Hurtsboro, Ala.; Mr. Howard Carroll and family, Hurtsboro, Ala. The children not present were: Mr. O. T. Carroll and family, of Forest City; Mr. L. M. Carroll, Douglasville, Ga.; The grandchildren present were as follows: Mrs. E. L. Robinson and family, of Forest City; Mrs. R. L. Huntley and family, Rutherfordton, R-1; Mrs. A. H. Gross and family, of Forest City; Mrs. R. K. Huntley and family, of Rutherfordton, R-1; Mrs. P. P. Head, of Caroleen.

All enjoyed the day very much. A feature of the day was the great dinner which was spread on the long table in the yard. After dinner the number present from each family was obtained by heads of each family reporting the number of children in each family. No deaths in the family in the past year was reported. We expect to make this an annual affair as long as Mr. and Mrs. Carroll shall live.

May See Body Of Abraham Lincoln

Springfield, Ill., July 29.—Plans are under consideration here for the excavation of the casket containing the body of Abraham Lincoln from beneath his tomb and of placing the remains in a sarcophagus in the open view of the public so that a more real sentiment may be attached to the annual pilgrimages here of many thousands of Lincoln devotees.

The plan has been encouraged by Herbert Wells Fay, custodian of the tomb, and numerous students of Lincoln in all parts of the world.

"I believe the time will come when public sentiment will demand that the body of Mr. Lincoln be placed in a sarcophagus for public view," Fay said. "Persons from all parts of the country who visit the tomb, have frequently voiced that opinion."

Lincoln's body at present is encased in a bed of concrete ten feet beneath the tomb which towers over Oak Ridge cemetery atop a high hill.

The coffin, containing Lincoln's body, was placed in a steel cage, which in turn was blocked off in concrete, because of a fear some years ago that an attempt might be made to steal the Civil War president's remains. An unsuccessful raid was frustrated many years ago.

Workmen are now employed in remodeling the tomb and the empty sarcophagus in which it has been suggested that Lincoln's body be placed has been removed from its show-place to an adjoining lawn.

It is proposed to spend $175,000 in the remodeling and make the tomb one of the world's beauty spots as well as having it fitted into an appropriate Lincoln Shrine.

Originally the plan did not provide for distributing "Old Abe's" body but now that it has been suggested by Fay it is possible that some action toward its excavation from beneath the tomb and the placing of it in a sarcophagus in a spot where it may be viewed by the public, may be taken.
