PRIZES AWARDED IN BETTER YARDS CONTEST

The annual awarding of prizes for the yards of Cliffside were given Thursday night at the hall. The committee, according to the many comments, had the hall decorated more beautifully than ever before and all available seats were filled with many in the windows and standing. Music was rendered by the McDowell string band.

Friday night prizes were awarded at Avondale and the committee there had made the school auditorium beautiful with many flowers and potted plants. Prof. F. S. Hall had secured a quartet composed of four young colored men of Avondale who delighted the audience with a few numbers. After the program was over the committee with several others went to the colored people's church at Cliffside where they found the colored people assembled and their church tastefully decorated for the occasion. There we heard again the quartet from Avondale with another quartet from Boiling Springs. There was also a female quartet that rendered one good number. Just before Dr. S. E. Wheelchel of Avondale, who also made a speech pronounced the benediction all the colored people sang one song that was much appreciated by the white people.

The awarding of prizes this year came as a surprise to many for they had thought because of the textile depression that perhaps there would not be any prizes given this year.

BOXER IN TRAINING.

"Jack" Blanton, Cliffside's 130 pound boxer, is working hard for a fight he has in view in Charlotte about September 1st.

He can be seen on the road every morning about 6:10 o'clock running a few steps to build up his wind. Blanton believes in hard work and clean living, but doesn't get enough bouts, to keep him in trim. However, he is anxious to go should anyone call.

Jack believes that the proper amount of exercise should be had to keep the mind working clearly. Since he likes boxing he chooses that for his exercise.

An Hour Of Music At Baptist Church

One of the most enjoyable occasions the music lovers of Forest City have had for some time was an organ recital given in the First Baptist church Monday evening at eight o'clock by Miss Frances Coleman, of Tulsa, Okla., assisted by Mrs. Nell Padgett Norris, of Charlotte. Miss Coleman, who is organist in the First Baptist church, of Tulsa, Okla., is visiting friends in Forest City, and it was after she had received many requests that she gave this program. Mrs. Norris is a former Forest City girl, and is one of the county's most noted sopranos.

Miss Coleman at the organ played the following selections: "Toccata and Fugue in D Minor," by Bach; "Dawn" by Sheldon; "Serenade," by Schubert; "Gavotte in F," by Martini. Mrs. Norris then sang, in her usual impressive manner and accompanied by Miss Coleman at the piano for the first number and then at the organ, "Love's in My Heart," by Woodman; "I Come to Thee," by Caro Roma; and "No Night There," by Danks.

The remainder of the program consisted of organ numbers, played by Miss Coleman, and were as follows: "Rustic March," by Boex; "To a Wild Rose," MacDowell; "Emmas," Fry-singer, and the closing selection was "Largo," by Handel.

It is sometimes difficult to convince the head of the house that two heads are better than one.
