Ellenboro To Build Fourth Potato House

Ellenboro, Aug. 18.—At a meeting of nearly 100 Ellenboro sweet potato growers held in the local school building last Saturday, it was voted to build another sweet potato curing house large enough to hold at least 10,000 bushels providing as many as two-thirds of the shares required to put up the house can be sold. If built, Ellenboro will have four houses with a total capacity of around 25,000 bushels.

Just after the meeting was called to order Mr. N. S. Lachicotte, Seaboard agricultural agent, spoke briefly to the growers. He was followed by two representatives from the Carolinas' Sweet Potato Association of Florence, S. C.

Near the close of the meeting an organization and building committee was appointed by A. B. Bushong, local agricultural teacher who acted as conference leader to solicit shares and supervise the building of the house if the desired number of shares are secured.

In addition to providing a good spring pay day the storage houses have proved to be a real live at home program for the farmers because many of them have their own potatoes for home use until sweet potatoes are produced each year.

In the 17th and early 18th centuries family Bibles were kept in oak boxes made especially for that purpose. Many of the boxes were elaborately carved.

50 Years' Use of Black-Draught

"About fifty years ago," says Mr. Lewis G. O'Shields, of Portersville, Ala., "my mother gave me the first dose of Black-Draught, and I have taken it ever since, when I needed a medicine for constipation. I have used this remedy all my married life, in raising my children.

"I have used Black-Draught for heartburn, as I have had spells of this kind, off and on, for years. This follows indigestion, and indigestion comes close on constipation.

"I have found that the best way to head off trouble is to begin taking Black-Draught in time. It relieves me of dizziness, tightness in the chest and backache.

"By getting rid of impurities, Black-Draught helps to keep the system in good order. I always keep it in the home, and have recommended it to many people, in my time."

2,000,000 Chevrolet Sixes now on the road

Since January, 1929, Chevrolet has produced and sold over 2,000,000 six-cylinder automobiles—nearly five times as many as any other manufacturer has ever built in an equal length of time.

These 2,000,000 buyers have chosen Chevrolet because it offers many desirable qualities not obtainable in any other car so low in price—

—the smoothness, silence and flexibility of a modern six-cylinder engine—the comfort and roadability of a modern, full-length chassis—and the style, safety and distinction of bodies by Fisher.

Yet, despite these fine car advantages, the Chevrolet Six is unusually economical. Its gas, oil, tire and upkeep economy is unsurpassed. And
