The Popularity Of Sheriffs

Congratulations to J. Ed McFarland, the third grandson of John E. and son of James V. An honor to family name. I am interested in Rutherford sheriffs, from Captain James Withrow and Sheriff William Carson, who served 27 years, and my grandfather, James Withrow Carson, his favorite deputy for many years and followed him as High Sheriff.

Since Sheriff Andy Long served several terms followed by his son, Ed Long. Then Martin Walker followed by a son or two, then sheriff John E. McFarland, followed by his son, James V., who was defeated by his cousin, Elijah A. Martin dividing their family support. And now comes young Ed McFarland and defeats the popular sheriff W. C. Hardin. The McFarlands came with the early Presbyterians from Pennsylvania and have large family connection. County officers do not necessarily involve partisan principles and politics above family pride. All wish to be on good terms with "our Sheriff". My children are related to the new sheriff on their mothers side, and they are closer related to O. R. Coffield's wife on both sides. In the Fuston-Populist days, Cleveland elected a populist sheriff who had been a popular deputy, Frank Fortenberry. On the first Monday in December when he took charge his many friends met to pay him honor. At noon 30 patched breeches, wooly-necked Hill Billies came staggering out of Shelby's two magnificent bar rooms, surrounding and patting him on the back, saying "this is our sheriff. We lected him, and all went home with him to the jail for dinner. And later they were assisted by mischievous Democratic boys who arranged chicken dinners on back streets, where the sheriff paid the bills. So they literally ate him up. And he had to sell his fine farm to pay the cost of his administration. The county lost nothing on him, but he lost most of his property. He made trustees of most of his jail prisoners and not one betrayed his confidence and left him.

When court was in session the case of jail prisoner was called the sheriff told the court the man was out of town that he had sent him to the country for a wagon load of straw and that he would have him there after dinner. The court seemed surprised, but called another case and all went on smoothly.

P.-T. A. OBSERVES PARENTS' NIGHT

Interesting Meeting Held at School Building Friday Night.

The Forest City P.-T. A. observed Parents' Night in the high school auditorium Friday night, Nov. 14. Due to the enthusiastic membership drive launched two weeks ago by the membership committee, with Mrs. W. R. Harrill as chairman, a large number of parents were present.

The program opened with "Who is Sylvia?" by the Girls' Glee club. Invocation by Mr. J. W. Jones.

Supt. J. W. Eakes graciously introduced Mrs. S. J. Asbury, the new president of the P.-T. A. Mrs. Asbury has had a number of years of successful experience in the Parent-teacher work and the association feels itself fortunate indeed to have such a capable leader and diligent worker as president. Mrs. Asbury welcomed the new members into the association and urged every member "to know your school and your children's teachers. Take an interest in every school activity; show this interest by your presence at all school programs, athletic contests, etc." The president also outlined briefly the work of each committee for the year. The welfare committee hopes to furnish a supply chest for the less fortunate children; to establish a milk fund for the under-nourished children; and to provide medical aid to the sick ones whose families are not financially able to care for them.

The civic committee plans to beautify the school grounds, paying especial attention to the back campus of the elementary building; to co-operate with the American Tree Association by helping to plant a number of trees before November, 1932, at which time they will be dedicated; to aid in the preservation of Christmas trees by urging Forest City citizens to decorate at Christmas time, those trees which are growing in the yard. A prize will be given to the home which has the most beautifully decorated outside tree.

Mrs. Asbury's address was followed by a vocal solo, "Dawn In The Forest", by Virginia Magness, after which membership awards were presented to the rooms which had secured the largest number of members. From the primary group, Miss Ottilee Long's grade received the award, her room having secured 51 members, one-fourth of the entire membership. Mrs. Flack's room received the award from the grammar grade group with 24 members, and Miss Perrin's room from the high school with eight members.

Mrs. Flack, the treasurer, reported an enrollment of 206 members; a collection of $51.50, with $6.25 disbursements.

The parents were counted and an award presented to each grade which had the largest number of parents present. In this count the fathers counted two. Mrs. Moore's room was winner in the primary group. Miss Ruth Barnes, in the grammar grade and Miss Bailey in the high school.

By special request a piano duet, "The Witches' Flight," was rendered by Doris and Frances Ledbetter and a reading by Allen Nanney.

The program concluded with a spelling match. Dr. A. C. Duncan and Mr. H. B. Doggett were captains, with Mr. J. W. Matheny as teacher. The match was won by Mr. Bob Hollifield.

The next meeting of the P.-T. A. will be held in the elementary auditorium, Wednesday after the second Sunday in December at 3:30.

The association wishes to express appreciation of the lovely stage setting so attractively arranged by Mrs. Grover King and Mrs. Sanders, members of the entertainment committee, of which Mrs. C. A. McDaniel is chairman; also to the membership committee, Mrs. W. R. Harrill chairman, for the splendid results accomplished in the membership drive.

LOCAL GIRL CONTRIBUTES TO COLLEGE MAGAZINE

Miss Lilah Gordon King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. King, of this city, a freshman at Coker college, Hartsville, S. C., was the author of an interesting article "War and Peace," in the current issue of the college magazine, "The Periscope". Miss King also had another article accepted for publication in the same issue, as well as an editorial.

Charming Simplicity In Cotton

NOWHERE is the evidence of creative styling and designing more apparent than in many of the new cotton fabrics which are coming from the looms these days in preparation for a new season's fashions. Charming things have been accomplished with such familiar old standbys as calico, but the calico of 1930 is as modern in its spirit as the newest designs and weaves in brand new cotton dress fabrics.

In the accompanying photograph at the left is one of the new cottons—a sheer chambray—in maize tone with eyelet embroidery in brown. The fabric is ideal and strikingly appropriate for this simple though charming afternoon frock.

The other model presents a smart interpretation of a new trend in styled cottons, a youthful frock of black and white calico. There is nothing here essentially old except the name. A white broadcloth collar and green, black and white bands of trimming provide a note of contrast.

Central High To Play Here Nov. 26

The two remaining football games in the Forest City schedule are the best of the season. Central High of Rutherfordton plays the final game here Wednesday, November 26th.

All the football fans of Rutherford county should avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing the game between Hickory High and Cool Springs High here Friday afternoon, November 21st. No doubt this will be one of the best, if not the best, high school games ever played in Rutherford county. Both of these schools have played excellent football in previous years, and now have the best teams in the history of the schools. The following is the results of the games this season. Hickory has only lost one game, that to Gaffney, while Forest City has lost to both Gaffney and Hendersonville. Cool Springs has scored a total of 127 points to their opponents 55 while Hickory has scored 155 to opponents 28.

Hickory High 6, Greensboro 0; Hickory High 40, Central High 7; Hickory High 20, Lexington 0; Hickory High 13, Gaffney 21; Hickory High 33, Marion 0; Hickory High 47, Lenoir 0.

Cool Springs 18, Chesnee 0; Cool Springs 0, Gaffney 23; Cool Springs 7, Shelby 0; Cool Springs 25, Cherry-

Nitrate of soda applied at the rate of 100 pounds an acre increased his corn yield by 14.27 bushels an acre, and at 200 pounds an acre increased the corn yield by another 14.42 bushels, making 28.69 bushels over where none of the nitrate was used, reports J. O. Ellis of Elizabethton to county Agent J. R. Powell.

PROFILES

A smartly shod foot, like a pretty face, is at its best in profile. Especially true is this of the new winter shoes, whose graceful stitchings, perforations and applied trimmings are at their very best, when seen in profile, revealing grace in both contour and decoration.

Adults Contract Children's Diseases

Adults can, and do, contract many children's diseases. And, usually, they suffer from them much more than children do. For instance, many adults contract worms, an ailment usually associated with children. Sometimes they suffer intensely and take expensive medical treatments, without realizing that worms are the cause of their troubles. Yet, the symptoms are the same as in children, loss of appetite and weight, grinding the teeth and restlessness, itching of the nose and anus, and abdominal pains. And, the same medicine that surely and harmlessly expels round and pin worms from children will do the same for adults—White's Cream Vermifuge, which you can get at Peoples Drug Store.

Awake Half the Night Weak and in Pain

NIGHT after night I could not sleep," writes Mrs. Mary J. Roberts, 117 West Franklin St., Raleigh, N. C. "I would lie awake half the night. I was dizzy and weak, suffered frequently with pains in my side and small part of my back. "When I was a girl, my mother gave me Cardui, and it did me so much good, I thought I would try it again. I took five bottles, and I feel like a new person. "I think it is fine. I would advise every woman who is weak to try Cardui, for it has certainly put me on my feet."
